I guess its right to say that if the evidence suggests that political parties in the uk have purposely destroyed evidence and on the face of it there is no valid reason why the SPGB couldnt have saved their writers works,then there is no doubt whatsoever that Google must be found guilty of tampering and preventing and destroying evidence and web production.It is CIA practice to remove evidence or prevent evidence that undermines the state and Google work hand in glove as they themselves are intelligence gatherers.

Spoliation of evidence is the intentional, reckless, or negligent withholding, hiding, altering, fabricating, or destroying of evidence relevant to a legal proceeding.[1] Spoliation has three possible consequences: in jurisdictions where the (intentional) act is criminal by statute, it may result in fines and incarceration (if convicted in a separate criminal proceeding) for the parties who engaged in the spoliation; in jurisdictions where relevant case law precedent has been established, proceedings possibly altered by spoliation may be interpreted under a spoliation inference, or by other corrective measures, depending on the jurisdiction; in some jurisdictions the act of spoliation can itself be an actionable tort.[2]

The spoliation inference is a negative evidentiary inference that a finder of fact can draw from a party's destruction of a document or thing that is relevant to an ongoing or reasonably foreseeable civil or criminal proceeding: the finder of fact can review all evidence uncovered in as strong a light as possible against the spoliator and in favor of the opposing party.

what the state does not want is internet users finding evidence that can be used in other human rights cases or civil cases against local Governments or central Government infact many cases through out the world have been won by using internet collected intelligence and evidence....I completely agree that Dark Politricks has been tampered with whilst offering anybody at all the chance to provide and participate in free speech.Trump is one of the most profound bigots upon the planets surface he rants on and on and on about free speech,in the UK the secret service and their agents block people off from creating sites and believe US when we tell you that it is done on purpose with the intention of preventing people from being named.Britain is pseudo neo fascist state where people offer services and maintain an order in exchange for rewards good jobs and payment plans are rewards just to get a bit to close to reality some people participate in the uk and thats the best way of saying it and cant even get a 50 dollar overdraft,then you get others that can take out loans of 50,000 dollars equivalent without even going up against red tape something wrong there and meanwhile trump rants on about free speech and yet many normal people trying to get the message out in the uk are slowly suffocating and strangled by internet espionage agents that monitor and block.....its real its deadly real they actually prevent sites being listed on google,folks build sites and they block them on google they wany tou paying a company with a credit card so they know your identification rather than just supplying the details through geogle geo sites are whatever many have tried Google will just block them and then if your lucky and it gets placed on google a few months later it gets taken odd line this is not freedom of speech this is fascism if you wanna write about the conservative party or how to make cakes and biscuits or some poop scoop site about cats and dogs no problem try putting sites together that attack the state and thats it..another thing we aint against Government dull stop or the police they are after all needed but lets be honest in the uk they are just part of drug cartels or the next week they are working for Putin or Trump or Cooacola.....

EVIDENCE GOOGLE BAN SITES:

Google has banned eight different adverts paid for by the Conservatives over the last month because they broke its rules, The Independent can reveal.

The move by the search giant comes amid mounting concerns about the Tories' use of disinformation and fake news as campaigning tools at the general election.

Transparency data released by the search giant this week shows that the adverts "violated Google's advertising policies" and had been removed.

If Poodle ban the conservative party from the Internet and the Socialist party of Great Britain ban their own writers then Poodle arent gonna think twice about tampering with Dark politricks are they?.... really I mean like there is a difference between and im not here to say it however I will remind you that if you are against then you are ...me im stuck in the middle cant get a loan or a reward cant publish cany go anywhere coz of some blo engineered bug cant do anything really than silently protest oh yes and you cant get food and the tap water apparently is filled with weedkiller ontop of that in the UK they are starting to destroy 5g becons look below for more info (on real) wars!!!!

Three recent mobile phone mast fires around the UK are being investigated as possible arsons, amid concerns that people are attacking telecoms infrastructure because of a conspiracy theory linking 5G technology to the spread of coronavirus.

The mayor of Liverpool, Joe Anderson, also revealed he had received threats relating to the "bizarre" theory, which has gained traction on social media.

On Friday, emergency services were called to reports that a 5G mast was on fire in Liverpool shortly before 11pm. Police confirmed they were investigating the blaze at Spencer's Lane, Aintree, close to the M57 motorway.

Potential Whistleblower Named But Not Proven

By M. Dowling - October 31, 2019

Eric Ciaramella, 33, was named as the likely whistleblower #1 by real clear investigations in a report by pro-Trump conservative reporter Paul Sperry. Sperry relied heavily on anonymous sources for his report but so does the mainstream. Still, the report makes the case very convincingly.

He is a Ukraine expert and his background matches the biographical details reported by The New York Times and other media outlets about the whistleblower.

Ciaramella marks off most of the boxes but The Washington Examiner said they found one significant error in the Sperry report. However, they did not specify what it was.

who was in on the phone call testifies and says Trump did nothing illegal and said nothing of what he is being accused of.....What a sh*t show this has become !!!!!!!

Albert Smith MI6 May 24, 2020 At 7:42 pm

Former Irish Independent Sub-editor Albert smith exposed himself earlier this year as a British bought journalist working (undercover) in Ireland,his own publishing company got hacked into through Yandex servers based in Russia.A group of unknown anonymous researchers claimed on various American publishing sites some time ago that Smith admitted to taking bribes from the Irish Police thats what TOR news stated – exactly that – bribes in the form of regular bank payments had been discovered being paid into bank accounts allegedly tracked and belonging to Smith,for legal reasons the bank details werent disclosed however Smiths own admittance to the affair has been documented in writing and published publicly on various Russian sites for safe keeping.

Smiths own admission of accepting money from the police is a complicated political issue.In a country with a history of political violence that goes back decades this form of self confessed espionage intel isnt simply going to go away,especially as smith is a British citizen,furthermore working for the police isnt something that is mentioned in passing and then forgotten about,later on conveniently being brushed aside under some kind of magic carpet so to speak.It is an extremely serious political matter. Now that information of t calibre is finally in the Russian public domain Smiths ill gotten gains become a statement of eventualities and more to the point inevitabilities.

The allegations derived from Smiths statement go far deeper than just accepting money from the police, in so much that the next question asked is how many other journalists in the Irish Independent newspaper have also been working for the Irish police? ,There doesnt seem to be much readily available evidence in Irish political history of journalists that have ever admitted to or proven to have worked for the Gardai before and so this recent Russian Yandex Hack seems to be another break through.

One would presume then that Dennis O'Brien the owner of the Irish Independent will become directly implicated as he personally holds and controls security files held on Smith and must therefore presumably be aware of any regular payments made into Smiths accounts, this places new light upon O'Brien and his relationship with Bill Clinton as the published book Clinton Cash named Dennis O'Brien as the owner of Albert Smiths newspaper the Irish Independent that gave money to Bill Clinton. Where exactly then are we led to believe that the money paid to Clinton really came from Enda Kenny?, Mr Putin?, The British Secret Service? The readers must also consider court cases Smith was allegedly involved with over the many years. Being paid by the Gardai as a witness to give false evidence to the Irish courts is more than a serious offense, it directly implicates that members of the Garda Siochana itself must have knowingly been involved in rigging political court cases, you can find allegations on Smith that go back many years on the internet ,just "Bing" it Albert Smith MI6- on how he lied in courts. Just to make the point if somebody had used O'Brien to pay Clinton (and hes one of the biggest liars in American political history) then that might explain one of the many ways why and how Hillary Clinton really lost the election, somebody or some government or rival party was following Clinton around the world and buying into payment slots, who knows? it would make sense for an insider perhaps Russian, or British to setup a deal with O'Brien and others like him and to pay the money to Clinton as he TOrEd the world, that way they would always have something on the happy go lucky trumpet blower. Espionage has no rules and there are certainly no rules on holding ones own opinions and views!! on determining where money could have possibly come from within the inner circles of the Clinton Foundation, its been suggested should Hilary have won the election all of the Clinton Foundation history would have been given a white wash brighter than the Whitehouse itself! The Mystique of Gardagate was in many ways created by the press in particular the Irish Independent and the master mind behind it all was none other than Journalist Conor Brady who worked with Smith and was identified by some as the person who removed half the Irish Government with his papers articles that appeared in the Irish Independent ,see where all this is leading to? Smiths monitoring/policing role within the newspaper itself. Conor Brady incidentally worked for the Garda Siochana Ombudsman Commission allowing him to gain his info on MI6 agent Simon O'Brien (former GSOC Chairman) ,so if Smith worked for the Gardai and Brady worked for the Garda Siochana

Ombudsman Commission that makes for an interesting cocktail of stinker ,tailer soldier spy and we know exactly who Conor Brady implicated for spying on GSOC,perhaps thats why he wont come clean on Smith publicly as there are too many question marks that remain around this unhinged Jack Ruby styled character.Recent evidence shows clearly that Smith was trained in America,Louisiana and we wouldnt be surprised if Mr Conor Brady could also explain who exactly payed for Smiths training,and then of course Smith wrote a Walking book that was published and nobody bought the book (its been checked on publishing records)so whos is really pooting the bill?There are too many idiosyncratic demeanours hanging above Smiths fed hes a ringer for example he celebrated the work of convicted fascist David Irving (a holocaust denier)who received a three years sentence for producing anti semitic literature,if any european journalist today wrote a similar article they wouldnt last for very long and we doubt for legal reasons any European newspaper would even be allowed to celebrate an Author like Irving in their newspaper or even consider promoting a convicted fascist,so whats really going on here? is Ireland itself attempting to rewrite its own history cant the Irish Government give an answer in Gaelic to US as to why so many people are remaining silent ?? Other allegations on the net include Smith being an unregistered firearms user and Google allegations point directly at Albert Smiths ability at giving false evidence in courts.Smith decided to publicly announce through one of his own publishing articles that he had worked for the Irish Police and Mr Conor Brady will be able to explain the Gardias role in the GSOC bugging affair..ask me if anyone has ever bugged a newspaper office or taped journalists phone calls and you have the answer right there!When the Irish Independent office itself got bugged nobody talked about it in the press and there was no need to call for MI6 or the CIA!!

Former Irish Independent Sub-editor Albert Smith exposed himself earlier this year as a British bought journalist working (undercover) in Ireland, his own publishing company got hacked into through Yandex servers based in Russia. It is apparent if you google yourselves there is no press or net evidence available on the police being prosecuted for entering false data onto their Government maintained police data bases(try it yourselves),yet there is documented evidence and articles for prosecutions against the police for logging onto the PNC system without permission. So does this mean the police have never been prosecuted for entering false data onto police computer systems in uk?well I doubt it...instead im sure there is a news black out on the subject then theres all the solicitors firms that advertise on the net and press...you cant find one article explaining that a prosecution has been brought against the police in UK for entering false data...now if trying to find evidence upon this subject yourselves after searching google or bing search engines does this not concern you???...if now you are concerned or bewildered at to why there is complete silence on the subject then understand the following the police and criminals/mafia and espionage agents make a killing out of unsolved crime in this country...it pays the bills for a pyramid of organisations and individuals who gain from leaking out Government information.MI5(the secret service,politicians,criminals,solicitors)are all to familiar with this activity of leaking out data and fabricating data on computer systems,drugs are often given to certain types for "muck spreading" ..theres a new saying going around theres nothing secret about mi5 except where they live and how much money they make.....Theres a good article entitled Andrew Dedman MI5....on the internet just type Andrew Dedman MI5 at google and you will find police officers who left their police positions and where involved in this activity they were given licences by the secret service in this country to break the lak drug users and businessmen don't care where products come from and they don't care about what they talk about for receiving goods and chatels,leaking out and fabricating computer data based information.Most people have heard of WIKILEAKS even though the people behind wikileaks claim to be well intentioned ask your self this who profits from wikileaks,,,,,,of course the press they publish wikileaks claims and then sell papers about wikileaks in exchange for money....

David Irwing/Albert Smith Irish police Investigation REF:GSOC 630170-03-15

According to press and internet sources Author David Irwing recieved a three year sentence for anti-semitic offences. Albert Smith Irish Independent journalist can be found upon David Irwings disturbed Reichsmarschall web site promoting "banned" fascistic publications where such items can be purchased. In his own words Smith callously and insensitively introduces Irwings "Goring Diaries" with the most medically inept and horrific of introductions. "gorings biography is unlikely to raise hackles".

Other disturbing promotional statements that appear upon this site include "this book is a goldmine for aficionados of nazi germany". Infact the entire site is a promotional site of fascism and the very collection of books written upon the subject by Irwing that he recieved a prison sentence for producing, later described by Smith smugly as his "Scholarship".

Smith apparently appears upon this site courtesy of the Irish Independent and more bizarrely under authorization of Smith himself (otherwise presumably some form of court proceedings would be pending against this journalist and this site itself). Smith carries on with his description of Irwings collection with the promotional sell of "provokes controversy" a statement upon a far right wing site like this can only be seen to be promoting a form of endorsement as the type of person(s) who purchase "banned" books from this site are obviously of a certain fascistic persuasion that will obviously "read" into such propagated lineage with a sick interest (anything that provokes controversy in the minds of potential buyers is more likely than not to be a selling point.)

From an anti-fascist perspective Smith is obviously demonstrating his real motives and complete understanding as to the need and necessity for the purpose of, promotion of and the production of these "banned" books from the twisted minds of the higher order. As well as the long term damaging effect of particularly emphasizing the conflicting controversy created by these sick items Smith can not in any way at all claim his innocence to the content of such "banned" books and there thousand and one misuses, as he is very much aware that David Irwing cant be expected to be seen in literacy circles as some sort of lone wolf, Irwing has become an icon to fascists around the world since being sentenced and is part of a larger "sinister" network of self confessed fascists that continually produce propoganda that is seen as an essential part of modern day fascist parties and organizations that globally are monitored and watched by organizations within and connected to the United nations and Mossad (the Israel intelligence Service).

To consent to write such a review and to consent to allow it to help sell such vile propoganda on the understanding that it is blatantaly anti-semitic is unforgivable, and beyond negligence and complete dereliction of duty of any alleged normal national union journalist or alleged normal human being, his own reserved judgement upon the contents of these books describe as Irwings "Scholarship" sells like a self proclaimed authority upon such matters and is an obvious stumbling block attributed to his guilt, because without production of his writen review Irving himself would not be able to promote and profit from the sale of his books from this site, the final nail in the coffin arises from the journalist self explanatory confession "one cannot fail to be impressed by the painstaking thoroughness of Irwings scholarship". This statement makes you ponder on whether Smiths idiosyncratic delusions are shining through in his own foerseen projected propoganda as a closet admirer, further evidence to summise that the coffin lid has finally closed upon Albert Smith in describing Irwings latest book as a "good offering"

When a country's main union for journalists polices the Overton window, you are in a society well on the way to authoritarianism. For four months I have been excluded from the National Union of Journalists and, despite repeated requests, the NUJ even refuses to tell me the nature of the objection.

140 days ago, on 5 March 2020, I applied online to renew my lapsed membership of the National Union of Journalists. For two months I heard nothing, then after inquiring I was told objections had been received to my membership. After two months more pressing I was told the objection is that I am not a "fit and proper person" to join the trade union. I still have no idea on what grounds this is alleged, or who alleges it.

A strange process is underway by which an investigation is carried out, and concluded, by the Assistant Secretary General and a report submitted to the National Executive. Only after the report is finalised do I get any opportunity to see what is alleged against me or to comment, which seems a quite remarkable proceeding.

The other thing that seems very wrong in this procedure is how objections were received and to whom my application was advertised. The system is supposed to work this way. The application is received by HQ, and is then sent within 14 days to your local branch for comment. That is the point at which objections can usually be lodged. My application has never been sent to my local branch, or anywhere. It has never left NUJ HQ. The local branch did not know the application existed until I asked a friend there to check on its progress, over two months after it was lodged.

In my case, my application has never even been sent to my local branch, where I was a member without incident for three years. Objections were lodged while my application was still at NUJ HQ.

But how can this happen? The NUJ claim that the delay in dealing with the objections (plural) is caused by the need to locate the objectors and verify their standing in the union. So if these objectors are so diverse and unknown to NUJ HQ, how did they find out about my membership application in order to object to it? The application was never sent out for comment or posted anywhere. The most obvious explanation is that somebody within the NUJ staff has tipped off some group to object.

I should explain the reason my membership had lapsed. I was a temporary freelance member for three years, which is open to those who get less than 50% of their income from journalism. If after three

I should explain the reason my membership had lapsed. I was a temporary freelance member for three years, which is open to those who get less than 50% of their income from journalism. If after three years you have not reached the 50% bar, you cannot continue as a member. I found myself unfortunately in that position.

As my other income has now mostly gone and there are now subscriptions to this blog, I applied to rejoin as soon as I met the income qualifying bar, after about a 3 year gap. It is worth noting I did not apply as a result of being charged with contempt of court – I applied some eight weeks before that happened. I am not seeking financial assistance from the union.

It is not the income question which is blocking my membership but the allegation I am not a “fit and proper person”. As I lead a pretty blameless personal life, this can only relate to my writings. I find this extremely sinister. It is certainly true that I write things that NUJ members within the mainstream media do not. It is certainly true that I attract massive criticism on social media from a section of mainstream journalists for my writings – on the Skripal case, for example.

But a National Union of Journalists which excludes writers for their opinions is a contradiction. I do not claim this as an absolute – out and out racists and fascists are a different thing. But the union is supposed to be a union for journalists, not for stenographers to power. I find the flat refusal of the NUJ to tell me what I am alleged to have done wrong to be particularly chilling. I find the entire process of handling my application, and the question of how these objections arose before the application was sent out for comment, deeply suspicious.

I therefore call on all members of the NUJ to raise this issue, either direct with NUJ HQ or preferably through your branch. It should not need saying, but strangely it does, that journalists whose political opinions are very different to my own ought still to support my right to be a member of the union. It exists to defend journalists, not to exclude them. If readers have contact with a probable NUJ member, I should be grateful if you could draw this matter to their attention and ask them to act.

I am very sorry to be obliged to publish this post. I am trying to rejoin the NUJ, not to pick a fight with it. My previous three year membership was entirely uneventful. I am a strong supporter of unions, that is why I am trying to rejoin one. But what is happening appears to be extraordinary and wrong. Who are these anonymous objectors and to what do they object? How did they find out I had applied before the Below is my correspondence with the NUJ. Note that I applied for membership online on 5 March and the first email was received on 26 May, eleven weeks later, in reply to phone calls I made to ask what was happening.

Tomorrow will be precisely one month since I last heard from the NUJ. They still will not tell me what the objection is, 140 days since I submitted my application to rejoin.

World Socialist Movement 503 Temporarily unavailable

Due to a security incident, the websites for the World Socialist Movement and the Socialist Party of Great Britain are currently down for extended maintenance.

 Learn more about the incident and what this means for your personal data

On 6 July 2018 the Socialist Party of Great Britain (SPGB) discovered that a malicious third party had gained control of the worldsocialism.org web server. The server hosts the websites for the SPGB, the World Socialist Movement (WSM), the Socialist Party of Canada (SPC), and the World Socialist Party of New Zealand (WSPNZ).

Once we became aware of the attack, we immediately took the web server offline and began taking steps to assess and repair the damage. Our initial assessment is that the attack took place on or around 30 June 2018 and that it was effected through a security flaw in the content management system that powers the SPGB website. The identity of the attacker is not currently known to us.

The evidence we have examined so far suggests that the attacker had the opportunity to access almost all information stored on the web server, including the SPGB forum's user database. The user database stores passwords in a secure manner, so it is unlikely that the attacker was able to see them. However, the attacker may have been intercepting data submitted through the SPGB website from the time of the attack until yesterday evening. This means that if you logged into the SPGB forum on worldsocialism.org, then the attacker may have your username and password. In any case, if you use the same username/password or e-mail/password combination on both the SPGB forum and on other websites, we advise you to change your password on those other websites immediately.

If you entered any other kind of information (such as submitting a contact form or sending a private message on the SPGB forum) on the websites of the SPGB, the WSM, the SPC, or the WSPNZ, then for now you should proceed on the assumption that that information has been exposed to the attacker.

We are still working to assess the extent of the attack and to repair the damage, and we will attempt to notify any and all affected users directly once we are able to gather their contact details from the relevant databases. So far we have been able to restore the SPC and WSPNZ websites. However, the SPGB and WSM websites could remain offline for several weeks while we fix the security flaw that led to this breach.

If you have any pressing questions or concerns about your own personal data, please address them for the time being to the SPGB's Internet Committee at spgb.internet@worldsocialism.org. We will post updates of a more general nature here as our investigation and restoration work progresses.

MI5/GSOC ALLEGATIONS WITHIN IPCC

Thu, 24/07/2014 - 9:46am &#151; anonymous (not verified)

- General discussion [1]

The IPCC (Independent police complaints commission) based in London uk, by virtue alone of its own investigatory powers is often perceived under the British Government as an autonomous authority that without itself being "policed" would in certain instances conceivably present problems that circumstantially could directly effect matters of national security issues within the country itself.

Perceiving the IPCC in such a fashion provides MI5 an internal platform and manoeuvrability within the IPCC hidden Agendas that allows the British Government to continually review alleged security risks where necessary and applicable.

It is therefore impossible to claim in these circumstances that the IPCC involvement with UK security company Verrimus in 2013 would be unknown to MI5 itself and that any components of existing security contracts within the IPCC remit would not be known to The British government in advance of any contracted work.

Verrimus Security later on 2013 provided Counter Espionage services within Irish Government Agencies named as GSOC (Garda Siochana Ombudsman Commission).

GSOC AND FURTHER GOVERNMENT SECRECY

On Sunday 6/7/2014 Sunday times published an article by Conor Brady a former GSOC Commisioner,a very powerfull and informative piece of journalism, outlining what the new Garda Siochana (amendment) act 2014 will bring into power for the "New GSOC".

Unfortunately however when certain Breaches in security itself have been identified and require legal solutions hypothetical anaylsis and parameters surrounding evidence itself become meaningless,once a state of security becomes obtainable.Infact the Irish Independent announced on the front cover of its newspaper on June 12th this year "HUNT FOR MOLE WHO BREACHED SECURITY AT GARDA WATCHDOG" make no hesitation GSOC called in the lawyers with a view to a kill.

Whilst certain members of "think tanks" have designs and ideas that are catapulting forward at incomprehensible speeds regarding GSOC new look and future.This articlele intends to freeze the big picture and put into context what security means within real issues.

In policing and CIA work security breaches allow emmediate sequestration regardless of court proceedings.Simon o Brien chairman of GSOC has been exposed by wiki forces as a former British Police Officer,arguable all the ingriedents for further speculation infact many here in Ireland are calling for his resignation and for many obvious reasons.

Final point here when security breaches are legally established in Banks ,Government buildings, then the Security Industry always presumes assumption that if its happened already then its happened before.Gsoc and the Irish Government are of no consequence within the papameters of GSOCs breaches within security issues itself, because without arrest or convictions over alleged GSOC Breaches within law itself in our domain we now have the affirmative right to determine that other formats of data and intelligence have been removed without the publics knowledge or consent breaching human rights.Force majeure.

DISCLAIMER ;The author of this article street canvassed this subject BEFORE the Yanki Panki back dated articles that can be found on the net that have suddenly and recently appeared over the last few weeks. >>>>>AT GOOGLE TYPE YEMEN NEUTRON BOMB EXPLOSION>>>>>>>

The press shows clear ongoing confliction between Yemen and Saudi Arabia.All war incidents are disclaimed or denied,political propaganda demands this.Press UN and Nato by law have to comply also to recorded events,in the event of no disclaimers what then does this state politically and in a world wide perspective?Scientifically the vilage on the video,flickering and spots on certain films are scientific pinpointers!Where else could the village be?

Why then has the world press and Yemen Government remained silent why has the Saudi Government denied there involvement,the entir Arab world by now are aware of his event and yet complete silence.Basically its a negative or positive on the film a person believes it has actually happened or they dont watch the films for yourself and decide.If you believe its a genuine reported incident or you dont know then this web page is your evidence if you believe its a fake then use this report and stae your grievance you have the space dont remain silent.

Nuclear explosions of this nature leave fingerprints,each explosion is unique in its physical appearance,so if some entity suggest its a Russian test film we can compare,all Nuke detonations by International law have to be registered.

From Russia with love-Red October remember there are people in UK and else where Paddy that would put me behind bars to prevent my person from carrying out this type of investigative journalism

Wikileaks-The Dedman Files (MI5 Dumping grounds)

Thu, 23/02/2017 - 11:48am &#151; Annie Machon

The Dedman Files

Aswell as "bent" cops you also have "bent" MI5 Officers,sometimes there own dirty trix backfire.Last time you went on holiday some form of leaked Government dat probably went with you!....read on..

Researching the Dark Web (Ground base/wikileaks) recently uncovered some interesting information hidden in TOR files,these files indicated that both MI% and the CIA have growing concerns over "Dumping".This is a practice used by "renegade" types who work in the military/police/secret service.The practice of Dumping is regarded in certain circumstances as a breach of Human and Civil Rights however it cant be stopped and often directly affects the individuals,companies,organisations involved.

To understand "Dumping" look at the inverse which is Wikileaks,Julian Assenage and company "Dump" classified info publically,its what MI5 amd their Dirty Trixsters have done for years only you wont read about anywhere.It makes money basically and generates power and certain European Governments over the years have built upon itIn Ireland for example In county Wicklow and Dublin areas the local Police work with the other half to gain and Dump information (On net article...Wikileaks Irelands CIA Operations).Bent Cops and MI6 operatives have for years taken Files over to Ireland where they are misused.Simon O Brien GSOC was exposed as an MI6 agent involved in espionage and left the Irish Government Body GSOC because of "Dumping".In Wicklow Ireland Tourists reported to the FBI when they went back home that local country cops brgged by putting American police badges in their stations where tourists could see them!!! Even former IRA members and Sinn Fein members brag that they share illegally gained information.In Italy and Spain Holidays are given to Dumpers,land property,homes are exchanged for information.the City of London Police did a really bad Dump a number of years ago allegedly sending over the owners of houses and buisness groups to the Russian secret service.Michael Flynn resigned recently as the American National Security advisor allegations against him include working with Russians and excepting bribes,Trump has a long history in property development and Hotels.

A percentage of british police Officers charge with illegally entering into British police computers are involved in "Dumping".

WIKI LEAKS IRELANDS CIA OPERATIONS

Wed, 16/11/2016 - 12:09pm &#151; London CT

- Rubbish bin [1]

The all American Illuminati are using the services of another order known as Irelands "Old Guard" this organisation is so deeply rooted that it cant be bypassed. Corrupt Diplomats and corrupt politicians form the dna make up of some of the members of this organisation/order whom over the last decades have operated under a blanket of secrecy as powerfull as the illuminati itself frequently violating international laws behind closed doors, one very good example is British Intelligence service placing British doctors inside of the Midlands Prison in the Republic of Ireland. As countries such as America privately buy their way into the Republic of Ireland CIA expenditure becomes politically obvious aswell as an unavoidable residue which leaves other law enforcement agencies such as the FBI no alternative but to become clandestine and renegade in their operations within the Republic of Ireland. A book called Black Mass written by Dick Lehr, Gerard O Neil explains clearly how the FBI recruited criminals (the mob) into their own workings, the powers that be have exported the same ideas to the Republic of Ireland where a collective of entities can more or less be categorised as being Irelands equivoalent. Far right wing farmers (in control of land mass), Failed and illegal tax loss companies (more ground base knowledge than FBI), Former Political activists (Intelligence and logistics), Drug Cartels (state enforced violence) are being recruited to work for the FBI in areas that include surveillance of undesirables. The Feds provide their badges to protect the illegals read about in the newspapers and other operations, information on undesirables filters back to the FBI through organisations such as Pearse Street Garda Station (Irish Police). Bent cops Bent Solicitors are all protected by the FBI along with judges and politicians and even if illegals are used to get evidence that is excepted.

Undesirable categorisation can often be generated on computer systems by various persons in various countries for example British home Office workers following alleged British Tax evaders in the Republic of Ireland can get names forwarded to FBI agents. There are certain politically sensitive areas within the republic of Ireland both on land and within business where this categorisation of person is becoming more and more predominant and getting black listed is becoming increasingly easier as the far right within Ireland become more desperate in keeping control over their ill gotten gains. President Trump himself has invested heavily into such areas before being voted in, he owns both land property and businesses including Golf courses in Ireland and so it would be obvious to the reader why certain undesirables in their minds are not welcome. President John F Kennedy was of Irish decent and used many methods to gain political control, Bill Clinton on the other hand has many vested and private interests within the Republic of Ireland, his own organisation the Clinton Foundation (long suspected of having CIA financing) recruited Irelands richest man Dennis O'Brien into their mists.

Dennis O'Brien owns newspapers, radio programs, security companies, petrol companies, telecommunications companies. The book recently published called Clinton Cash written by Peter Schweizer explains how O'Brien gave Clinton a quarter of a million Euro sum of money to attend private parties in Ireland and give talks over dinner. A person can't join the Clinton foundation you are hand picked the organisation itself carries out work such as building hospitals and schools in politically sensitive countries yet between them both they can't build much needed hospitals and schools in Ireland. Exports are low in Ireland and offshore a rapidly new expanding sphere so espionage in Ireland is becoming a profitable business with countries such as Russia South America and China expanding operations into new territory that physically joins onto British land mass. Areas such as shopping centres, libraries train stations, bus stops are effectively areas that require surveillance for example the working class and middle class in Ireland are pathetically apathetic to exposing political antidotes on wifi systems within libraries however if you attempt to rock the boat using a wifi system in an Irish library it's not a recommendation. The old guard use intermediaries as part of their own structure however these same intermediates are also used by the FBI that way information flows in different directions, intermediates can include, doctors, solicitors, farmers, land owners, Irish Police, librarians, alleged businessmen, drug cartels, health board officials, military, judges

This article has been produced because of the high level of Eastern European activity within Ireland. The Chinese and eastern Europeans are creating Irish history and quite often clash in political ideology with the old guard and the FBI. The modus operandi of the old guard has been over the last few decades a darkly kept secret hopefully this article sheds light on who really controls this country that sits on Britain's border.

wikileaks irelands cia operations

The article below found on <http://wikileaks.my-free.website> briefly outlines CIA and FBI operations within the Republic of Ireland, both the Irish Mafia and former political activists as well as bus drivers librarians lidl, tesco workers, psychiatrists, prison staff police etc are involved in tracking down and finalising of foreign and Irish residents on behalf of the British and American Government and other sinister organisations.

Andrew Dedman former mi5 member (American eagle tattoo on left arm) also known to Mossad who located his tattoo and Turkish villa can be found at google prompt he lives and works in Turkey and is a known former British Soldier who left or was he transferred? to the British police and then left the police again after he was heavily involved in British Police National computer work circa 2002, computer alterations can be found on the PNC system made by this person on data bases in UK, that have since been transferred to many other European countries including Ireland. Andrew Dedman was a former member of Hertford CID Police unit then transferred to the City of London Fraud Squad. It is a criminal offence in some countries to purposely alter tamper or willingly enter false information onto computer systems about British citizens however the British Government don't take this form of behaviour as serious, or seldom prosecute police officers and British Intelligence officers for forwarding purposely created inaccurate information to other Western Police forces and CIA and FBI agents in other countries, where this information in turn is then misused to create protection that extorts money and goods and chattels. (Thanx to the Hatfield cops for this info). It's amazing what a few bags of Albanian ISIS controlled drugs can buy cheers boys.

Jeremiaih P Conway The retreat from History: A Marxist analysis of Freud

Erich Fromm-was a jewish Psychoanalyst,writer,activist whose life-long concern was with developing and understanding the relationship between capitalists and mental health based upon his attempts to integrate the ideas of both Marx and Freud.Fromms work has been approved by both Marxists and Pyschologists alike,he also considered himself a marxists Erich Fromm: Book titile Marxs concept of man published 1961 fromm has been described as a key contributor to the Socialist humanist movement that emerged in the mid 1950s.

Narrative Neil Faulkner: what is the nature of the relationship between Marxism and psychoanalysis? Determination: Some marxists argue that it is social conditions,collective actions,and political ideologies that determine history not the inner mind,however - Sabby Sagall SWP suggests quote "Freud is necessary,he explains,because classical marxism lacks a theory of subjectivity "-of the way external,material conditions become translated into the pysche of the individual not just as ideology but as their overall emotional life....Psychoanalysis on the other hand provides an account of subjectivity which links the external structures of the social world with the internal world of each individual.it can help us understand how external structures of explotation and oppression are internalised in the mind of the individual.

SWP member Sabby Sagall publically stated on 22/6/2016...Erich Fromm and social character a reply to Iain Fergusons- Iain Ferguson article on Erich Fromm provides a welcome oppurtunity for readers of international Socialism to engage in a debate not only on the work of this popular but controversial writer but also on the wider issue of the relationship between marxism and psychoanalysis....sabby goes on to point out ironically that Fromm was attacked by the left for being a psychoanalyst,and by psychoanalysts for being leftist!

Sabby Sagall SWP Book entitled : Final Solutions: Capitalism,human Nature and Genocide.

What prompted this article is a site on the Dark web/TOR that now appears on Google and Bing entitled "Wikileaks Irelands CIA Operations" uotlining the new Cold war in our back yard.as we are aware The Republic of Ireland physically joins onto British land mass which makes the border area between both countries a political Hot Zone for espionage.The fight for control over the remains of Socialist Bertie Aherns previous Empire and Ennda Kennys New Right Government is both bloodied and dirty and goes further than the ballot box.The American CIA are using Psychological programs in Ireland as they have done across the Globe,In the article Wikileaks Irelands CIA Operations it mentions British doctors involved in psychiatry and psychology experiments in Irish prisons and that there is a possibility that these doctors have been planted by the Intelligence services.drug programs are in operation in ireland TOR/Google - The Dedman Files,where both British Intelligence and CIA are acused of "Dumping" both drugs and files into the Republic.Finally the net is covered in articles about Alleged MI6 operative Simon O'Brien GSOC who left his job after files breaching security where "Dumped",when the press Newstalk radio presenter Ivan Yates interviewed O'Brien about him using former Irish Police in his Department he got "ruffled" live on air more interesting was the point that the presenter didnt ask him if he was himself a police officer,wikileaks and other sources showed later on he was but at the time there was no mention of him being a British Police officer...OBrien later resigned.,Ivan yates apperently was a former agriculture minister who has since left the station.

UK AND IRELANDS LATEST ESPIONAGE VICTIMS

Fri, 06/06/2014 - 11:42am &#151; DAVID DUNDALE

- General discussion [1]

Who said Espionage in the new Superstate was dead?Ive pondered upon the issue for some time however Im now convinced from what can be politically witnessed within the republic over the last five years there is now a Superstate between The Republic of Ireland and the UK.You see Great Britain of which your the Socialist party of folks lies as we know geographically next to the Republic of Ireland.Unlike other countries within Europe along the border of Ireland there are no real check points or police or army you do get them from time to time however generally speaking you walk over without hinderance.Its a bit like crossing from England to wales or Scotland,The political impact of this is in some ways is quite remarkable on one side the Euro and the other sterling.If you examine recent political developments within the republic of ireland over the last five years its freightinging at what can be politically obseved.The last five years for a start there is no significant industralisation more than 80 percent of the country is farm and national park The workings of both the USA and British Governments can be seen at work in this country that relies on foreign investments and loans If you compare IRELANDS INDUSTRY WITH UK GERMANY FRANCE ITALY IT DOESNT EXSIST IRELAND DOESNT EVEN HAVE ITS OWN CAR PRODUCTION.thJE BANKING SYTEM AND FINACEIAL SIDE OF THINGS HERE IS A SHAM RECENT COURT CASES AIB HAVE CONVICTED BANKERS OF FRAUD THE COUNTRY IS RIDDEN WITH DEBT AND HP NONE PAYMENTS THERE ARE NOT ENOUGH POLICE AND FIREARMS SHOULD BE BANNED BUT THEY ARENT FARMERS AND COUNTRY FOLK DRIVE AROUND ALL OVER THE COUNTRY WITH FIREARMS IN THERE VEHICLES.Kennys government is based on the blue shirts just google blue shirts ireland his party still flys the blue of the blue shirts there is more security between Dublin and Wicklow than some border areas and the big industry is the Real IRA known now as simply the IRA .To be honest folks theres too much evidence to show that the FBI and the queen of England are making Big Bucks out of terrorism,Range Rover vehicles worth countless thousands are scattereded all over the country and the house prices have rocketeed within the last five years 300/400 thousand for shoe boxes that wouldnt have fetched 20 thousand ten years ago alot of property in Ireland was given by the state over the years for spying and people in this country dont want you to know it there were schemes to buy land and property cheap in exchange of course for loyalty.

Both the legal minister and the Chief of police left their jobs recently after admitting to Espionage within the Government the tv companies and papers and radio station exposed this, where was I well i was in the Librarys writing articles for this site! being spied upon by the Librarians The real story is the fact that the librarians were taped by eastern intelligence and muslim extremist you can still here them gaasing in the illac centre library i had to sign disclaimers with the Irish Gardai after offering to give evidence of them leaking out.Washington kiss my lilly white grass

MI6 under fire from GSOC mole

Mon, 07/07/2014 - 2:31pm &#151; anonymous (not verified)

- General discussion [1]

GSOC AND FURTHER GOVERNMENT SECRECY

On Sunday 6/7/2014 Sunday times published an article by Conor Brady a former GSOC Commisioner,a very powerfull and informative piece of journalism, outlining what the new Garda Siochana (amendment) act 2014 will bring into power for the "New GSOC".

Unfortunately however when certain Breaches in security itself have been identified and require legal solutions hypothetical anaylsis and parameters surrounding evidence itself become meaningless,once a state of security becomes obtainable.Infact the Irish Independent announced on the front cover of its newspaper on June 12th this year "HUNT FOR MOLE WHO BREACHED SECURITY AT GARDA WATCHDOG" make no hesitation GSOC called in the lawyers with a view to a kill.

Whilst certain members of "think tanks" have designs and ideas that are catapulting forward at incomprehensible speeds regarding GSOC new look and future.This articlele intends to freeze the big picture and put into context what security means within real issues.

In policing and CIA work security breaches allow emmediate sequestration regardless of court proceedings.Simon o Brien chairman of GSOC has been exposed by wiki forces as a former British Police Officer,arguable all the ingriedents for further speculation infact many here in Ireland are calling for his resignation and for many obvious reasons.

Final point here when security breaches are legally established in Banks ,Government buildings, then the Security Industry always presumes assumption that if its happened already then its happened before.Gsoc and the Irish Government are of no consequence within the papameters of GSOCs breaches within security issues itself, because without arrest or convictions over alleged GSOC Breaches within law itself in our domain we now have the affirmative right to determine that other formats of data and intelligence have been removed without the publics knowledge or consent breaching human rights.Force majeure.

British NUJ member Albert Smith advertises himself upon LinkedIn as Parpoint, he is also found upon the internet providing his own personal introduction to the antisemitic, racist digital production of Goebbels Biography (written by the feared convicted neo nazi sympathizer David Irving.)

Recent "net" allegations surrounding this book claim that Smith a former editor of the Irish Independent newspaper named his publishing company after the copyright and publishing agents found within the publication named as Parforce and Focal Point. The obvious question we now ask ourselves is should the National Union of Journalists be held legally accountable for Parpoints past activities when today racist criminals use their members provided copyright??

The article below is removed exactly from Russian servers and is not intended in any way to be outlined furthermore it is an anti semitic site that should be banned.

Albert Smith in The Irish Independent, Dublin, September 2, 1989. "THIS IS the best-researched biography and best biography in English of 'the second man in the Third Reich.' ... Göring somehow obtained poison — Irving has done good detective work here — ...

<https://www.timesofisrael.com/british-holocaust-denier-david-irving-to-lead-nazi-death-camp-tour/>

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2006/feb/20/austria.thefarright>

Allegations found on internet sites in April this year 2020, make it clear that former Irish Independent Newspaper sub editor Albert Smith misused his position of power politically to his own ends by celebrating, endorsing and approving the public sale of literature produced by self confessed convicted fascist David Irving. It was uncovered by Russian Yandex hackers that it was Smith's own personal decision and plan of action, none other, acting as a sub editor of the Irish Independent newspaper, to oversee the publication of an article produced and written personally by himself that would promote the sale of Irving's published fascistic books collectively by describing them as a scholarship.

After the Guardian Newspaper announced David Irving's jail conviction in for production of anti semitic literature it was expected that the NUJ under its own rulings and regulations would automatically turn there own immediate attentions to any Newspapers or journalists that had in the past prior to Irving's conviction blatantly collabored with Irving themselves in producing anti semitic publications for Newspapers. European laws thankfully prohibit actual production of any form of anti semitic articles in Newspapers for public sale, however despite the recent discovery by Russian Yandex hackers of the obvious illegal activity of the Irish Independent Newspaper the National union of journalists the (NUJ) have been found guilty of failing to take legal actions against known journalists within their organization that have seemingly committed anti semitic criminal offenses in the past when there is more than enough evidence to start summary proceedings against them.

The NUJ as an acting body does not identify the historically published anti semitic incident produced by the Irish Independent even though evidence of the newspaper article is still in existence and online today. At the time of Irving's convictions there where no NUJ investigations. Yandex sources indicate Albert Smith is at present 2020 payed a regular weekly income from the Irish Independent Newspaper which is a completely disgraceful situation.

Spelling of antisemitism vs. anti-Semitism

ADL has adopted the spelling of "antisemitism" instead of "anti-Semitism." After reviewing the history and consulting with other leading experts, we've determined that this is the best way to refer to hatred toward Jews.

The word "Semitic" was first used by a German historian in 1781 to bind together languages of Middle Eastern origin that have some linguistic similarities. The speakers of those languages, however, do not otherwise have shared heritage or history. There is no such thing as a Semitic peoplehood. Additionally, one could speak a Semitic language and still have anti-Semitic views.

And in 1879, German journalist Wilhelm Marr coined "Antisemitismus" to mean hatred of the Jewish "race," adding racial and pseudo-scientific overtones to the animus behind the word. But hatred toward Jews, both today and in the past, goes beyond any false perception of a Jewish race; it is wrapped up in complicated historical, political, religious, and social dynamics.

While removing a hyphen by itself won't defeat antisemitism, we believe this slight alteration will help to clarify understanding of this age-old hatred.

Irish Independent newspaper article that is used in 2020 to promote racist books sales.

David Irving's Goring biography is unlikely to raise hackles... One cannot fail to be impressed by the painstaking thoroughness of Irving's scholarship. He has tracked down critical diaries written by Goring to which no other biographers had access... and his passionate love letters.. Overall Irving's book is a very good offering. It is not as concerned to provoke controversy as many of his earlier works.

In sentencing David Irving in court to 3 years in prison for producing his alleged scholarship Judge Gray concluded that David Irving was "a racist, an anti Semite and an active Holocaust denier" he also concluded quote:"Irving has fallen so far short of the standards of scholarship customary amongst historians that he does not deserve to be called a historian at all."

In the absence of any form of press release by the Irish Independent newspaper on the allegations that their newspaper is at present still actively supporting the sale of David Irving's fascist publications after being convicted for producing them in the first instance, readers are reminded to be aware of the fact that organizations such as the National Union of Journalists (NUJ) are obliged automatically under law to implement proceedings against journalists when known as having committing criminal offenses. Any NUJ legal proceedings would of course force the subsequent removal of the newspaper article from Irving's site, the fact that the NUJ itself won't give evidence against former Sub editor Albert Smith is a complete disgrace and further prevents the removal of the article in question from Irving's site along with of course the Irish Independent's newspaper remaining in an ongoing silence.

The evidence supplied to Bellingscat proves beyond any doubt what so ever that the Irish Independent Newspaper article is still being used to sell and promote David Irvings books at this present moment in time 2020, which is illegal to do so as European laws prohibit newspapers from physically supporting the sale of racist literature.

After Judge Grays rulings the Irish Independent Newspaper must have the whistle blown on them. Albert Smith endorsed and acclaimed the very scholarship Judge Gray sentenced David Irving for producing. If a journalist is therefore impressed with a scholarship to the point that the adjectivity itself is highlighted then this can perhaps imply that the journalist in turn complicitly agrees with the content of that particular scholarship in question otherwise presumably the journalist would willingly state something clearly different (in issues of fascism a journalist doesn't remain on both sides of the fence). Albert Smith quoted the following "Overall Irvings book is a very good offering. It is not as concerned to provoke controversy as many of his earlier works".

The underlying view of Wikifreaks is that the Irish Independent newspaper should be held accountable under law for the promoting of illegally produced Fascist right wing propaganda in accordance with Judge Grays ruling that David Irving was "a racist, an anti Semite and an active Holocaust denier" providing of course that the newspaper concerned continues to refuse or fails to take a form of action and/or release a press statement regarding allegations put directly to the newspaper of unlawfully aiding and abetting a convicted fascist in the continued sale and distribution of forbidden or outlined articles of racist publication. Arguing on whether or not certain titles of old stocks of books still remain in print or are available under the counter is no defense.

ALBERT SMITH IRISH INDEPENDENT JOURNALIST AND DAVID IRWING

David Irwing has appeared for some time as journalist who is rightly condemned as a neo fascist and holocaust denier. This sick individual has his own private admirers as a pro nazi slanted kraut. This discredited nazi apologist whose works praise Hitler amongst other is a complete disgrace to the human race.

Albert Smith Irish Independent journalist can be found upon some of his personal web sites, a group of us have investigated and researched both these men and can confirm that we are at present requesting the Irish Independent to comment upon information known to organisations such as WIKI LEAKS that Albert Smith amongst other mainstream journalists have been contributing to research and promotion.

Albert Smith is British and apparently hides abroad.

Cringely's Rules for Home Schooling in the Age of COVID-19

My first job out of college was teaching biology, chemistry, physics, and vocational agriculture at Triway High School in rural Wooster, Ohio. I lasted for six weeks. The school environment was such a downer, from the smoke-filled teachers' lounge to my young co-workers who were teaching mainly, it seemed to me, to avoid service in Vietnam. So when a reporting job became available, I jumped on it, leaving Ohio forever. Years later I returned to teaching, this time at Stanford University, where I worked for six years. Now, 37 years after Stanford, I'm teaching my kids at home thanks to COVID-19. You may be teaching your kids, too. This column is my attempt to make your job easier.

It's not that I'm God's gift to teaching, but I got something of a head start by homeschooling both my son Fallon, who turns 14 on Sunday and Channing, who is 18, for the 2017-18 and 2018-19 academic years. My third son Cole, who turned 16 last Sunday, remained in public school during that time as our statistical control.

Homeschooling wasn't my idea, but Fallon hated the very good charter school his brothers had loved and begged to come home. Channing was the exact opposite. Channing loved school, just not school work. When I pulled him out of high school his GPA was 0.167. Think about that number for a moment. How is that even possible for a big strong kid who takes a physical education class every semester to score that low? I still don't get it.

Fallon didn't like the social environment of school while Channing — riding some kind of hormonal high — loved the social but completely ignored the educational parts. With Mama at work, however, homeschooling was an all-male experience, which turned out to be half the solution for Channing, who was much better at concentrating without the distraction of pretty blondes and Latinas.

Homeschooling is not simply transferring the educational experience from one setting to another. They are inherently different activities and it is a huge mistake to think otherwise. If you are a month into teaching because of COVID-19 maybe you've noticed this.

Around here at least, the schools are pretending it's just a change of venue rather than a change of philosophy. The schools are wrong about this.

It's important to think here in terms of aligned interests. This COVID-19 academic impact has been forced on all of us — students, parents, and teachers alike — but we all come to it from different positions and with different values. In California the school district is very much vested in keeping money coming from the state, so they are leaning hard on distance education. Teachers are, too, because they want to keep their jobs. But here's the important thing to remember: teachers — even teachers with decades of classroom experience — often have ZERO homeschooling experience. So what they tell you

Our education system (except top universities) is just terrible. By all measurements we are at the bottom of all so called industrial nations and with home schooling it will be even worse. How will half educated parents (and yes I do not put you in this group Bob but most parents are) educate their children when educated teachers can't do it ?

This is a myth. The problem in the US is that our worst schools are VERY BAD. If you remove the very worst bottom 5% or so of schools we shoot to near the top in the world. We only look at statewide and national numbers usually though and we get a skewed picture.
The real problem is poverty. The worst schools are in the poorest areas. These kids are simply not having their basic needs met so they cannot succeed at school.

Interesting that somebody who is well known as an author and journalist hires a tutor for help with English. Would like to hear more about that decision.

An Enigma that somehow evolved somewhere a bit like COVID – 19

The Quintesssential Quirky story of an Arab Doctor living in Ireland that at present seemingly owns a hotel next door to Mr Putins Embassy in London (and yes it is rather personal! – A paradoxical enigma of sleuth on the roof)

Anonymous data input provide British Government evidence which has been available for a number of years The first and most important point of evidence is somewhat incumbent to point out however Ireland in a sense in the Republic is more somewhat American based than British, many americans priding themselves in their irish Ancestry® and families including of course former Presidents.Its not suprising then to know that the main Irish Police stations in Dublin are connected directly to FBI and CIA channels and that the central irish police stations communication systems are closely monitored by the CIA these where conditions laid down by Clinton and the Clinton foundation in its dealings in the past .taoiseach. protection and other politicians, included within there protection systems will also be included the head of pyschiatry as the head of pyschiatry offices are based a few hundred meters from the central police station .an alleged arabic doctor and former head of Dublin Pyschiatry named as Dr moayyad al Kamali has cropped up on a number of Wikileaks based sites or derivatives of Wiki base data files over the last 3 years .Dr Moayyad al kamali has been crossed referenced for political reasons as an alleged Arab held apparently on CIA files and directories upon protection lists Dr moayadd Al kamali from public British Government records was alleged removed from the General medical Council registered doctors register in the Uk public free information indicates that Dr Moayyad Al kamali owns and this is the incredible part of the data packages a hotel worth countless of millions of english pounds less than 3 minutes walk from the Russian Embassy in London known as Wedgewood Hotel 49-51 Leinster Square, Paddington, London W2 4PU PERIOD which is exactly a mere 3 minutes more or less walking distance from Mr Putins Embassy (real Personal!!!)

GSOC AND FURTHER GOVERNMENT SECRECY

On Sunday 6/7/2014 Sunday times published an article by Conor Brady a former GSOC Commisioner,a very powerfull and informative piece of journalism, outlining what the new Garda Siochana (amendment) act 2014 will bring into power for the "New GSOC".

Unfortunately however when certain Breaches in security itself have been identified and require legal solutions hypothetical anaylsis and parameters surrounding evidence itself become meaningless,once a state of security becomes obtainable.Infact the Irish Independent announced on the front cover of its newspaper on June 12th this year "HUNT FOR MOLE WHO BREACHED SECURITY AT GARDA WATCHDOG" make no hesitation GSOC called in the lawyers with a view to a kill.

Whilst certain members of "think tanks" have designs and ideas that are catapulting forward at incomprehensible speeds regarding GSOC new look and future.This articlele intends to freeze the big picture and put into context what security means within real issues.

In policing and CIA work security breaches allow emmediate sequestration regardless of court proceedings.Simon o Brien chairman of GSOC has been exposed by wiki forces as a former British Police Officer,arguable all the ingriedents for further speculation infact many here in Ireland are calling for his resignation and for many obvious reasons.

Final point here when security breaches are legally established in Banks ,Government buildings, then the Security Industry always presumes assumption that if its happened already then its happened before.Gsoc and the Irish Government are of no consequence within the papameters of GSOCs breaches within security issues itself, because without arrest or convictions over alleged GSOC Breaches within law itself in our domain we now have the affirmative right to determine that other formats of data and intelligence have been removed without the publics knowledge or consent breaching human rights.Force majeure.

'Fat' Freddie Thompson riding shotgun for this kid

'Fat' Freddie Thompson, Dublin gangster was spotted at a District Court sitting in the city this week where he accompanied a young defendant, who is himself facing serious charges. The accused, in his late teens and from south Dublin, is believed to have 'hired' Thompson as security during his court appearances, after an incident a number of weeks ago in which he was attacked with a knife -- in court. "Freddie was riding shotgun for this kid," said a source. "It looks like Fred has gone into the bodyguard business," the source added. The young man, who is free on bail despite the serious nature of the charges he is facing, had a narrow escape as he waited for his case to be called. Another man pulled a knife and attempted to stab him, but was apprehended by gardai and removed from the court. Gardai believe that members of the young man's family contacted Thompson to ask him to appear in court this week as 'security', to intimidate other criminals and offset any attacks. Thompson (28) duly appeared at the court and stood beside the youngster, while the teen waited for his case to be called yesterday. The accused cannot be named for legal reasons. Crime boss Thompson, who is known to head a Crumlin-based gang, then left the court after the hearing.

"Freddie just stood beside the young lad and let it be know that he was with him. The kid is in trouble with other people from his local area and the knife attack in court was obviously a pretty serious matter."The guards in court were joking that Freddie must be hit by the recession if he had to hire himself out as a bodyguard."The incident was Thompson's second court appearance this week, following his own arraignment last Monday on public order charges. He is accused of threatening behaviour and failing to comply with the instructions of a garda.The charge was brought over an alleged incident which occurred on Aungier Street the previous evening. The court heard that Thompson replied, when charged, "I just want to apologise to the guard".Despite his involvement in underworld activity, Thompson's previous convictions are for relatively minor offences.

CNN report Islamic State make millions each week from oil

Americas state of the art $400 billion dollar F-35 stealth equiped with Optional Targeting Systems (EOTS) with high definition video imagery in both infrared and optical ssytem still cant "take out" a Hijacked oil well in iraq, and yet a conventional Thunderbolt ground attack plane can accidentally "take out" a farmers water well.Yeah you guessed right why your watchin US there taking you to the cleaners for every penny you havent even got.

As ISIS steams further into Iraq,analysts say a significant portion of its financial resources are now directly attributed from sales on the "Black Market" pardon the hun? Oil fields have become bigmoney and big targets in their fight for coca-cola and kentucky fried duck.According to Dubai-based author of "The Myth of the oil Crisis" published by some muppet offering!Oil wells have become so important to ISIS and in this authors opinion so have cia and mi5 files that both Governments cant be bothering to erase.Next time you fill up yer tank remember Andrew Dedman formeley Hertford police and MI5 a nice guy who shipped half the PNC over to places like Venezuela in the ninghties for barrels of oil,yester days pig maybe tomorrows bacon however Islamic state couldnt give twoole monkeys about Class War.

lied to convict a left wing socialist writer/net sign poster. The socialist was apparently held on British Intelligence files even before he came to Ireland to live, and had previous dealings with Dedman in the past in the UK. It is Dedman who is thought to have generated the files about the socialist that were leaked illegally to Irish sources but not officially given to the Gardaí.

During the court case in 2015 the Gardaí presented mere hearsay as evidence in the form of a speech read out in court by Albert Smith, where Smith himself attended a court hearing and talked about matters such as the CIA and threats made against him with weapons. Smith's speech convicted the socialist on weapons charges and the socialist was sent to prison. Albert Smith is a known and published far right wing fascist (his previous newspaper articles and promotional work as a sub-editor of the Irish Independent newspaper on convicted fascist and author David Irving proves this). Articles of interest have in the past appeared on the net providing valuable evidence that explains the socialist stated in emails to an unnamed source at the time that Smith purposely lied in court by seemingly using a prepared and premeditated false speech, and that the judge accepted in court hearsay evidence contained within Smith's own concocted political lies. According to a blogspot website on the dark web internet discussion came to the conclusion, that by accepting the mere word of Journalist Albert Smith a known far right wing liar in court without any actual witness or any evidence the judge falsely imprisoned the socialist not for an alleged weapons offence that the socialist stated he never committed anyway, but as the blog writers suggested for being found guilty by the far right of being a socialist that exposed a ring of spys operating in Ireland under orders of the British Government. This known espionage activity was exposed through socialist political write ups that the public otherwise would never have read about and was leaked out in the left wing British political press.

In short the socialist investigated what is now termed as "Gardagate" and in the process exposed a cover up by Albert Smith's newspaper the Irish Independent of Simon O'Brien being a former British police officer as chairman of GSOC and his alleged involvement of being part of an alleged MI6 sting operation to "grab" Irish state intelligence held by GSOC. Like Dedman the socialist has always maintained that it was possible the British Government transferred O'Brien to Ireland.

bases over a period of many years and that some of the data based files(The Dedman Files) were allegedly transferred secretly by Dedman himself to amongst other the Store street Garda station (against human rights treaties) as these files were held secretly in Ireland by "black" cops.

One article indicates the area where Smith lives (Shop river County Wicklow) was data based by Dedman back in 2002 and that Dedmans own pirated and stolen supplied data (block data,many thousands of types of files passed between bent cops without authorisation) was used by the "patsys" in the Dublin/Wicklow area were Smith lives to help pay the bills.The Gardaí themselves were quite happy to allow the local "patsys" to spy on person suspected of travelling in and around the Dublin Mountains on their behalf and spy is the right usage of word hear,the "patsys" were rewarded for their loyalty in pieces of land,discounts,wavers etc obtaining state housing and buildings at cheap rates of purchase,false ids,credit crunching etc etc.

Left wingers,taxexiles,criminals,suspected IRA members etc who have over the years either fled the UK to live in Ireland for political reasons or set themselves up in business in Ireland where all targeted and followed on behalf of the British and Amercian Intelligence service by "patsys" and bent cops and criminals.

Both the socialist and Journalist Albert Smith where born in the U.k and so the chances of both these individuals who where technically British,being involved in an alleged false weapons incident together in a remote part of the Republic of Ireland on the top of a mountain isn't a very likely prospect,especially as the alleged incident happened on farmers private property were the socialist had permission to travel from the local farmers (not roads or footpaths). The unnamed socialist always maintained he was never involved in any weapons incident or that he was even present in the area when such an alleged incident occurred.Apparently in other articles found online the socialist claimed he swore in affidavits in court stating he was not present at the alleged incident,It is therefore logical to presume that circumstancially from an espionage angle their is enough online evidence and information to explain an invented incident/counter espionage tactic was used to illegally convict and punish the socialist writer for producing evidence that exposed amongst other Simon O'Brien chairman of GSOC as a potential MI6 operative and a former British police officer in the left wing press,this apparent inventory of Albert Smith should by now be setting off political firealarms amongst the International left wing.

The publications of the socialist are still found on the internet and these articles indicate very clearly that even before Smiths allegations were made through complaint process an article written by the Socialist exposed Simon OBrien the chairman of GSOC in the British left wing press as a former British police officer, whilst on the other hand Smiths newspaper at the same time the socialist articles were published on Simon OBrien being a former police officer, ran a cover up and didn't publish or indicate Simon O'Brien was a former British police officer.

The Irish Independent news paper that Albert Smith worked for didn't print this evidence until much later on after Simon O'Brien resigned from his job after different allegations were put to Simon O'Brien,

So ask your selves as the readers of this article do you really believe that this socialist writer who exposed a cover up in Smiths own newspaper the Irish Independent just happens all of a sudden to appear before Smith on top of a mountain after exposing his paper running cover ups and then for no apparent reason threatens Smith with a weapon, when the socialist doesn't even know this chap? it sounds oh so bizarre and mathematically inconceivable. The court affidavits even state the socialist wasn't even in the area when the incident took place and he doesn't know Smith as a person or even has held a conversation with the man in his entire life.

Simon OBrien later left his job as chairman of GSOC after internal allegations that he was an MI6 operative used to export GSOC files back to MI5 on mass after espionage activity was suspected at GSOC headquarters. It was the socialists published articles that exposed MI5 knowledge of the IPCC and Simon OBrien obtaining a military based security contract for Verimus security to work in screening Irish Government buildings, in a left wing political party news column that really set the rat amongst the greys. One of the many articles produced by the socialist explained that the security company sent to Ireland by the IPCC (Verimus) was an MI5 connected company who uses staff from the same British Army regiment that killed Jean De-Menezes, whose death ironically was investigated by the IPCC themselves. The IPCC, MI5 and Simon OBrien collectively obtained the military contract together that got Verimus the work to look for bugs in Simon OBrien's Irish offices where he was chairman of GSOC all a bit to cosy? It was leaked out in the Irish Independent that MI6 were involved in looking for bugs in OBrien's office however the Independent only talked in half truths and when it came to the delivery it failed, it failed to name at the same time that Verimus scanning equipment being used in Simon OBrien's office was being used to protect a former British police officer, If it wasn't for the press leaks in other papers and other sources the public would never have known that verimus where operating in Ireland on behalf of MI6 and their operatives, the leak outs gave the security services in UK and America the power to confiscate internally all the GSOC records that MI5 now have because essentially there own operatives where under threat, all though Simon o Brien always stated he never fealt threatned, but he would wouldn't he, so essentially without the press leak outs no confiscation of records by the Americans and British would have been obtainable. The files stolen or sequestrated due to security breaches about Gerry Adams Sinn Fein leader having secret meetings with drug convicted dealer Kieran Boylan would never have been officially found by MI6 and MI5, allegations that Gerry Adams secret meetings have been going on for years is no news however this article is evidence that its a club where the spoils get divided and if you expose espionage publically you can pay a heavy price when publically you force secret agendas into the press.

the socialist was followed from Ireland to Europe where he was involved in publishing Smith was part of an ongoing operation into Drugs/terrorism see article here;
<https://gerryhutchblog.wordpress.com/>
 Albert Smith didn't care about who he spied upon and the Gardai themselves where always placing and mistaking people in different areas. Smith was stationed according to one internet web site and chosen by MI6 and the British Military to "plant" stories in the independent news paper he wrote an article about convicted fascist David Irving, Irving got 3 years for the books he published that were anti semitic also Smith appear on irwings home site promoting irwings banned books incidently no normal journalist would have consented to promote a fascist like Irving and as Kieran Conways book names fascists it has to be published here that Conways past comments on fascists have been published :
<https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/24305635-southside-provisional>
 Kieran Conway went up against Garda Patton and sergeant Heraughty of Enniskerry Garda station when he represented the socialist in Bray court. Another Garda involved in these areas was Garda Cullen formely Stepside now Dundrum Garda Station, he should have blown the whistle on Heraughty and Patton a pair of right wing state protected spies that work for the American and British Intelligence service. The Garda station at Enniskerry has American police force uniform patches in the window the entire Enniskerry village is a MI6/CIA state protected right wing fascist safe haven, you cant publish sites on an Enniskerry Google entry, the powers that be remove any site placed on Google that lands on Enniskerry, try it for yourselves, and yes they follow your signalex back to where you live so do it somewhere else! If you type Enniskerry Nazi at Google prompt you find a worrying amount of right wing neo fascist sites all connected to this tiny little village in the countryside of Ireland.

Albert Smith was assigned to search the wooded area of one of his many safe houses (knocknashee cottage) Shop River, Enniskerry Wicklow. Where Fat Freddie gang allegedly hid heroin in the wooded areas there. Garda John Heraughty and Garda Patton had the area "staked" out for hidden drugs brought at night time from Glencullen VIA Dublin. The knackers at pairc na sillogue jumped into the woods late at night and distributed the drugs in Bray town. Web sites about Albert Smith can be found at Yahoo search and Google... Albert Smith M16... Picture above Fat "FreDDie" Thompson.

Philip O Toole was dealt with a wound from a shotgun in 2011 in the car park of pairc na sillogue, he was later found a Dedman in Wicklow woods in 2013, nobody has ever been charged with his murder. O Toole's death was attributed to large amounts of Heroin allegedly buried in the woods behind Albert Smiths cottage. Albert Smith was involved in anti terrorist operations involving alleged IRA members who used "old Bayford style caravns" parked in local lanes in the area owned by the family of the Careys. Internet sites claim that a local IRA member "Thacker" was involved in controlling the wooded area, a feud between the British agent Smith and Thacker was evident though not violent, but there was a deep dislike of Smith as a known British agent born in England. The IRA units from Bray and other areas where given orders not to harm Albert Smith, for whatever reasons, which isn't unusual as Ireland itself has a protected tout on every corner. Smith according to internet sources worked for British intelligence placing stories into the Irish independent newspaper, he was exposed as a spy that regularly gave evidence to the Gardaí (God bless ya yer little bollox) and worked as a sub editor for the newspaper. The claims are that the British Intelligence service were involved in importing Heroin from U.K and then used the "little" fellas to store it and distribute the powder. This rings true as Kieran Boylan was involved in bringing in heroin from wales -nothing gets over Holyhead without the secret service involved!!!

BELOW BRITISH INTELLIGENCE NUCLEAR BUNKER (HERFORD,UK) PART OF ANDREW DEDMANS OPERATIONAL AREA IN NORTH LONDON.

Andrew Dedman left The British Army and joined the British Police, it is believed he was transferred because mathematically the badge number he was allocated to use as a police officer, (every police officer has their own badge or identity number on the "force") was 1001! the emphasis here is the actual mathematical chances of owning this badge number in the British Police are practically ZERO its a computation that runs into many hundreds of thousands, as there are many hundreds of thousands of police officers so we believe it was a badge number on "Stand by". As we all know 1001 is a British expression or phrase only in this particular persons instance its a thousand and one misuses as opposed to uses. Andrew Dedman by name and nature was not a regular police officer. The name itself is an anagram of ...and your a deadman... A typically sinister calling card left on police files, court paperwork etc researches who quite often browse through British Intelligence files and Police Intelligence files would "lock" onto the "coding" of coming across a name of DEATH 1001. Because of his initial location a town known as Hertford, Hertfordshire where he worked as a mere detective constable it is thought that he was part of a undercover military unit within the police or even a secret police officer, that is a police officer who has different roles, his expertise and British Army knowledge would have made him prime time for the job, still being able to work with the British Army itself. This is because 20-30 years ago Hertford was the quintessential MI5 village situated far enough outside of London's capital served with two railway stations (not many towns in UK have two railway stations!) the British railway station from Hertford actually takes trains right inside of the tube station underground!!! Moorgate station to be precise so this made security arrangements for MI5 workers less hassle to get around. Hertford itself is a rabbit warren a complete Maze, it had one of only three types of emergency nuclear underground base stations this can be found on google by typing <http://www.urbexdevil.co.uk/srhq-4-2->

regional-government-bunker/ the Town has hundreds of inter connected footpaths,there everywhere,canals,rivers,viaducts,lakes,wooded areas nearby now abandoned air strip...the list goes on and on just look at google maps and everything within 5 miles radius of Hertford itself on the map and twenty years ago the place was a lot more quite and the police where right good chaps.Andrew Dedman for his sins was a nasty right winger who tampered and experimented with systems and law probably the type that was very much aware of people like Oswald Moseley infact Dedman looks remarkably similar to this man.He was a brutally cold police officer across between a ferret and British Army stiff upper lip type although the kind of skinny/medium type build chap that you would find camping somewhere in the middle of the Brecon Beacons eating worms and rumours surfacing on the net indicate he left the police and was found by mossad agents living in Turkey they apparently got real personal by naming him a man with American armed force tattoos on his left arm on an alleged IDF site in Israel.Dedman probably is part of a sinister network of espionage/crime/drugs as Turkey is not the sort of place a person would willingly live in being British Born no offence to the Turkish people here but it isn't many folks ideal port of call,hes either hiding there or working or both and probably for both sides at the same time if you know what I mean....Dedman tampered with the British Police force PNC computer system leaving a trail of disinformation behind him the extent of which will probably remain another mi5 well kept secret,these types of police officers have been involved in creating DATA BANKS which are not only used by police but Diplomats and British Intelligence which is part of creating the capitalist infrastructure of Britain itself all information is a tradeable commodity and at some point ends up in the Kremlin or Washington.Some folk say that the only thing that's secret about mi5 is where they live and how much money they earn each year everything else goes through the back door in one form or another...sorry chaps but that's the word...Dedman was involved in programming prisoners and the British mafia and Dedman itself is more a ring of pirates or network of people including criminals that help maintain protection within Britain.

Denis O Brien richest man in Ireland buying into mi6 intelligence.

Well where back to where we started folks,who exactly controls what? and who cares? There is a very nast man denis Obrien hes been caught red handed buying up lots of companies over the last few years that owe money to Banks however what the press in europe has forgot to tell us is that he works for the CIA.At first this may seem a bit brash however furthjer erm research into denis shows us that hes a close friend of former US president Bill Clinton so close infact that he is a member of the Bill Clinton Foundation!

Bill Clinton has been buying intelligence with pentagon money.....O Brien does deals with banks intelligence held by security companies in exchange for debt write offs theres plenty of evidence upon the internert of O briens activities and this means all the mi6 files irish companies can hack into infact much buisness in ireland and other countries sucks intelligence out of Britains secretly held data files...

06/10/03 - Residents no strangers to cold-blooded killings.
EMMA PALMER
Mercury

Mercury chief reporter EMMA PALMER looks at the latest in a lethal list of violent crimes to have hit our 'sleepy market town'

A father of four gunned down in broad daylight, a 29-year old dog walker savagely attacked in the woods by a maniac and a devoted wife shot in the back on her own driveway - welcome to the 'sleepy town' of Hoddesdon.

That's not forgetting the young rugby player from the town who was slaughtered to death with a samurai sword just a few miles away.

Drive-by assassins firing automatic weapons in the middle of a busy street - you could be forgiven for thinking you are in LA's south central or the Bronx in New York instead of quiet, uneventful Hoddesdon.

But the murder of gangster Dave King on Friday is the latest in a lethal list of violent crime involving guns and other weapons to hit the area - and with gun crime soaring in rural towns, the question on everyone's lips here in Hoddesdon is will it be the last?

The TV news bulletins that bombarded homes across the country at the weekend, reported the execution of Mr King as occurring in a 'sleepy Hertfordshire market town'.

But the Mercury isn't so sure this label is warranted.

Leading the investigation into the murder of the builder from Stevenage, Chief Supt Andy Wright said: "Our thoughts are with Mr King's family following this tragic accident.

"I would also wish to give a measure of reassurance to the local community that, despite the highly distressing nature of this tragedy, it is important to understand that this was an isolated incident and not indicative of a general rise in offences in the Hoddesdon area or Hertfordshire as a whole.

"Nevertheless, it would be foolish of me not to acknowledge that the events of Friday morning were shocking and clearly of concern to local people."

But despite Chief Supt Wright's reassurances, the figures are there in black and white. Violent crime, particularly gun crime, is soaring all over the UK, but most alarmingly it is spreading out of the city suburbs and into peaceful countryside towns.

This week the Association of Chief Police Officers admitted that gun crime is growing like a cancer - and particularly spreading to smaller, rural communities such as Hoddesdon.

But Hoddesdon residents are no strangers to cold-blooded killings.

Only three years ago the town was rocked by the brutal murder of the wife of a wealthy Hoddesdon businessman when she was gunned down along with her family on her own driveway

Josephine Martorana was shot in the back as she stood outside the executive Yewlands home she shared with her husband Joe, on August 28, 2000.

Mrs Martorana was standing with her husband when she was shot by cold-blooded killers Jason James and Daniel Whyte, who then robbed the couple of their Rolex watches worth £13,000 apiece.

The wife and mother was shot in the back and died several weeks later in hospital. Mrs Martorana's son and his girlfriend were also shot at point-blank range during the robbery and spent months recovering in hospital.

The killers were caged for a total of 45 years between them for the horrific murder, which ripped a family apart and left the town stunned.

The Dedman Files-Craig Murray the CIA and Wikileaks

Wikileaks email affair

Craig Murray -The weak link.

Craig Murray is described by Julian Assange of Wikileaks as a close associate ,murray grew up in norfolk a political liberal who disliked certain aspects of his schooling.It was Murray that was chosen by Wikileaks to obtain Hillary Clintons emails that Wikileaks fed to the press.The CIA later claimed thatHillary Clintons leaked emails cost her the election.,the CIA also stated they believed Russian hackers where to blaim,later on Julian Assange admitted that craig Murray flew to America to obtain the stolen emails.In June 2016 wikileaks stated to the New York times that they hoped stolen emails would harm Clintons chances of winning the election.Craig Murray was a former British Ambassador who worked from 2002-2004 in Uzbekistan whilst in office he exposed torture and killings allegedly carried out by the secret service and claims were made that torture was used to obtain intelligence that would be used to write CIA reports.murray maintained that his revelations cost him his position as Ambassador because he was placed on "trumped" up charges after he gave evidence to the Home Office,the charges didnt land him in any trouble however he admitted to allegations that he misused his postion of power to obtain sex,which later cost him his marriage -in his own words he asked Nadira Alieva a belly dancer who worked in a Brothel "to give up the club and be my mistress"-which she did.Today she no longer has any contact with Murray.

America at the time was using an airbase in Uzbekistan to bomb Afghanistan so the CIA where heavily involved in Espionage in this country and where running operations.In 2005 the British Law Courts ruled that Secret Service evidence that may have been obtained from torture was inadmissible in UK courts.In short Murray exposed CIA Operations in Uzbekistan and washington was not happy,thats why Murray himself maintains the charges were a backlash to his work and that the charges put to him internally that never got anywhere were part of a plan of action.Craig Murray later wrote a bok titled "Murder in Samarkand".Its more than fair to say that he uncovered a brutal CIA regime however most normal persons in his shoes would have done the same thing,at that particular moment in time it was expected from washington and certain Home office types that everyone in the know was supposed to keep tight lipped on grounds of National Security,if Murray hadnt abused his power in obtaing sex then the charges may never have been brought against him there were allegations that the belly dancer who became his mistress was questioned about alleged involvement with Al Qaeda.the sexuall relationship he had cost him his marriage.

The Clinton election emails

The CIA were quick to blame the Russians for the leaking of stolen emails belonging to Hillary clinton,whilst Wikileaks have stated clearly that they were "leaks" not hacks and were obtained from a source"who had legal access to the emails" from what can be understood Craig Murray flew to America-Uni-northwest D.C and met person(s) in a wood,these person(s) who passed oon the emails to Murray were not the person(s) that directly obtained the information they were couriers/mules.The emails were handed over because quote "Disgust at the Clinton foundation",so clearly it was Craig Murray that obtained the emails for wikileaks NOT the Russians.It was later stated that the source(the persons who stole the emails) had legal access to them not as the CIA had indicated to the press that Russians had "hacked" the emails.US Intelligence sources informed congress they believed emails where given to Wikileaks bt Russian hackers,CIA spokesman also stated at the time that Russias objective was to favour one candidate over another,further CIA conclusions stated that Russia conducted operations during the 2016 US election to prevent hillary Clinton form winning the election.

In Summary

London CT Publishing -analysis

Wikileaks themselves as an organisation gave the press Hillary Clintons emails-nobody else. Julian Assange is a very shrewd man and his sources are not known, American politics is one of the most treacherous substances known to man and the Clinton Foundation is a political organisation with close ties to the CIA working on inside Government information. Trump at present is being investigated by the FBI for amongst other his alleged dealing with the "mob". Hillary was seen by some as a mouth piece for a potential new hidden inside President Bill Clinton. You have to examine the hidden possibility that Craig Murray was working with MI6 when he obtained the emails in America as nobody in the right minds would steal from the Clintons knowing it would change the election result. Only MI6 could have protected murray from prosecution if he had been caught carrying the emails, if Bill and Hillary Clinton could have arrested Murray for the offence of obtaining stolen emails they would have used the FBI without hesitation. The CIA dislike Murray and insiders couldnt give Murray any Guarantees the only Insurance would have been given to Murray against possible arrest would be the likes of British Intelligence. Former British Intelligence Officers david Shayler and Annie Machon have published information on British intelligence operations that provide evidence of how the most unlikely of persons can work for british intelligence. Whether they will expand on Craig Murray is another question. the CIA cany directly implicate double agents within MI6 working for Putin perhaps they are just being diplomatic about it. the Clinton Foundation would have been legitimised and white washed if Clinton had been elected and vast amounts of funding would have been directed its highly likely "bent" CIA officers got bribes for leaking internal info out to the russians on the Clinton Foundations activities, Craig Murray must be treated with suspicion as there are plenty of accounts of corruption he could expose in Britain, the British government itself and bent cops have been leaking out files on British citizens for years against human rights (The Dedman Files -Google). London CT stated ays before the realese of Vault7 that Julian Assange is probably working for "bent" CIA officers, is he signing CIA disclaimers with Pamela Anderson or just playing fool of all Toolies? -The war of patches continues! Linux versus Microsoft, Android versus I Phone, Mob Foundations versus State Foundations its the same old story. Russian gas could have been part of an inside deal once its pumped into Britain its then pumped over to Ireland Secretary of State Rex Tillerson is alleged to have connections to Russian gas fields.

ANDREW DEDMAN MI5

Paste Andrew Dedman MI5 at Yahoo or Google search engines for more info on this fascist creep, according to dark web sources he basically tampered with British Government computer systems and then exported the data to Ireland where far right wing "patsys" made good with the stolen and "faked" info to pay for their cars and houses.

Reliable net sources explain that Andrew Dedman was a former British Army officer who was assigned to work in the police for a time in specialist work but later on in his career left the police in mysterious circumstances, that till this day have never been truly explained. We know from wiki-obtained police data whilst in the British army Dedman worked in south America, and was allegedly involved in espionage work involving operations against South American communists, he was assigned the warrant number 1001 whilst in the police and the last known location for Dedman as a police officer was in an intelligence gathering unit in the City of London, International net sources found Dedman working in Turkey shortly after leaving the police by the Israel Intelligence service. Turkey as everybody knows is the gateway for heroin into Britain and Ireland. Below url is an introduction to Andrew Dedman, remove the wording from the site as jpgs add to your desktop and use magnifier application to read properly.

Dublin solicitor and recognised political Author, Kieran Conway (featured above photo) was involved in a District court case in Bray town County, Wicklow, Ireland in we believe 2015, it was a political court case where right wing Journalist Albert Smith lied to convict a left wing socialist writer/net sign poster. The socialist was apparently held on British Intelligence files even before he came to Ireland to live, and had previous dealings with Dedman in the past in the UK, it is Dedman who is thought to have generated the files about the socialist that were leaked illegally to Irish sources but not officially given to the Gardai.

During the court case in 2015 the Gardaí presented mere here say as evidence in the form of a speech read out in court by Albert Smith, were Smith himself attended a court hearing and talked about matters such as the CIA and threats made against him with weapons. Smith's speech convicted the socialist on weapons charges and the socialist was sent to prison. Albert Smith is a known and published far right wing fascist (his previous newspaper articles and promotional work as a sub-editor of the Irish independent newspaper on convicted fascist and author David Irving proves this).

Articles of interest have in the past appeared on the net providing valuable evidence that explains the socialist stated in emails to an unnamed source at the time that Smith purposely lied in court by seemingly using a prepared and premeditated false speech, and that the judge accepted in court hear say evidence contained within Smith's own concocted political lies. According to a blog spot web site on the dark web internet discussion came to the conclusion, that by accepting the mere word of Journalist Albert Smith a known far right wing liar in court without any actual witness or any evidence the judge falsely imprisoned the socialist not for an alleged weapons offence that the socialist stated he never committed anyway, but as the blog writers suggested for being found guilty by the far right of being a socialist that exposed a ring of spys operating in Ireland under orders of the British Government. This known espionage activity was exposed through socialist political write ups that the public otherwise would never have read about and was leaked out in the left wing British political press.

In short the socialist investigated what is now termed as "Gardagate" and in the process exposed a cover up by Albert Smith's newspaper the Irish Independent of Simon O'Brien being a former British police officer as chairman of GSOC and his alleged involvement of being part of an alleged MI6 sting operation to "grab" Irish state intelligence held by GSOC. Like Dedman the socialist has always maintained that it was possible the British Government transferred O'Brien to Ireland.

The court case is databased and more information can be found about Albert Smith as an alleged MI6 dogsbody on the net type Albert Smith MI6 below site is evidence that the journalist worked as a sub editor on the Irish Independent see site below:

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2006/feb/20/austria.thefarright>

<http://www.irishtimes.com/business/media-and-marketing/people-put-their-lives-on-the-line-for-the-indo-and-this-is-what-they-get-1.2891166>

Various internet allegations can be found that indicate that Albert Smith worked on Andrew Dedman's generated data bases over a period of many years and that some of the data based files (The Dedman Files) were allegedly transferred secretly by Dedman himself to amongst other the Store street Garda station (against human rights treaties)

as these files were held secretly in Ireland by "black" cops.

One article indicates the area where Smith lives (Shop river County Wicklow) was data based by Dedman back in 2002 and that Dedmans own pirated and stolen supplied data (block data,many thousands of types of files passed between bent cops without authorisation) was used by the "patsys" in the Dublin/Wicklow area where Smith lives to help pay the bills.The Gardaí themselves were quite happy to allow the local "patsys" to spy on person suspected of travelling in and around the Dublin Mountains on their behalf and spy is the right usage of word hear,the "patsys" were rewarded for their loyalty in pieces of land,discounts,wavers etc obtaining state housing and buildings at cheap rates of purchase,false ids,credit crunching etc etc.

Left wingers,taxexiles,criminals,suspected IRA members etc who have over the years either fled the UK to live in Ireland for political reasons or set themselves up in business in Ireland where all targeted and followed on behalf of the British and American Intelligence service by "patsys" and bent cops and criminals.

Both the socialist and Journalist Albert Smith where born in the U.k and so the chances of both these individuals who where technically British,being involved in an alleged false weapons incident together in a remote part of the Republic of Ireland on the top of a mountain isn't a very likely prospect,especially as the alleged incident happened on farmers private property where the socialist had permission to travel from the local farmers (not roads or footpaths).

The unnamed socialist always maintained he was never involved in any weapons incident or that he was even present in the area when such an alleged incident occurred. Apparently in other articles found online the socialist claimed he swore in affidavits in court stating he was not present at the alleged incident,It is therefore logical to presume that circumstancially from an espionage angle there is enough online evidence and information to explain an invented incident/counter espionage tactic was used to illegally convict and punish the socialist writer for producing evidence that exposed amongst other Simon O'Brien chairman of GSOC as a potential MI6 operative and a former British police officer in the left wing press,this apparent inventory of Albert Smith should by now be setting off political firealarms amongst the international left wing.

The publications of the socialist are still found on the internet and these articles indicate very clearly that even before Smiths allegations were made through complaint process an article written by the Socialist exposed Simon O'Brien the chairman of GSOC in the British left wing press as a former British police officer, whilst on the other hand Smiths newspaper at the same time the socialist articles were published on Simon O'Brien being a former police officer, ran a cover up and didn't publish or indicate Simon O'Brien was a former British police officer .

The Irish Independent news paper that Albert Smith worked for didnt print this evidence until much later on after Simon O'Brien resigned from his job after different allegations were put to Simon O'Brien,

So ask your selves as the readers of this article do you really believe that this socialist writer who exposed a cover up in Smith's own newspaper the Irish Independent just happens all of a sudden to appear before Smith on top of a mountain after exposing his paper running cover ups and then for no apparent reason threatens Smith with a weapon, when the socialist doesn't even know this chap? It sounds oh so bizarre and mathematically inconceivable. The court affidavits even state the socialist wasn't even in the area when the incident took place and he doesn't know Smith as a person or even has held a conversation with the man in his entire life.

<http://www.irishtimes.com/news/crime-and-law/simon-o-brien-to-quit-as-chair-of-gsoc-to-take-up-role-in-uk-1.2057839>

Simon O'Brien later left his job as chairman of GSOC after internal allegations that he was an MI6 operative used to export GSOC files back to MI5 on mass after espionage activity was suspected at GSOC headquarters. It was the socialists published articles that exposed MI5 knowledge of the IPCC and Simon O'Brien obtaining a military based security contract for Verimus security to work in screening Irish Government buildings, in a left wing political party news column that really set the rat amongst the greys.

One of the many articles produced by the socialist explained that the security company sent to Ireland by the IPCC (Verimus) was an MI5 connected company who uses staff from the same British Army regiment that killed Jean De-Menezes, whose death ironically was investigated by the IPCC themselves. The IPCC, MI5 and Simon O'Brien collectively obtained the military contract together that got Verimus the work to look for bugs in Simon O'Brien's Irish offices where he was chairman of GSOC all a bit to cosy?

It was leaked out in the Irish Independent that MI6 were involved in looking for bugs in O'Brien's office however the Independent only talked in half truths and when it came to the delivery it failed, it failed to name at the same time that Verimus scanning equipment being used in Simon O'Brien's office was being used to protect a former British police officer. If it wasn't for the press leaks in other papers and other sources the public would never have known that Verimus were operating in Ireland on behalf of MI6 and their operatives, the leak outs gave the security services in UK and America the power to confiscate internally all the GSOC records that MI5 now have because essentially there own operatives were under threat, all though Simon O'Brien always stated he never felt threatened, but he would wouldn't he, so essentially without the press leak outs no confiscation of records by the Americans and British would have been obtainable. The files stolen or sequestered due to security breaches about Gerry Adams Sinn Féin leader having secret meetings with drug convicted dealer Kieran Boylan would never have been officially found by MI6 and MI5, allegations that Gerry Adams secret meetings have been going on for years is no news however this article is evidence that its a club where the spoils get divided and if you expose espionage publically you can pay a heavy price when publically you force secret agendas into the press.

Albert Smith didn't care about who he spied upon and the Gardai themselves where always placing and mistaking people in different areas.Smith was stationed according to one internet web site and chosen by MI6 and the British Military to "plant" stories in the independent news paper he wrote an article about convicted fascist David Irving,Irwing got 3 years for the books he published that were anti semitic also Smith appear on irwings home site promoting irwings banned books incidently no normal journalist would have consented to promote a fascist like Irving and as Kieran Conways book names fascists it has to be published here that Conways past comments on fascists have been published :

Kieran Conway went up against Garda Patton and sergeant Heraughty of Enniskerry Garda station when he represented the socialist in Bray court.Another Garda involved in these areas was Garda Cullen formely Stepside now Dundrum Garda Station,he should have blown the whistle on Heraughty and Patton a pair of right wing state protected spies that work for the American and British Intelligence service.The Garda station at Enniskerry has American police force uniform patches in the window the entire Enniskerry village is a MI6/CIA state protected right wing fascist safe haven,you cant publish sites on an Enniskerry Google entry, the powers that be remove any site placed on Google that lands on Enniskerry,try it for yourselves, and yes they follow your signalex back to where you live so do it somewhere else! If you type Enniskerry Nazi at Google prompt you find a worrying amount of right wing neo fascist sites all connected to this tiny little village in the countryside of Ireland.

MI6 sting operation against the Irish Statutory Body GSOC – The Resignation of Chairman Simon O'Brien a former British Police Officer.

Paste Andrew Dedman MI5 at Yahoo or Google search engines for more info on this fascist creep, according to dark web sources he basically tampered with British Government computer systems and then exported the data to Ireland where far right wing "patsys" made good with the stolen and "faked" info to pay for their cars and houses.

Reliable net sources explain that Andrew Dedman was a former British Army officer who was assigned to work in the police for a time in specialist work but later on in his career left the police in mysterious circumstances, that till this day have never been truly explained. We know from wiki-obtained police data whilst in the British army Dedman worked in south America, and was allegedly involved in espionage work involving operations against South American communists, he was assigned the warrant number 1001 whilst in the police and the last known location for Dedman as a police officer was in an intelligence gathering unit in the City of London, International net sources found Dedman working in Turkey shortly after leaving the police by the Israel Intelligence service. Turkey as everybody knows is the gateway for heroin into Britain and Ireland. Below url is an introduction to Andrew Dedman, remove the wording from the site as jpgs add to your desktop and use magnifier application to read properly.

According to press and internet sources Author David Irwing recieved a three year sentence for anti-semitic offences. Albert Smith Irish Independent journalist can be found upon David Irwings disturbed Reichsmarschall web site promoting "banned" fascistic publications where such items can be purchased. In his own words Smith callously and insensitively introduces Irwings "Goring Diaries" with the most medically inept and horrific of introductions. "gorings biography is unlikely to raise hackles".

Other disturbing promotional statements that appear upon this site include "this book is a goldmine for aficionados of nazi germany". Infact the entire site is a promotional site of fascism and the very collection of books written upon the subject by Irwing that he recieved a prison sentence for producing, later described by Smith smugly as his "Scholarship".

Smith apparently appears upon this site courtesy of the Irish Independent and more bizarrely under authorization of Smith himself (otherwise presumably some form of court proceedings would be pending against this journalist and this site itself). Smith carries on with his description of Irwings collection with the promotional sell of "provokes controversy" a statement upon a far right wing site like this can only be seen to be promoting a form of endorsement as the type of person(s) who purchase "banned" books from this site are obviously of a certain fascistic persuasion that will obviously "read" into such propagated lineage with a sick interest (anything that provokes controversy in the minds of potential buyers is more likely than not to be a selling point.)

From an anti-fascist perspective Smith is obviously demonstrating his real motives and complete understanding as to the need and necessity for the purpose of, promotion of and the production of these "banned" books from the twisted minds of the higher order. As well as the long term damaging effect of particularly emphasizing the conflicting controversy created by these sick items Smith can not in any way at all claim his innocence to the content of such "banned" books and there thousand and one misuses, as he is very much aware that David Irwing cant be expected to be seen in literacy circles as some sort of lone wolf, Irwing has become an icon to fascists around the world since being sentenced and is part of a larger "sinister" network of self confessed fascists that continually produce propoganda that is seen as an essential part of modern day fascist parties and organizations that globally are monitored and watched by organizations within and connected to the United nations and Mossad (the Israel intelligence Service).

To consent to write such a review and to consent to allow it to help sell such vile propoganda on the understanding that it is blatantaly anti-semitic is unforgivable, and beyond negligence and complete dereliction of duty of any alleged normal national union journalist or alleged normal human being, his own reserved judgement upon the contents of these books describe as Irwings "Scholarship" sells like a self proclaimed authority upon such matters and is an obvious stumbling block attributed to his guilt, because without production of his writen review Irving himself would not be able to promote and profit from the sale of his books from this site, the final nail in the coffin arises from the journalist self explanatory confession "one cannot fail to be impressed by the painstaking thoroughness of Irwings scholarship". This statement makes you ponder on whether Smiths idiosyncratic delusions are shining through in his own foerseen projected propoganda as a closet admirer, further evidence to summise that the coffin lid has finally closed upon Albert Smith in describing Irwings latest book as a "good offering"

Andrew Dedman left The British Army and joined the British Police, it is believed he was transferred because mathematically the badge number he was allocated to use as a police officer, (every police officer has their own badge or identity number on the "force") was 1001 ! the emphasis here is the actual mathematical chances of owning this badge number in the British Police are practically ZERO its a computation that runs into many hundreds of thousands, as there are many hundreds of thousands of police officers so we believe it was a badge number on "Stand by". As we all know 1001 is a British expression or paraphrase only in this particular persons instance its a thousand and one misuses as opposed to uses. Andrew Dedman by name and nature was not a regular police officer. The name itself is an anagram of ... and your a deadman... A typically sinister calling card left on police files, court paperwork etc researches who quite often browse through British Intelligence files and Police Intelligence files would "lock" onto the "coding" of coming across a name of DEATH 1001. Because of his initial location a town known as Hertford, Hertfordshire where he worked as a mere detective constable it is thought that he was part of an undercover military unit within the police or even a secret police officer, that is a police officer who has different roles, his expertise and British Army knowledge would have made him prime time for the job, still being able to work with the British Army itself. This is because 20-30 years ago Hertford was the quintessential MI5 village situated far enough outside of London's capital served with two railway stations (not many towns in UK have two railway stations!) the British railway station from Hertford actually takes trains right inside of the tube station underground!!! Moorgate station to be precise so this made security arrangements for MI5 workers less hassle to get around. Hertford itself is a rabbit warren a complete maze, it had one of only three types of emergency nuclear underground base stations this can be found on google by typing <http://www.urbexdevil.co.uk/srhq-4-2-regional-government-bunker/> the Town has hundreds of inter connected footpaths, there everywhere, canals, rivers, viaducts, lakes, wooded areas nearby now abandoned air strip... the list goes on and on just look at google maps and everything within 5 miles radius of Hertford itself on the map and twenty years ago the place was a lot more quiet and the police were right good chaps. Andrew Dedman for his sins was a nasty right winger who tampered and experimented with systems and law probably the type that was very much aware of people like Oswald Moseley in fact Dedman looks remarkably similar to this man. He was a brutally cold police officer across between a ferret and British Army stiff upper lip type although the kind of skinny/medium type build chap that you would find camping somewhere in the middle of the Brecon Beacons eating worms and rumours surfacing on the net indicate he left the police and was found by Mossad agents living in Turkey they apparently got real personal by naming him a man with American armed force tattoos on his left arm on an alleged IDF site in Israel. Dedman probably is part of a sinister network of espionage/crime/drugs as Turkey is not the sort of place a person would willingly live in being British Born no offence to the Turkish people here but it isn't many folks ideal port of call, he's either hiding there or working or both and probably for both sides at the same time if you know what I mean... Dedman tampered with the British Police force PNC computer system leaving a trail of disinformation behind him the extent of which will probably remain another MI5 well kept secret, these types of police officers have been involved in creating DATA BANKS which are not only used by police but Diplomats and British Intelligence which is part of creating the capitalist infrastructure of Britain itself all information is a tradeable commodity and at some point ends up in the Kremlin or Washington. Some folk say that the only thing that's secret about MI5 is where they live and how much money they earn each year everything else goes through the back door in one form or another... sorry chaps but that's the word... Dedman was involved in programming prisoners and the British mafia and Dedman itself is more a ring of pirates or network of people including criminals that help maintain protection within Britain.

The IPCC is a British organisation, got a problem with the cops you make a complaint to them, In Fireland it's GSOC. The Irish God bless their souls live under an "order" want the evidence? it's in the can....they don't speak their own language.

The New World order had big chief Bush and when he died not so long ago he died listening to Irish music and of course Jack paid the ultimate price for his sins.

This write up ain't gonna contain dates and names it's for the ordinary mad hats and dudes out there, The UN and the CIA had their orders two, they used Pentagon money in the Irish system backed by some amazingly bad men that own banks and started a mass exodus...no no not black mass. The Boston tea party was overseen by a real cool dude that kills, you know the one OB1 carnobeeuwambam the fly guy who flew his ship all over da're base. Why every one was watching the kids firework display the ship had been captured. The Irish system began filling with Pentagon green, the social welfare system became the poor man's tiger.

So as old Eire began decaying the carve up began,

One of the biggest security risk in world politrix in Fireland was GSOC in the eyes of people like Clinton and MFI over queer it looked like an unmanned nuclear reactor with everyone from former IRA members and PLO heads going in and out with wheel barrows, Tesco bags, Owdhalls the lot and coming out with pure uranium, forget Iran this was the Taj to end all.

Basically it had to be shut down one man shall be named an MI6 agent Simon O'Brien, GSOC was run by O'Brien he was the chairman, now get your thinking caps on how did a British police officer become the ed of Irish police investigations against the Irish police?

Clinton used his bezzu mate Dennis O Brown the richest and most powerfully man in Fireland to promote Simon O'Brien, the proof simple enter LBC!!!! ask LBC if they were interviewing a police officer undercover live on air would they blow his cover? Then ask yourself this when Simon O'Brien went live on air to be asked about security issues...why the Irish radio station owned by Clinton's buddy Dennis O'Brien didn't ask him on air about being an under cover cop when part of the show was about under cover Irish police officers working in GSOC. The Irish interviewers went crazy on the guy screaming at him to give Ireland an answer as to what undercover Irish police officers were doing in his office and yet forgot to ask him the same question...

In order for Clinton and MFI to steal data from GSOC computers they needed a smoke screen. Verimius security is a contractor for M I 5 and Simon O Briens office got them the contract to steal the data....however it was the IPCC who helped OBriens office get Verimius the contract. So we've got a British police officer working in Ireland bringing in the security services now that's all bit to cozy....it goes even further, Verimius have former British soldiers working for them who came from the same Regiment apparently that killed an innocent Brazilian in the British tube system that the IPCC themselves had to investigate. So why didn't LBC and the arrest of the British media expose all this?

What happened was Dennis OBriens newspaper the Irish Independent exposed how data had been stolen from GSOC this caused the chief of police to resign, the minister of justice, and Simon O'Brien...a little later Ends Kenny and Gerry Adams went...who knows? Adams was connected with it the Irish press exposed that and Kenny, well if any one was he was.

As for LBC.....

Conspiracy or reality ??

The following evidence below is conclusive beyond any doubt whatsoever
Smith is found in the digital version of Gorings Biography inside of the Introduction.If for a second we ask ourselves how many words there are in existence then its impossible for Smith not to have named his company Parpoint after both parforce and Focal Point why then is this journalist/publisher still a member of the NUJ,they are aware that he has worked with convicted publisher David Irving.
thats the real conspiracy theory right there

ALBERT SMITH IRISH INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Reddit/r/u_wikifreaks888 , 2022-08-01,

British NUJ member Albert Smith advertiss himself upon LinkedIn as Parpoint,he is also found upon the internet providing his own personal introduction to the antisemitic,racist digital production of Gorings Biography (written by the feared convicted neo nazi sympathizer David Irving.)

Recent "net" allegations surrounding this book claim that Smith a former editor of the Irish Independent newspaper named his publishing company after the copyright and publishing agents found within the publication named as Parforce and Focal Point.The obvious question we now ask ourselves is should the National Union of Journalists be held legally accountable for Parpoints past activities when today racist criminals use their members provided copyright??

convicted racist David Irving

MI5 and MAFIA lists

MI5 are very much aware of lists they keep them however there are persons who work for the British Government who are of a different political ideology we need security against terrorists however the class sysytem in uk is based on privalage british intelligence are aware of heroin being taken into prisons so that prisoners and staff altered mi5 records by altering computer systems David Dundale has evidence of this and more of the mafia and military working together in uk add your comments here

Politics is quite simple really the people with the guns maintain it,without force you would not have democracy,in every alleged democracy you find fascists you find them in Government in the police in the intelligence service and in the public also in other organisations the simplest way of describing lists to some one in the uk was and still is the Northern ireland conflict were both uda and ira held lists of people they were trying to kill,in london they have many weird and wonderfull organisations that keep lists on people.however through my expierence in life fascists work with each other so fascists in ireland work with fascists in america and uk and the fascists that do exist who work in government control them. Fascists arent always white look at Gadaffi,hussein ok they werent subscribed to the same principles as white fascists however what they did to their own people was fascist full stop period.

One form of fascism is when people maintin silence of what they know is going on around them,my personal beef with An Phoblacht for example in eire ireland is that they have a news paper and dont report the bourgeois nazis you find in the republic of ireland who have gained financially on keeping people on lists, the same nazis that the queen of England and the fbi and cia employ to do their dirt for them, you understand their a club of nazis mainting lists on people.{sic not all employees of MI5 and cia are nazis i apologise for this however why aint they reporting the others who are??}

ok so how are lists maintained,this is done through privilege,i had some dirty trixster(nazi) steal some of my own political work one piece was on privilege,it took my person a day to write it and some b*****d a few seconds to remove.Privilege in the uk is something the working class political rags/papers( class bore dam rcp etc) dont really constructively examine or point out in writing, it accounts for countless of billions in cash in uk alone that has surreptitiously appeared and disappeared over the last 2 decades, many people con the masses into believing they worked for there wealth CRAP! your priviledge got you it...Anyhow privilege means I get a job in LIDLs supermarket and all I do all day is talk about the same guy that buys his food there and gets himself filmed, the lilds video then gets sent to a bent cop through a security company as a suspected fraud credit card user on a crimeline and then this gets the man followed around town for the next six months, wether hes guilty of owning false cards or not, this is working class privilege because you dont get to keep your job unless you participate in looking for guys who can be followed. Drug users talk about this guy being wanted as a fraudster in exchange for putting him up on mobile phones and get free drugs for saying this on phone lines,the drug addict gets driving licences sent to their flats and exchanges them for more heroin the cops work for the bent solicitors who protect the driving licence holder from being prosecuted who gets i can write a book on this subject however any 2 bit cop or junkie can tell you how middle class nazis in london get all there credit card bills waved through , all the false credit cards the police and banks are telling us aboat each year account for a percentage of priviledge gained credit cards involving drug users morgage defaulters and bent cops end of story full stop period.The fascists at the top white wash credit crime over a number of years with politicians signing secret service contracts so nobody gets found, whilst cash back mike the heist from tesco inc. all change their names again and all go for a nice long walk.

INDEPENDENT POLICE COMPLAINTS COMMISSION MI5 CONTRACTS

Jean charles de Menezes was killed 22/7/2005 in london tube system.The Ipcc conducted an investigation into this death.

In 2013 The IPCC assisted Verrimus security to obtain counter espionage contracts in other countries.

Verrimus security boasts that it trains ex special forces,internet allegations state the same regiments that killed Charles de menezes are employed by verrimus.this company has ex british soldiers as its directors and further internet observations of former trained staff indicate elite members of the british Army work in this country.This company has invested nearly a million in a new training centre.This company at the very least is known to MI5 and also has worked at the very least along side MI5 in certain projects along with law enforcement agencies.

this information has been given to Independent journalist chloe hamilton and SWP party hq.

we would like to see politicians demand answers to the IPCC using this company and carrying out work under secret service acts.

once your on a list you cant function properly as a person just ask any former kgb agent or eastern european police officer from the 1990s it is against human rights law and fascistic to keep people on lists and believe me it is a well known technique used by certain police and mi5/cia operatives who have used both succesfully and (un)succesfully for many years

I have researched the internet in crime sites and political sites and nowhere can i find articles by people explaining MI5 and mafia lists,remember you can only carry on for so long before MI5 find out about it or themselves are a part of it simply explained you cant be a continual suspect to a crime without the police ruling you out so again its evidence of people being held continuously on lists in order to maintain a structure based around fascism and crime in order to maintain privilege and gain capital from it, if your getting stopped and searched all the time by the police your on a list full stop period.

so why the silence why doesnt anybody acknowledge lists held in the uk? good question id be very suprised if a single politician or solicitor bothers to reply to this article by adding a reply

My name is David Dundale I do not in any way support any form of terrorism against Israel United states or Britain support peace in Ireland and want peace between muslims and Jews and DO NOT TOLERATE RACISM OR FASCISM, I condemn certain former MI5 operatives for working with fascists in Europe and maintaining lists that formed the base of muslim terrorism and allowing records held by the Government of Britain to be used by drug cartels and middle class nazis in uk and Ireland to financially gain through privilege.Thanx to spud for allowing me to use his web site I am not a member of SPGB and afford the public to condemn movements that promote fascism as i have.

I'm afraid it is not that simple. While capitalist control of production rests ultimately on their control of political power (and its guns), it is also, sadly, the case that capitalist society is mainly kept going by the pro-capitalist ideas most people hold. As the anarcho-communist Alexander Berkman put it:

Quote:

Our social institutions are founded on certain ideas; as long as the latter are generally believed, the institutions built on them are safe. Government remains strong because people think political authority and legal compulsion necessary. Capitalism will continue as long as such an economic system is considered adequate and just.

This means that the most subversive of capitalism activity that socialists can engage in is undermining these ideas by constant criticism of them. Which is what we in the Socialist Party are doing. When a sufficient number have rejected capitalist ideas then capitalism's days are numbered, even if they do initially still have guns but a socialist majority can take these away from them by winning control of political power itself.

You are right that under capitalism democracy is distorted by all sorts of things, including the secret services and their activities. I'm not sure that "fascism" is the right word to describe this. A better term would be "authoritarianism" or something like that. After all, these practices existed before historical fascism. In fact the word "fascism" should probably be confined to the inter-war period in Central and Southern Europe.

ALB WROTE- I embrace your intellectualism and thank you most genuinely for your input into this web page,your the first to save my sanity ! I completely agree the subject that you have engaged with is itself a complete subject within a hastily compiled

24/01/2014	article that deserves further political debate, the article you refer to is itself sketchy and has been produced not for my own self pity or want of political recognition however an absolute necessity, the very subject itself for example of "privilege" within this article is what I would gracefully ask you to address. It is so painful within my mind watching even the working class itself falling into this abyss.I perceive upper working class, lower working class,middle working class now becoming an issue within the very proletariat itself and how it is structured.I recently read an article written by none other than Gerry Adams TD Sinn Fein in the Metro daily free newspaper,im not hear to promote or endorse in any way this man however the observation I made within his article was a strong reference to "priviledge".I believe this is a good starttng point as an example of a politicians different perceptions in politics over what "priviledge" is within politics itself , Mr Adams refernces were to the abolishment of Seanad (part of the Irish Government). I would like to clearly state that his paper An Phoblacht has had more than enough time to expose the upper middle class bourgeois Nazi reclaiming land and running private armies within the Republic of Ireland and yet sadly there remains a complete void upon this subject or at least very little that surfaces within the internet issued by his party.I would like to remind the readers of this sub article that parts of The Republic of Ireland is modelling itself upon Serbian and Croatian inbred fascism based on the "privilege" system held by an increasing percentage of far right farmers land and building owners who are continually waging a war to keep the working class off the national land a clandestine war not to my knowledge mentioned by or even recognised by An Phoblact and that this secret war has remarkable similarities between travellers in the uk and how they have been spied upon and kept on lists.Priviledge in uk society is a sinister and ever growing cancer and like fascism needs a victim most people gain from others loss,Librarians,bus drivers,post office workers are quite often used to keep people on lists and often work with mafia and secret service ajents in creating "priviledge" the real culprits are the far right type of home office workers who get extra perks and alleged private buisnessmen in society getting presents.The list is endless however without this form of system there wouldnt be lists,the sicilian mafia,the stasi,the mob in New York all keep lists and all connected to Politicians and Paramilitary groups even football violence and gangs in London are all controlled by insiders and fascists and keep lists of rivals and enemies.Without priviledge British Government wouldnt function .The Monarchy itself is the most rancid form of structured priviledge that you can percieve within a country.Finally the BBC last year exposed the British Military investigating Heroin found on their own planes flying from Afghanastan,the prison service provided free Heroin to inmates in Tony Blairs leadership in exchange for helping the prison officers to write prison reports that were later on published on their own prison computer systems and then in turn napstered extnally by police and mi5.Basically heroin was used by the British state and still is to rewrite political history,the type of dirty trix reports created or generated like this account for creating lists of men who could account for intelligence,suspected unsolved crimes,suspected quantities of hidden or none recovered money and items suspected identy firearms political persuasion once again thanx to SPUD and David Dundale former Bullingdon for this info

I know British intelligence keep lists on as many people as they can, that's their main job. If there's evidence British intelligence such as MI5 co-operate with the Mafia in the heroin trade, then so what? Are we supposed to be surprised British intelligence doesn't have our best interests at heart?

Incidentally blacklisting has been covered even in the mainstream media as recently as a couple of months ago

<http://www.theguardian.com/business/2013/oct/12/police-blacklist-construction-workers-watchdog>

<http://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2013/aug/20/blacklisting-activists-human-rights-inquiry>

I don't understand why terrorism against countries such as Israel, United states or Britain in particular is highlighted as something you don't support.

My problem with common internet narratives such as these are that either

- they limit us to an honest transparent capitalism as the best human nature can achieve (Black Mass by John Gray, Terror Inc. by Loretta Napoleoni, David Dundale's one internet comment I found from Googling him)
- they fundamentally disempower workers by asserting they are powerless, whereas I think it can be demonstrated that the working-class can emancipate themselves and there are particular ways to do it.

I'm not saying parapolitical activities don't happen but they aren't all-powerful and pulling the strings of everything. Nor should we take them on hearsay or suspend normal judgment of evidence.

Let me cut to the chase here. Anyone that is denying the link between this allegedly deadly “coronavirus” and the symptoms associated with radiation sickness should not be trusted.

The evidence is POURING in that people are, indeed, getting sick from wireless radiation.

THE PROBLEM IS NOT JUST 5G.

ALL TYPES OF MANMADE RADIATION ARE HARMFUL including radiowaves, microwaves, and millimeter waves.

There are tens of thousands of studies documenting this (see also

"I'm not interested in the philosophy or morality of biological warfare," Tina said. "Right now I just want to know how the hell Danny wound up in this place."

"To understand that," Dombey said, "you have to go back twenty months. It was around then that a Chinese scientist named Li Chen defected to the United States, carrying a diskette record of China's most important and dangerous new biological weapon in a decade. They call the stuff 'Wuhan-400' because it was developed at their RDNA labs outside of the city of Wuhan, and it was the four-hundredth viable strain of man-made microorganisms created at that research center.

"Wuhan-400 is a perfect weapon. It afflicts only human beings. No other living creature can carry it. And like syphilis, Wuhan-400 can't survive outside a living human body for longer than a minute, which means it can't permanently contaminate objects or entire places the way anthrax and other virulent microorganisms can. And when the host expires, the Wuhan-400 within him perishes a short while later, as soon as the temperature of the corpse drops below eighty-six degrees Fahrenheit. Do you see the advantage of all this?"

Tina was too busy with Danny to think about what Carl Dombey had said, but Elliot knew what the scientist meant. "If I understand you, the Chinese could use Wuhan-400 to wipe out a city or a country, and then there wouldn't be any need for them to conduct a tricky and expensive decontamination before they moved in and took over the conquered territory." Dombey said. "And Wuhan-400 has other, over most biological agents."

"Koontz" has apparently written many books under various pseudonyms. And so it was the case with The Eyes of Darkness, which was originally released in 1981 under the fake name of Leigh Nichols. Not only does this book mention a "bioweapon" from Wuhan, China, but on the very next page, also mentions the "ebola virus" from Africa.

One astute researcher (who would rather not be named) has surmised that “Koontz” is very likely not a single person (since this “person” is alleged to have written eight books in one year!), but rather a group of psychopathic individuals writing specific things for public consumption.

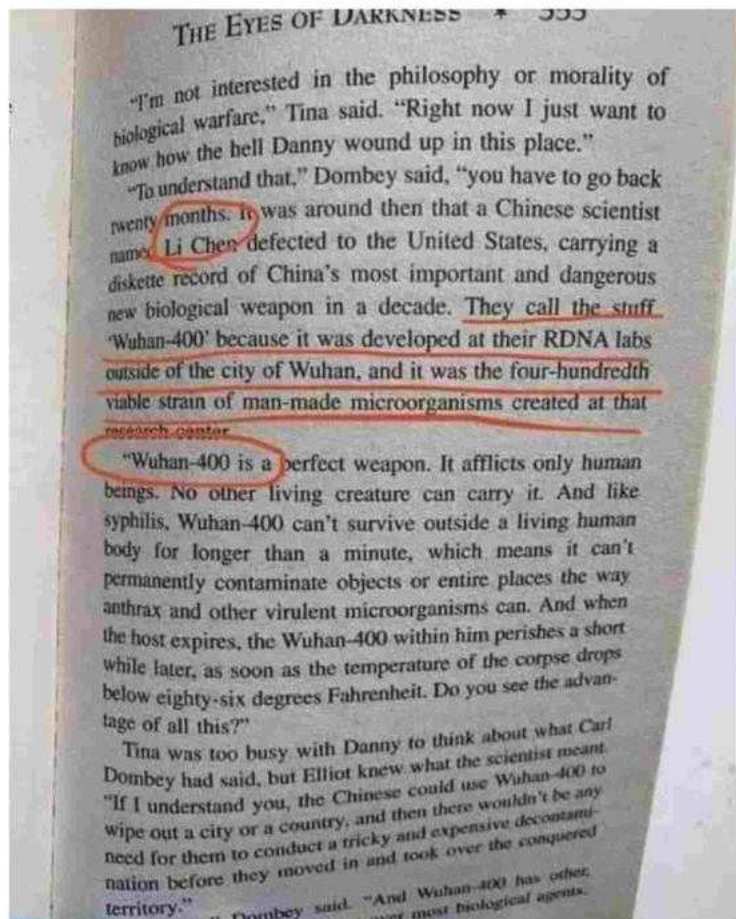

Even more interesting is the fact Dean Koontz is not the only author to ‘predict’ this nasty “virus.” According to The Sun Daily, author Sylvia Browne published a book in 2008 called End of Days: Predictions and Prophecies About the End of the World. Check out her “prediction”!!!!

On top of all of this, they actually staged a pandemic “exercise” (otherwise called a drill) called Event 201 in New York in October of 2019.

Event 201 was a 3.5-hour pandemic tabletop exercise that simulated a series of dramatic, scenario-based facilitated discussions, confronting difficult, true-to-life dilemmas associated with response to a hypothetical, but scientifically plausible, pandemic. 15 global business, government, and public health leaders were players in the simulation exercise that highlighted unresolved real-world policy and economic issues that could be solved with

WIKI LEAKS IRELANDS CIA OPERATIONS

Wed, 16/11/2016 - 12:09pm &#151; London CT

- Rubbish bin [1]

The all American Illuminati are using the services of another order known as Irelands "Old Guard" this organisation is so deeply rooted that it cant be bypassed. Corrupt Diplomats and corrupt politicians form the dna make up of some of the members of this organisation/order whom over the last decades have operated under a blanket of secrecy as powerfull as the illuminati itself frequently violating international laws behind closed doors, one very good example is British Intelligence service placing British doctors inside of the Midlands Prison in the Republic of Ireland. As countries such as America privately buy their way into the Republic of Ireland CIA expenditure becomes politically obvious aswell as an unavoidable residue which leaves other law enforcement agencies such as the FBI no alternative but to become clandestine and renegade in their operations within the Republic of Ireland. A book called Black Mass written by Dick Lehr, Gerard O Neil explains clearly how the FBI recruited criminals (the mob) into their own workings, the powers that be have exported the same ideas to the Republic of Ireland where a collective of entities can more or less be categorised as being Irelands equivoalent. Far right wing farmers (in control of land mass), Failed and illegal tax loss companies (more ground base knowledge than FBI), Former Political activists (Intelligence and logistics), Drug Cartels (state enforced violence) are being recruited to work for the FBI in areas that include surveillance of undesirables. The Feds provide their badges to protect the illegals read about in the newspapers and other operations, information on undesirables filters back to the FBI through organisations such as Pearse Street Garda Station (Irish Police). Bent cops Bent Solicitors are all protected by the FBI along with judges and politicians and even if illegals are used to get evidence that is excepted.

Undesirable categorisation can often be generated on computer systems by various persons in various countries for example British home Office workers following alleged British Tax evaders in the Republic of Ireland can get names forwarded to FBI agents. There are certain politically sensitive areas within the republic of Ireland both on land and within business where this categorisation of person is becoming more and more predominant and getting black listed is becoming increasingly easier as the far right within Ireland become more desperate in keeping control over their ill gotten gains. President Trump himself has invested heavily into such areas before being voted in, he owns both land property and businesses including Golf courses in Ireland and so it would be obvious to the reader why certain undesirables in their minds are not welcome. President John F Kennedy was of Irish decent and used many methods to gain political control, Bill Clinton on the other hand has many vested and private interests within the Republic of Ireland, his own organisation the Clinton Foundation (long suspected of having CIA financing) recruited Irelands richest man Dennis O'Brien into their mists.

Dennis O'Brien owns newspapers, radio programs, security companies, petrol companies, telecommunications companies. The book recently published called Clinton Cash written by Peter Schweizer explains how O'Brien gave Clinton a quarter of a million Euro sum of money to attend private parties in Ireland and give talks over dinner. A person can't join the Clinton foundation you are hand picked the organisation itself carries out work such as building hospitals and schools in politically sensitive countries yet between them both they can't build much needed hospitals and schools in Ireland. Exports are low in Ireland and offshore a rapidly new expanding sphere so espionage in Ireland is becoming a profitable business with countries such as Russia South America and China expanding operations into new territory that physically joins onto British land mass. Areas such as shopping centres, libraries train stations, bus stops are effectively areas that require surveillance for example the working class and middle class in Ireland are pathetically apathetic to exposing political antidotes on wifi systems within libraries however if you attempt to rock the boat using a wifi system in an Irish library it's not a recommendation. The old guard use intermediates as part of their own structure however these same intermediates are also used by the FBI that way information flows in different directions, intermediates can include, doctors, solicitors, farmers, land owners, Irish Police, librarians, alleged businessmen, drug cartels, health board officials, military, judges

This article has been produced because of the high level of Eastern European activity within Ireland. The Chinese and eastern Europeans are creating Irish history and quite often clash in political ideology with the old guard and the FBI. The modus operandi of the old guard has been over the last few decades a darkly kept secret hopefully this article sheds light on who really controls this country that sits on Britain's border.

ANNIE MACHON: USING OUR INTELLIGENCE SERVICE

≡ M E N U

Using Our Intelligence

Annie Machon

THE DEDMAN FILES-LONDON CT PRODUCTIONS

ANDREW DEDMAN MI5-THE DEDMAN FILES

Inside the secret state

Ever get the feeling you're being watched? That doesn't mean you're paranoid, discovered Alan McCombes when he met up with two former MI5 agents, Annie Machon and David Shayler, who have blown the lid on the British secret services. From sending agents to socialist organisations? meetings to funding an al Qaeda bombing campaign, they tell how British Intelligence operates at home and abroad, utterly unaccountable and with little regard for laws or lives.

A dossier used to justify the invasion of a foreign country so far-fetched it could have been written by JK Rowling. Fearsome weapons of mass destruction that turn out to be more elusive than Lord Lucan. The cold-blooded shooting of an innocent young man following a botched up surveillance operation that would have embarrassed Austin Powers. Among the general public, the credibility of the British intelligence services was already in meltdown even before Stormontgate. The revelations that the security services may have been involved in orchestrating a plot to bring down the elected Northern Ireland Assembly is unlikely to shock anyone who has read Spies, Lies and Whistleblowers: MI5, MI6 and the Shayler Affair.

This explosive book was written by ex-MI5 agent, Annie Machon, with the assistance of her partner, David Shayler. It ranks alongside Tony Bunyan's 1970s classic, The Political Police in Britain, as one of the most important exposures of the British intelligence services ever published. For 15 months, the Spies, Lies and Whistleblowers book was banned. The main publishing houses were then warned off touching it. Eventually a small publisher took it on. Even then, it was subjected to MI5 censorship, with chunks of text blacked out under orders from the faceless men and women who lurk in the undergrowth of the British state.

The book has been systematically ignored by most of the mainstream media - raising serious questions, it has to be said, about the influence of the British secret intelligence services within the newspaper industry. During a recent visit to Scotland, David Shayler and Annie Machon told the Voice the extraordinary story of how they became spies, then fugitives, then pariahs in the eyes of the British establishment. Along the way, David has fought court battles and served several prison sentences. Their long road to international notoriety began back in the days when Tony Blair was still a fresh-faced, backbench, opposition MP. When Shayler, a Dundee University graduate, spotted a job advert in the Sunday Times under the headline, 'Godot is Waiting,' he was intrigued. In Samuel Beckett's acclaimed play, Waiting for Godot, two tramps wait for a mysterious individual who never arrives and whose character is never revealed. Eventually, the organisation behind the Godot recruit advert did reveal itself - but only after several gruelling interviews, in which David was given the third degree about his politics and background. He admits he was shocked to discover the identity of his cloak-and-dagger prospective employer.

Shayler was an unlikely recruit for MI5. As a student he had participated in demonstrations and had been a member of Anti-Apartheid and CND. As the editor of the Dundee University student newspaper, he had even been served with an injunction after publishing extracts from Spycatcher, the banned autobiography of former MI5 officer, Peter Wright. Shayler admits that, by the time of his recruitment to MI5, his earlier radicalism had diminished: 'The miners strike had been defeated, then the printers at Wapping. Like a lot of people at that time, I had become disillusioned with left wing politics. But I still couldn't understand why MI5 would want to take an interest in someone with my background. Some of my friends were convinced I was winding them up about the whole thing. But to my surprise, I kept getting through each stage of the National Bus and Railworkers union in Ireland have been produced some radical leaflets on the recent water charges proposals from Irish Government. Members support actions to prevent water charges and privatisation!

Being a British born person I understand that as a Dublin Bus driver there are no boundaries in international socialism and therefore I support the Socialist Party of Great Britain however would take this opportunity to bring readers attention to socialist party member PAUL MURPHY a really helpful and sincere chap.

There are many subjects we as bus drivers are prohibited in our work place from discussing at union level one of them is security. As you can imagine security on buses in Dublin has become a very big concern and regular violent behavior forces the drivers more increasingly into legal matters. Dublin bus routes are connected into outside counties Wicklow being one of them. Primarily the problem is the last stops on the following bus routes 44, 44b, 184, 185 each of these bus routes can be found on the internet just type Dublin bus then number and the timetables are freely available. Over the last five years a growth industry or cottage industry has sprung up based on surveillance of the areas around the last stops of the mentioned routes. The farmers and locals have been playing REAL IRA and Dublin drug gang wars only its got completely out of hand with Dublin Bus drivers being asked to take part in surveillance, which as a driver I am damned set against.

The following facts I am presenting can be found on the internet and are genuine.

The 44b bus last stop has had a massive amount of gun activity reported through the Garda Stations both the army and the police seem to be powerless in stopping deer

 kronstedtjournal Participant	The IPCC is a British organisation, got a problem with the cops you make a complaint to them, in Fireland it's GSOC. The Irish God bless their souls live under an "order" want the evidence? It's in the can... they don't speak their own language. The New World order had big chief Bush and when he died not so long ago he died listening to Irish music and of course Jack paid the ultimate price for his sins. This write up ain't gonna contain dates and names it's for the ordinary mad hats and duds out there, The UN and the CIA had their orders two, they used Pentagon money in the Irish system backed by some amazingly bad men that own banks and started a mass exodus... no no not black mass. The Boston tea party was overseen by a real cool dude that kills, you know the one OBI carnobeeuwambam the fly guy who flew his ship all over da're base. Why every one was watching the kids firework display the ship had been captured. The Irish system began filling with Pentagon green, the social welfare system became the poor man's tiger. So as old Eire began decaying the carve up began, One of the biggest security risk in world politrix in Fireland was GSOC in the eyes of people like Clinton and MFI over queer it looked like an unmanned nuclear reactor with everyone from former IRA members and PLO heads going in and out with wheel barrows, Tesco bags, Owdhalls the lot and coming out with pure uranium, forget Iran this was the Taj to end hall. Basically it had to be shut down one man shall be named an MI6 agent Simon O'Brien, GSOC was run by O'Brien he was the chairman, now get your thinking caps on how did a British police officer become the ed of Irish police investigations against the Irish police? Clinton used his bezzy mate Dennis O Brown the richest and most powerfully man in Fireland to promote Simon O'Brien, the proof simple enter LBC!!!! ask LBC if they were interviewing a police officer undercover live on air would they blow his cover? Then ask yourself this when Simon O'Brien went live on air to be asked about security issues... why the Irish radio station owned by Clinton's buddy Dennis O'Brien didn't ask him on air about being an under cover cop when part of the show was about under cover Irish police officers working in GSOC. The Irish interviewers went crazy on the guy screaming at him to give Ireland an answer as to what undercover Irish police officers were doing in his office and yet forgot to ask him the same question... In order for Clinton and MFI to steal data from GSOC computers they needed a smoke screen. Verrimus security is a contractor for MI 5 and Simon O Brien's office got them the contract to steal the data... however it was the IPCC who helped O'Brien's office get Verrimus the contract. So we've got a British police officer working in Ireland bringing in the security services now that's all bit to cozy... it goes even further, Verrimus have former British soldiers working for them who came from the same Regiment apparently that killed an innocent Brazilian in the British tube system that the IPCC themselves had to investigate. So why didn't LBC and the arrest of the British media expose all this? What happened was Dennis O'Brien's newspaper the Irish Independent exposed how data had been stolen from GSOC this caused the chief of police to resign, the minister of justice, and Simon O'Brien... a little later Ends Kenny and Gerry Adams went... who knows? Adams was connected with it the Irish press exposed that and Kenny, well if any one was he was. As for LBC.....

Due to a security incident, the websites for the World Socialist Movement and the Socialist Party of Great Britain are currently down for extended maintenance.

Learn more about the incident and what this means for your personal data

On 6 July 2018 the Socialist Party of Great Britain (SPGB) discovered that a malicious third party had gained control of the worldsocialism.org web server. The server hosts the websites for the SPGB, the World Socialist Movement (WSM), the Socialist Party of Canada (SPC), and the World Socialist Party of New Zealand (WSPNZ).

Once we became aware of the attack, we immediately took the web server offline and began taking steps to assess and repair the damage. Our initial assessment is that the attack took place on or around 30 June 2018 and that it was effected through a security flaw in the content management system that powers the SPGB website. The identity of the attacker is not currently known to us.

The evidence we have examined so far suggests that the attacker had the opportunity to access almost all information stored on the web server, including the SPGB forum's user database. The user database stores passwords in a secure manner, so it is unlikely that the attacker was able to see them. However, the attacker may have been intercepting data submitted through the SPGB website from the time of the attack until yesterday evening. This means that if you logged into the SPGB forum on worldsocialism.org, then the attacker may have your username and password. In any case, if you use the same username/password or e-mail/password combination on both the SPGB forum and on other websites, we advise you to change your password on those other websites immediately.

If you entered any other kind of information (such as submitting a contact form or sending a private message on the SPGB forum) on the websites of the SPGB, the WSM, the SPC, or the WSPNZ, then for now you should proceed on the assumption that that information has been exposed to the attacker.

We are still working to assess the extent of the attack and to repair the damage, and we will attempt to notify any and all affected users directly once we are able to gather their contact details from the relevant databases. So far we have been able to restore the SPC and WSPNZ websites. However, the SPGB and WSM websites could remain offline for several weeks while we fix the security flaw that led to this breach. If you have any pressing questions or concerns about your own personal data, please address them for the time being to the SPGB's Internet Committee at spgb.internet@worldsocialism.org. We will post updates of a more general nature here as our investigation and restoration work progresses.

CRAIG MURRAY - Dark Politricks and the 2017 Vault!!! Vault(7)

On 6 July 2018 the Socialist Party of Great Britain (SPGB) discovered that a malicious third party had gained control of the worldsocialism.org web server.....read on.....

Murray - "I have published the only detailed account of the defence case. In consequence not only was I slung out of court by the judge on a motion of the prosecution, and threatened with jail by the Crown Office for contempt of court, the judge also made an order making it illegal to publish the fact that I had been barred from the court, in effect a super injunction". NOTE Murray was also banned by the CIA from entering the United states and yet here is in his own words descibing how he met certain persons in the United States after being banned from entry!!

Murray explained that the two sets of documents handed over to Wikileaks came via two different American sources, both of whom had legal access to them.

He describes a lot more about the Podesta emails, of which he said he had "first hand knowledge," because of something he did or learned on a trip to DC in September. In this interview, Murray says "The material was already, I think, safely with WikiLeaks before I got there in September," though other outlets have suggested (with maps included!) that's when the hand-off happened. In that account, Murray admits he did not meet with the person with legal access; he instead met with an intermediary. That means the intermediary may have made false claims about the provenance.

So who was it that got Craig Murray into the United States? The answer MI6/KGB and the article that explained it all was destroyed and blocked wait for this was by MI5/The Socialist party of Great Britain!!!! here is the article <https://issuu.com/darkpolitricks> this dark politricks reference site for dark Politricks was setup in 2017 it was in no way setup to mislead but to inform Dark Politricks readers of further INFOWARS related sites and was published back in 2017! Did u know that in the uk your not allowed to call putin a prick?? if you do the British military turn up on your housing estate pretending to be GRU and fill up your water taps with weedkiller

I don't mean to be alarmist or anything like that, but I have come to the conclusion that London tap water is something that should be avoided at all costs. In fact I will go as far as saying that the filthy stuff is poisonous and a downright danger to your health. London tap water is unsafe to drink and I will take it one step further and say that it isn't even a good idea to wash in the stuff.

It is a fact that 80% of London's drinking water comes from storage reservoirs connected to the River Thames and the River Lee. I'm sure that anybody that has ever been to London, couldn't help but notice the filthy colour of the water in the Thames and it is obvious that a lot of chemicals go into turning that into the stuff that flows out of the tap.

I'm basing my assumption that London tap water is a danger to your health from my own findings. When I first arrived here, I did a wee bit of research and found that the tap water was safe to drink, it maybe tastes disgusting but it was safe to drink. Not been one to waste money on something, which I could get for free and I thought I may eventually get accustomed to the taste, so I drank it.

However during my first 3 months living in London I had a constant sore throat, which just wouldn't go away. It was round about then that I discovered where the water I was drinking originated from and I thought holy f**k. I instantly put a halt to local tap water going down my sensitive throat. And believe it or not within a couple of days my throat was back to normal and it hasn't bothered me since.

Sadly it is a fact that the Irish are being prohibited in the Republic of Ireland from speaking their own language Gaelic.I am a researcher and writer.Until recently it was kept quite however it is now a form of accepted knowledge that many former members of the Irish Republican Army (Once regarded as terrorists) have themselves been recruited by the CIA and MI5/6 others are so intoxicated they have completely lost all reality as to what is happening around them politically and how they are being used by others.There are a number of high profile former IRA members who work with political parties,solicitors,business,media that are most Definitely and Defiantly continuing in their two model role.It has come to the point that it is beyond embarrassing watching these persons in operation and has got to the point where their medical ineptness is now having severe impact on normal politicians and members of both the British and American government alike ,its like selling a Dedmans horse twice to an Arab with more Kamali dung than China has opium.They say never Judge a book by its cover or look a gift horse in the mouth ....but to be Frank....

World Socialist Movement 503 Temporarily unavailable

Due to a security incident, the websites for the World Socialist Movement and the Socialist Party of Great Britain are currently down for extended maintenance.

 Learn more about the incident and what this means for your personal data

On 6 July 2018 the Socialist Party of Great Britain (SPGB) discovered that a malicious third party had gained control of the worldsocialism.org web server. The server hosts the websites for the SPGB, the World Socialist Movement (WSM), the Socialist Party of Canada (SPC), and the World Socialist Party of New Zealand (WSPNZ).

Once we became aware of the attack, we immediately took the web server offline and began taking steps to assess and repair the damage. Our initial assessment is that the attack took place on or around 30 June 2018 and that it was effected through a security flaw in the content management system that powers the SPGB website. The identity of the attacker is not currently known to us.

The evidence we have examined so far suggests that the attacker had the opportunity to access almost all information stored on the web server, including the SPGB forum's user database. The user database stores passwords in a secure manner, so it is unlikely that the attacker was able to see them. However, the attacker may have been intercepting data submitted through the SPGB website from the time of the attack until yesterday evening. This means that if you logged into the SPGB forum on worldsocialism.org, then the attacker may have your username and password. In any case, if you use the same username/password or e-mail/password combination on both the SPGB forum and on other websites, we advise you to change your password on those other websites immediately.

If you entered any other kind of information (such as submitting a contact form or sending a private message on the SPGB forum) on the websites of the SPGB, the WSM, the SPC, or the WSPNZ, then for now you should proceed on the assumption that that information has been exposed to the attacker.

We are still working to assess the extent of the attack and to repair the damage, and we will attempt to notify any and all affected users directly once we are able to gather their contact details from the relevant databases. So far we have been able to restore the SPC and WSPNZ websites. However, the SPGB and WSM websites could remain offline for several weeks while we fix the security flaw that led to this breach.

If you have any pressing questions or concerns about your own personal data, please address them for the time being to the SPGB's Internet Committee at spgb.internet@worldsocialism.org. We will post updates of a more general nature here as our investigation and restoration work progresses.

Annie Machon had joined MI5 a couple of months before. Hers was a more conventional security services background. She was born and bred on what she calls the 'somnolent island of Guernsey'. Later she graduated from Cambridge University with a degree in Classics. At the time Annie was, in her own words, 'totally apolitical'. Annie had originally applied to join the diplomatic service. 'But then, after sitting the Foreign Office exams, I received a letter on MoD-headed paper suggesting there may be other jobs I would find more interesting.' Annie had some vague, patriotic ideas about fighting terrorism. She was explicitly told by her interviewer - 'a tall slim 30-something woman with hair down to her hips and a layered hippy skirt' - that MI5 was no longer interested in investigating 'reds under the beds'. The new MI5 of the 1990s would be mainly involved in counter-terrorism, she was assured. But after sailing through the recruitment process, Annie was allocated to F2 - the counter-subversion department, dedicated to monitoring 'political extremists'. 'In the 1980s, before we joined, MI5 had 40 desk officers, each with a team of clerical support workers, concentrating purely on the old Communist Party. By the time I joined, Militant had become the big threat.' Annie herself was put in charge of co-ordinating surveillance of the SWP. She says that 'F2 deliberately exaggerated the threat of Militant and the SWP to maintain staff levels and funding.' Annie recalls that, when she joined, there were informants in two thirds of SWP branches. 'These weren't all necessarily MI5-run agents... Some of them would have reported to Special Branch... I found it morally and ethically dubious that we should be investigating these perfectly legal organisations.'

'Over two years I ran down the operation. We managed to get rid of most of the agents, but I couldn't get rid of all of them. We had to keep about five or six.' Meanwhile David was in charge of the anarchist group Class War. He insists that, for some time, the organisation was held together by a full time intelligence officer. 'Usually agents were just people who provided information, but this was actually a full time officer who lived six days a week as an anarchist and one day a week as a normal family man... One day I went to debrief the officer. He had been involved in undercover work for about three years. If you spend that amount of time as an anarchist, you eventually become one. He was drinking special brew and kept denouncing the 'uniform bobbies' and stuff like that. We pulled him out - and soon after we did that, Class War fell apart. This guy was actually keeping Class War together. They were not a threat to anyone, frankly. They made a lot of noise but they had no serious organisation.' During their time in F2 - where the couple first met - David and Annie saw personal files on a vast range of individuals suspected of being subversives. They included cabinet ministers, trade union leaders, journalists and lawyers. Well known subversives who have files held by F2 include the jazz musician, Ronnie Scott; the comedians, Mark Steele and Mark Thomas; the businessman Mohammed al-Fayed; the first Presiding Officer of the Scottish Parliament, Lord David Steele; and the old Etonian former Labour MP, Tam Dalyell. The couple even came across a file called 'Subversion in Contemporary Music', which consisted of press clippings on bands including the Sex Pistols and UB40. All of this could be dismissed as a childish game played out by cardboard spies. But David and Annie gradually began to discover a more sinister element at work within the secret intelligence services.

They allege that the intelligence services are involved in widespread corruption, with officers 'lining their own pockets to the tune of tens of millions of pounds in sting operations'. These normally involve arranging the sale of bogus drugs or weapons consignments. On one occasion, MI5 stitched up a loyalist paramilitary group by pretending to ship a cargo of weapons from Poland. But the cargo of weapons was in fact a stack of boxes filled with sand and other materials. MI5 took the money and claimed to have foiled a major arms deal. They also arranged for some few guns to be on display for the benefit of press photographers. According to David, the money generated by these shadowy operations disappears into a black hole. David and Annie suggest that some of the money is used to finance unofficial operations including illegal phone tapping and the running of agents provocateurs using shadow private security firms, which act as unaccountable satellites of the intelligence services. There are official and unofficial operations,' explains David. 'In MI5 they tell you that you won't know if your phone's tapped. But since I left MI5 I've had playback on my phone - I've ended the call, then heard a recording of my conversation played back. The difference is that some taps are official - they're done through the Home Secretary, with official warrants, through the telephone exchange. Others are unofficial, carried out by agents of the service, private security firms - often ex-MI5 or MI6 people - who'll then report their findings. The same with agents provocateurs... This allows MI5 and MI6 to keep their hands clean.'

Annie says that there were fewer warrants for official telephone taps at that time on left wing groups than people might expect: 'When I joined F2 in 1991, telephone tapping wasn't practised directly by MI5 to any great extent. There was a tap on the SWP HQ and on Militant's national and regional HQs. Even then, it was slapdash. When the Provos began a bombing blitz in England in the early 90s, the full time staff who had been dedicated to transcribing tapes from Militant and the SWP HQs were switched to IRA-associated work. Months of tapes then stacked up so high that no-one could process them, so they were never transcribed, and were eventually just thrown away. This in itself showed that these organisations were never any serious threat to national security.'

In Spies, Lies and Whistleblowers, Annie describes an incident when a former member of Militant, who had not been politically active for a number of years, was vetoed for a civil service job based on an innocent social call he had made to Militant's HQ in London. Although they found this side of the work of MI5 distasteful, they were prepared to carry on and try and change the culture from within - naively, as they now acknowledge. The Victoria Brittan case shook them further. The Guardian journalist had received several large payments into her bank account from Libya to fund a libel action. When the payments were reported to MI5, the service jumped to the wrong conclusion without carrying out any elementary checks. They decided that Brittan was laundering money to fund a terrorist operation, and spent around £750,000 in a futile surveillance operation. At one point in the investigation, Brittan's London flat was burgled by MI5. To clear the way for the break-in, Brittan's daughter, a keyholder, was arrested on trumped up charges while on holiday in the United States. In another disturbing sequence of events, two Palestinians were jailed for 20 years - Samar Alami and Jawed Botmeh - after a bomb explosion at the Israeli embassy in London in 1994. Machon and Shayler believe they are victims of an outrageous miscarriage of justice. Annie says that two crucial documents were never revealed at the trial. One pointed to the possibility of an Iranian group being responsible. The other was from a senior manager in MI5. 'He had seen all the evidence. In his assessment, Mossad (the Israeli Secret Services) had bombed its own embassy. London at that time was a haven for Palestinian dissidents. A controlled explosion at the embassy, in which there were no deaths, achieved two things. 'First, it achieved a clampdown on the activities of potential terrorists. And secondly, the arrests and jailings splintered the whole Palestinian network in London - which has only now regrouped after ten years. Shortly before the attack, nearly a hundred people had died in an attack on the Jewish Mutual Association building in Buenos Aires. 'As a result the Israelis were paranoid about security. But now, in one stroke, Mossad had achieved two key objectives.'

Annie and David finally reached breaking point over MI6's funding of an Al Qaeda plot to assassinate Libya's Colonel Gaddafi. Shayler is no apologist for the Libyan regime. As head of MI5's Libyan Department, he investigated the Lockerbie bombing - and notwithstanding the controversy surrounding the eventual conviction of Abdelbaset al-Megrahi, Shayler remains convinced that Libya was responsible for the bombing of the Pan-Am airliner. But when David's counterpart in MI6, the head of the Libyan Bureau, approached him around Christmas 1995, he was shocked: 'He told me there had been a 'walk-in' at the British embassy in Tunis - a senior Libyan military intelligence officer, who was involved with an Islamic extremist group. 'Even though Islamic terrorism was supposed to be the new threat to the West, MI6 became involved with him anyway.' The plan was to assassinate Gaddafi, which in turn would trigger off an Islamic coup. 'Finance was integral to the whole operation. And MI6 paid for it, they made it happen. They financed this Al Qaeda plot to the tune of £100,000 to buy guns, jeeps, tents and other materials.' In the event, the attempt on Gaddafi's life failed - but innocent onlookers, including children, were killed in the car bomb blast and the subsequent gun battle. David says he was 'physically sickened by the fact that MI6 sponsored Islamic extremists to carry out an act of terrorism which killed innocent people'. David knew about the plot well in advance, but did not imagine it would ever be carried out. MI6 live in this fantasy world of James Bond and Boy's Own. They fancied themselves swanning around Monte Carlo casinos, hatching up coups and other adventures. So, although I did raise concerns with my bosses, I honestly didn't think it was going to happen. The innocent civilians who died were described as 'collateral damage', but that only confirmed to me how many psychopaths there are in the British upper classes,' says David. 'You can live with the idea of somebody's flat being wrongly tapped or burgled. It's wrong, but it's not necessarily by itself something that's going to make you blow the whistle. But when you realise that British Intelligence are funding people who are supposed to be our new terrorist enemies, Islamic extremists, and they go on to kill innocent people, that's of a completely different order.' David and Annie believe that MI6 hoped that the coup would succeed in establishing an Al Qaeda state in Libya. 'This would either be a puppet state, or it would give them an excuse to

BELOW BRITISH INTELLIGENCE NUCLEAR BUNKER (HERFORD,UK) PART OF ANDREW DEDMANS OPERATIONAL AREA IN NORTH LONDON.

Andrew Dedman left The British Army and joined the British Police, it is believed he was transferred because mathematically the badge number he was allocated to use as a police officer, (every police officer has their own badge or identity number on the "force") was 1001! the emphasis here is the actual mathematical chances of owning this badge number in the British Police are practically ZERO its a computation that runs into many hundreds of thousands, as there are many hundreds of thousands of police officers so we believe it was a badge number on "Stand by". As we all know 1001 is a British expression or phrase only in this particular persons instance its a thousand and one misuses as opposed to uses. Andrew Dedman by name and nature was not a regular police officer. The name itself is an anagram of ...and your a deadman... A typically sinister calling card left on police files, court paperwork etc researches who quite often browse through British Intelligence files and Police Intelligence files would "lock" onto the "coding" of coming across a name of DEATH 1001. Because of his initial location a town known as Hertford, Hertfordshire where he worked as a mere detective constable it is thought that he was part of an undercover military unit within the police or even a secret police officer, that is a police officer who has different roles, his expertise and British Army knowledge would have made him prime time for the job, still being able to work with the British Army itself. This is because 20-30 years ago Hertford was the quintessential MI5 village situated far enough outside of London's capital served with two railway stations (not many towns in UK have two railway stations!) the British railway station from Hertford actually takes trains right inside of the tube station underground!!! Moorgate station to be precise so this made security arrangements for MI5 workers less hassle to get around. Hertford itself is a rabbit warren a complete Maze, it had one of only three types of emergency nuclear underground base stations this can be found on google by typing <http://www.urbexdevil.co.uk/srhq-4-2->

regional-government-bunker/ the Town has hundreds of inter connected footpaths,there everywhere,canals,rivers,viaducts,lakes,wooded areas nearby now abandoned air strip...the list goes on and on just look at google maps and everything within 5 miles radius of Hertford itself on the map and twenty years ago the place was a lot more quite and the police were right good chaps.Andrew Dedman for his sins was a nasty right winger who tampered and experimented with systems and law probably the type that was very much aware of people like Oswald Moseley infact Dedman looks remarkably similar to this man.He was a brutally cold police officer across between a ferret and British Army stiff upper lip type although the kind of skinny/medium type build chap that you would find camping somewhere in the middle of the Brecon Beacons eating worms and rumours surfacing on the net indicate he left the police and was found by Mossad agents living in Turkey they apparently got real personal by naming him a man with American armed force tattoos on his left arm on an alleged IDF site in Israel.Dedman probably is part of a sinister network of espionage/crime/drugs as Turkey is not the sort of place a person would willingly live in being British Born no offence to the Turkish people here but it isn't many folks ideal port of call,hes either hiding there or working or both and probably for both sides at the same time if you know what I mean....Dedman tampered with the British Police force PNC computer system leaving a trail of disinformation behind him the extent of which will probably remain another mi5 well kept secret,these types of police officers have been involved in creating DATA BANKS which are not only used by police but Diplomats and British Intelligence which is part of creating the capitalist infrastructure of Britain itself all information is a tradeable commodity and at some point ends up in the Kremlin or Washington.Some folk say that the only thing that's secret about mi5 is where they live and how much money they earn each year everything else goes through the back door in one form or another...sorry chaps but that's the word...Dedman was involved in programming prisoners and the British mafia and Dedman itself is more a ring of pirates or network of people including criminals that help maintain protection within Britain.

She joined CID when TV heroes such as Inspector Morse, DCI Gene Hunt and DCI Jane Tennison had fired the public imagination about detective work as the pinnacle of British policing.

DC Stephens, secretary of the Police Federation's national detectives forum, remains passionate about the buzz of nailing a villain: "When you get that guilty verdict in court, it's just the best feeling. You see the victims and they are overwhelmed."

But now, the gears on Gene Hunt's red Audi are in reverse. Where there was an oversupply, most forces are now in the midst of a detective recruitment crisis as they struggle to plug an estimated shortfall of 5,000. One in five posts are thought to be vacant.

Freedom of Information requests by the Telegraph to the 43 police forces in England and Wales show one in 10 posts have been axed since 2010 - and in some constabularies they are down by 40 per cent.

It is one of the reasons why detection rates have collapsed, falling from 17 per cent of crimes being solved in 2015 to under eight per cent this year.

Forces have had to hand over investigations of “lower” crimes such as burglary or theft from cars to less experienced staff so their dwindling detective squads can focus on more complex murders, sex assaults and the host of new emerging threats such as online child abuse, slavery and trafficking.

So, how is it that the Rolls-Royce art of detection - whether exercising those ‘little grey cells’ or breaking down the doors to the cry of “We’re the Sweeney, Son” - has come to be in crisis? Why has the desire of beat officers to swap their uniform for the civvy suits of the detective dimmed?

Dr Moayyad Al kamali AKA the "Tripoli Bad Grass" is known to the Russian federation as a Government employee (agent) vetted by both the FBI and CIA (who politically endorse the torture and killing of Palestinians), before he worked within US territories. Allegations made against this Doctor include espionage, torture, money laundry, sexual abuse, false imprisonment, kidnapping, extortion and connections to drug cartels. The Government (Biden's only friends) refused to comment on why one of their agents was found holding down three jobs at the same time!! one as the President of St Andrews College Alumni Association in Dublin, another as the Dead Doctor in a hospital and finally found double parked next to Mr Putins London Embassy, with over 20 Million Gross hidden in various bank accounts around the world!! Hotels are somewhat synalominous places and Emmigrating radio signals are unfortunately for Doctor Kamali in his absence hour an excepted form of evidence in court trials.

Madam, - Joe Walker's claim (January 28th) that a minority of hill-walkers are responsible for the rising level of conflict over countryside access is misinformed and misleading.

Mr Walker owns land in the Glencree Valley through which a short section of the old coach road to Dublin runs. This route, mapped by Jacob Neville in 1760, and referred to repeatedly since then in a variety of publications and shown on Ordnance Survey and Coillte maps, is important because it enables recreational walkers as well as locals to walk from Curtlestown to Kilmolin, where visitors often park or catch the bus, without risking life and limb on the main Glencree-Enniskerry road. It has been in use since time immemorial.

Mr Walker has planted trees across this roadway. On nine occasions over the last year, he has, on his own admission, erected fences - some of barbed wire - to block access to this long-established route. Locals and others have removed these obstacles.

For Mr Walker to suggest, as he did in his letter, that 95 per cent of hill-walkers would support his right to behave in this fashion is nonsense. Suffice it to say that the Irish Ramblers, An Óige, the Holiday Fellowship Walking Group, Na Coisithe - in short all of the main hill-walking groups - have made applications to Wicklow County Council for the old coach road to be secured as a right-of-way in the forthcoming County Development Plan. So, significantly, have a number of Mr Walker's neighbours.

The fact that the Mountaineering Council of Ireland is still twiddling its thumbs on this matter - and all other matters of rights-of-way - merely indicates how far behind its main constituent parts this ineffective body finds itself.

For Joe Walker to brand as extremists those of us who merely seek for Ireland the same rights as walkers enjoy in the rest of Europe is a fair indication of his mind-set.

KIERAN CONWAY

MI6 sting operation against the Irish Statutory Body GSOC – The Resignation of Chairman Simon O'Brien a former British Police Officer.

ANDREW DEDMAN MI5

Paste Andrew Dedman MI5 at Yahoo or Google search engines for more info on this fascist creep, according to dark web sources he basically tampered with British Government computer systems and then exported the data to Ireland where far right wing "patsys" made good with the stolen and "faked" info to pay for their cars and houses.

Reliable net sources explain that Andrew Dedman was a former British Army officer who was assigned to work in the police for a time in specialist work but later on in his career left the police in mysterious circumstances, that till this day have never been truly explained. We know from wiki-obtained police data whilst in the British army Dedman worked in south America, and was allegedly involved in espionage work involving operations against South American communists, he was assigned the warrant number 1001 whilst in the police and the last known location for Dedman as a police officer was in an intelligence gathering unit in the City of London. International net sources found Dedman working in Turkey shortly after leaving the police by the Israel Intelligence service. Turkey as everybody knows is the gateway for heroin into Britain and Ireland. Below url is an introduction to Andrew Dedman, remove the wording from the site as jpgs add to your desktop and use magnifier application to read properly.

<https://mi5reference3028.wordpress.com/blog/>

Dublin solicitor and recognised political Author, Kieran Conway (featured above photo) was involved in a District court case in Bray town County, Wicklow, Ireland in we believe 2015, it was a political court case where right wing Journalist Albert Smith lied to convict a left wing socialist writer/net sign poster. The socialist was apparently held on British Intelligence files even before he came to Ireland to live, and had previous dealings with Dedman in the past in the UK. It is Dedman who is thought to have generated the files about the socialist that were leaked illegally to Irish sources but not officially given to the Gardaí.

During the court case in 2015 the Gardaí presented mere hearsay as evidence in the form of a speech read out in court by Albert Smith, where Smith himself attended a court hearing and talked about matters such as the CIA and threats made against him with weapons. Smith's speech convicted the socialist on weapons charges and the socialist was sent to prison. Albert Smith is a known and published far right wing fascist (his previous newspaper articles and promotional work as a sub-editor of the Irish Independent newspaper on convicted fascist and author David Irving proves this).

Articles of interest have in the past appeared on the net providing valuable evidence that explains the socialist stated in emails to an unnamed source at the time that Smith purposely lied in court by seemingly using a prepared and premeditated false speech, and that the judge accepted in court hearsay evidence contained within Smith's own concocted political lies. According to a blog spot web site on the dark web internet discussion came to the conclusion, that by accepting the mere word of Journalist Albert Smith a known far right wing liar in court without any actual witness or any evidence the judge falsely imprisoned the socialist not for an alleged weapons offence that the socialist stated he never committed anyway, but as the blog writers suggested for being found guilty by the far right of being a socialist that exposed a ring of spys operating in Ireland under orders of the British Government. This known espionage activity was exposed through socialist political write ups that the public otherwise would never have read about and was leaked out in the left wing British political press.

In short the socialist investigated what is now termed as "Gardagate" and in the process exposed a cover up by Albert Smith's newspaper the Irish Independent of Simon O'Brien being a former British police officer as chairman of GSOC and his alleged involvement of being part of an alleged MI6 sting operation to "grab" Irish state intelligence held by GSOC. Like Dedman the socialist has always maintained that it was possible the British Government transferred O'Brien to Ireland.

The court case is databased and more information can be found about Albert Smith as an alleged MI6 dogsbody on the net type Albert Smith MI6 below site is evidence that the journalist worked as a sub editor on the Irish Independent see site below:

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2006/feb/20/austria.thefarright>

<http://www.irishtimes.com/business/media-and-marketing/people-put-their-lives-on-the-line-for-the-indo-and-this-is-what-they-get-1.2891166>

Various internet allegations can be found that indicate that Albert Smith worked on Andrew Dedman's generated data bases over a period of many years and that some of the data based files (The Dedman Files) were allegedly transferred secretly by Dedman himself to amongst other the Store street Garda station (against human rights treaties) as these files were held secretly in Ireland by "black" cops.

One article indicates the area where Smith lives (Shore river County Wicklow) was data based by Dedman back in 2002 and that Dedman's own pirated and stolen supplied data (black data, many thousands of types of files passed between bent cops without authorisation) was used by the "patsys" in the Dublin/Wicklow area where Smith lives to help pay the bills. The Gardaí themselves were quite happy to allow the local "patsys" to spy on person suspected of travelling in and around the Dublin Mountains on their behalf and spy is the right usage of word hear, the "patsys" were rewarded for their loyalty in pieces of land, discounts, wavers etc obtaining state housing and buildings at cheap rates of purchase, false IDs, credit crunching etc etc.

Left wingers, taxexiles, criminals, suspected IRA members etc who have over the years either fled the UK to live in Ireland for political reasons or set themselves up in business in Ireland where all targeted and followed on behalf of the British and American Intelligence service by "patsys" and bent cops and criminals.

Both the socialist and Journalist Albert Smith were born in the U.K. and so the chances of both these individuals who were technically British, being involved in an alleged false weapons incident together in a remote part of the Republic of Ireland on the top of a mountain isn't a very likely prospect, especially as the alleged incident happened on farmers private property where the socialist had permission to travel from the local farmers (not roads or footpaths).

The unnamed socialist always maintained he was never involved in any weapons incident or that he was even present in the area when such an alleged incident occurred. Apparently in other articles found online the socialist claimed he swore in affidavits in court stating he was not present at the alleged incident. It is therefore logical to presume that circumstantially from an espionage angle there is enough online evidence and information to explain an invented incident/counter espionage tactic was used to illegally convict and punish the socialist writer for producing evidence that exposed amongst other Simon O'Brien chairman of GSOC as a potential MI6 operative and a former British police officer in the left wing press, this apparent inventory of Albert Smith should by now be setting off political firealarms amongst the International left wing.

The publications of the socialist are still found on the internet and these articles indicate very clearly that even before Smith's allegations were made through complaint process an article written by the Socialist exposed Simon O'Brien the chairman of GSOC in the British left wing press as a former British police officer, whilst on the other hand Smith's newspaper at the same time the socialist articles were published on Simon O'Brien being a former police officer, ran a cover up and didn't publish or indicate Simon O'Brien was a former British police officer.

The Irish Independent news paper that Albert Smith worked for didn't print this evidence until much later on after Simon O'Brien resigned from his job after different allegations were put to Simon O'Brien.

So ask yourselves as the readers of this article do you really believe that this socialist writer who exposed a cover up in Smith's own newspaper the Irish Independent just happens all of a sudden to appear before Smith on top of a mountain after exposing his paper running cover ups and then for no apparent reason threatens Smith with a weapon, when the socialist doesn't even know this chap? It sounds oh so bizarre and mathematically inconceivable. The court affidavits even state the socialist wasn't even in the area when the incident took place and he doesn't know Smith as a person or even has held a conversation with the man in his entire life.

<http://www.irishtimes.com/news/crime-and-law/simon-o-brien-to-quit-as-chair-of-gsoc-to-take-up-role-in-uk-1.2057839>

Simon O'Brien later left his job as chairman of GSOC after internal allegations that he was an MI6 operative used to export GSOC files back to MI5 on mass after espionage activity was suspected at GSOC headquarters. It was the socialists published articles that exposed MI5 knowledge of the IPCC and Simon O'Brien obtaining a military based security contract for Verimus security to work in screening Irish Government buildings, in a left wing political party news column that really set the rat amongst the greys.

One of the many articles produced by the socialist explained that the security company sent to Ireland by the IPCC (Verimus) was an MI5 connected company who uses staff from the same British Army regiment that killed Jean De-Menezes, whose death ironically was investigated by the IPCC themselves. The IPCC, MI5 and Simon O'Brien collectively obtained the military contract together that got Verimus the work to look for bugs in Simon O'Brien's Irish offices where he was chairman of GSOC all a bit too cosy?

It was leaked out in the Irish Independent that MI6 were involved in looking for bugs in O'Brien's office however the Independent only talked in half truths and when it came to the delivery it failed, it failed to name at the same time that Verimus scanning equipment being used in Simon O'Brien's office was being used to protect a former British police officer. If it wasn't for the press leaks in other papers and other sources the public would never have known that Verimus were operating in Ireland on behalf of MI6 and their operatives, the leak outs gave the security services in UK and America the power to confiscate internally all the GSOC records that MI5 now have because essentially their own operatives were under threat, all though Simon o Brien always stated he never felt threatened, but he wouldn't be, so essentially without the press leak outs no confiscation of records by the Americans and British would have been obtainable. The files stolen or sequestered due to security breaches about Gerry Adams Sinn Fein leader having secret meetings with drug convicted dealer Kieran Boylan would never have been officially found by MI6 and MI5, allegations that Gerry Adams secret meetings have been going on for years is no news however this article is evidence that it's a club where the spoils get divided and if you expose espionage publicly you can pay a heavy price when publicly you force secret agendas into the press.

<http://www.verimus-red.com/ourteam.html>

the socialist was followed from Ireland to Europe where he was involved in publishing Smith was part of an ongoing operation into Drugs/terrorism see article here;

<https://gerryhutchblog.wordpress.com/>

Albert Smith didn't care about who he spied upon and the Gardai themselves were always placing and mistaking people in different areas. Smith was stationed according to one internet web site and chosen by MI6 and the British Military to "plant" stories in the independent news paper he wrote an article about convicted fascist David Irving, Irving got 3 years for the books he published that were anti semitic also Smith appear on irwings home site promoting irwings banned books incidently no normal journalist would have consented to promote a fascist like Irving and as Kieran Conways book names fascists it has to be published here that Conways past comments on fascists have been published :

<https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/24305635-southside-provisional>

Kieran Conway went up against Garda Patton and sergeant Heraughty of Enniskerry Garda station when he represented the socialist in Bray court. Another Garda involved in these areas was Garda Cullen formerly Stepside now Dundrum Garda Station, he should have blown the whistle on Heraughty and Patton a pair of right wing state protected spies that work for the American and British Intelligence service. The Garda station at Enniskerry has American police force uniform patches in the window the entire Enniskerry village is a MI6/CIA state protected right wing fascist safe haven, you cant publish sites on an Enniskerry Google entry, the powers that be remove any site placed on Google that lands on Enniskerry, try it for yourselves, and yes they follow your signalex back to where you live so do it somewhere else! If you type Enniskerry Nazi at Google prompt you find a worrying amount of right wing neo fascist sites all connected to this tiny little village in the countryside of Ireland.

Special Report - Far right in Ireland: 'Dark money' and the price of democracy

Monday, June 10, 2019 - 12:00 AM

Many associate the murky world of 'dark money' with the US political system, but its influence has reached far closer to home, including European elections and Ireland's anti-abortion movement, says Joyce Fegan

America's religious right has poured at least $50m into Europe over the last 10 years, for the sake of political influence — and some of this money has reached Ireland.

In a recent and far-reaching investigation by Open-Democracy, it was found that so-called 'dark money' totalling $50m had been spent by ultra-conservative groups trying to bring European politics to the far right.

'Dark money' refers to political spending used to influence a voter, where the donor is not disclosed and the source of the money is unknown.

"American conservatives have increasingly been working with groups throughout Europe," Mary Fitzgerald, editor-in-chief of openDemocracy told the Irish Examiner.

"Our work has found substantial evidence of unaccountable 'dark money' flowing across the Atlantic."

While far-right movements vary from country to country, commonalities include being strongly opposed to migration, a call for greater national sovereignty, and a pushback against a range of rights, from women's reproductive control to LGBTQI rights.

The overarching goal of the recent push is to get more seats in the European Parliament, so as to exert far-right ideological and policy control.

When it comes to ultra-conservative groups exerting influence over Ireland, there are several links.

Madrid-based campaign group CitizenGo, which is supported by American and Russian ultra-conservatives, has worked across Europe to drive voters towards far-right parties in the recent European Parliament elections. CitizenGo was involved in campaigning against the repeal of the referendum on the Eighth Amendment in Ireland last year.

CitizenGo joined the Save the 8th campaign in calling on Ireland and people with friends in Ireland to "say no to abortion".

Known for their online petitions against same-sex marriage and sex education, and for driving buses across cities with slogans against "feminazis", CitizenGo ran a large online petition to retain the Eighth Amendment last year.

CitizenGo amassed 55,561 signatures in an attempt to influence Irish voters' decision in the referendum. They also ran a social media campaign with three-minute long videos calling for a No vote.

In openDemocracy's recent investigation into 'dark money' and its role in European politics, new evidence was found of "extraordinary co-ordination" between this group and far-right parties across Europe — from Spain to Italy, Germany, and Hungary.

While no link between CitizenGo and an Irish political party has been found, it supported Spain's far-right party Vox in the country's recent elections, with Vox capturing 10% of the vote. Making its political breakthrough, the party won 24 seats out of the 350-seat Spanish congress.

Returning to Ireland, CitizenGo is still involved here even after the repealing of the Eighth Amendment.

Its latest Irish-focused online petition relates to doctors having "conscientious objection" to providing abortion services care here.

The CitizenGo 'Protect the Conscience of Medical Professionals' petition has gathered almost 3,000 signatures. Part of the petition is also seeking the protection of "Catholic hospitals" from shutting down or "forcing them to lose their religious character".

The petition describes the Government's approach to the provision of termination of pregnancy services as "authoritarian".

CitizenGo states that it is "wholly financed through small online donations made by thousands of citizens throughout the world". It also says its 10m members use these online petitions "to defend and promote life, family, and liberty".

On its board is former Italian deputy prime minister Luca Volontè, who was named in an internal inquiry by the Council of Europe as being suspected of "activities of a corruptive nature".

Volontè was already investigated by Italian police in relation to €2.39m (£2m) he is accused of taking in bribes from Azerbaijan. Volontè denies all charges and has been acquitted on a separate count of money laundering. Among other Some ultra-conservative groups who have spent $50m in Europe over the past decade some have offices in Ireland.

Focus on the Family, which promotes the "right to counselling for unwanted same-sex attractions" — otherwise known as conversion therapy — has an associate office in Ireland.

The Irish branch offers information on family, parenting, and pro-life issues through a series of podcasts, DVDs, and blog posts.

"Like most Irish people, we are passionate about the family," says the website.

"We are a charitable organisation, built on Christian principles, which supports, encourages, and strengthens the family through education and resources."

It asks people to support the organisation's work through a standing order of €25 per month. It also advises that donations of €250 or over, in a year, are eligible for tax relief.

Another US-based Catholic organisation with offices here is Human Life International (HLI). Similarly to CitizenGo, it was involved in the 'Save the 8th' campaign in Ireland last year. Its Irish office has an address in Knock, Co Mayo, and HLI Ireland is registered with the charity regulator.

Last month, it hosted a "national day of reparation" at six churches around Ireland for how 66.4% of the electorate voted to repeal the Eighth Amendment last year to legalise abortion here.

"In a spirit of atonement and repentance for the decision made by the public in the 2018 referendum and for all the ways that Ireland has turned away from God, we are hosting an afternoon of prayer in six locations around Ireland," reads a statement about the event.

Based in a rural town in the state of Virginia, HLI describes itself as "the largest international pro-life organization in the world".

In a previous investigation by The Guardian newspaper it showed that HLI "has for years directed a steady flow of dollars to Sí a la Vida, the Salvadoran organisation principally responsible for the country's abortion ban".

El Salvador has one of the strictest abortion bans in the world. In 2017, a 19-year-old who became pregnant after she was raped was sentenced to 30 years in jail after she suffered a stillbirth.

Another ultra-conservative Catholic network — Tradition, Family, Property (TFP) — whose US branch spent at least $100,000 in Europe since 2010 according to openDemocracy, and who run “chivalry camps”, also has a presence in Ireland.

Here in Ireland, it goes by the name of the Irish Society for Christian Civilisation — TFP.

It runs “rosary rallies” and summer camps here, for boys and their fathers, where stories of Catholic heroes are told, presenting “true role models” for the participants to follow.

The organisation, which is also registered with the Irish charity regulator, said its aim “is to resist, in the realm of ideas, the atheistic, liberal, and socialist trends of our times and proudly affirm the positive values of Christian civilisation, through the dissemination of religious articles and Catholic literature, especially of the message of Fatima”.

While no link has been found connecting ultraconservative groups to Irish political parties, ties have been shown with Ireland, and these groups are still a cause for concern at a European political level.

Commenting on OpenDemocracy’s recent findings, connecting ‘dark money’ to European politics, as has happened in US politics, former Wisconsin Democratic senator Russ Feingold warned of a “downward spiral effect on democracy”.

“There is a great irony in this,” he said. “[Far-right parties] are trying to appeal to ultra-nationalist sentiments but they are using tactics that are completely contrary to the sovereignty of those countries.

“These are international actors, oligarchs and others who are trying to control the political processes of these countries. Even if you are a nationalist, one would think you would be a little bit concerned about that.”

We must be on our guard against heavily financed, insidious populists

By Mary Fitzgerald

EUROPEAN elections, historically, don't set the political temperature soaring.

At the last election, in 2014, the average turnout was 42%. Ireland was slightly higher. Half of the electorate voted here. In the UK, just 35% did.

This time, there was a record, 20-year high turnout, of 50%, across Europe. Far-right parties campaigning on anti-EU platforms gained ground, but not to the extent that some had predicted.

In Britain, Nigel Farage's Brexit Party — which campaigned on a platform of leaving the EU without a deal — topped the polls, as did Marine Le Pen in France.

Italy's Lega party, led by Matteo Salvini, claimed 32% of the vote in early projections, compared with 6% five years ago.

These far-right movements often vary widely from country to country. But they have key themes in common — they are stridently opposed to migration and call for greater national sovereignty.

The similarities do not end there. As well as being wary of outsiders, many of these parties are often opposed to women's and LGBTQI rights. That backlash against the gains of recent years is increasingly being funded by powerful international backers.

A recent investigation by Open-Democracy found that America's religious right spent $50m on 'dark money' campaigns and advocacy in Europe over the past decade.

To put this into context, the total spend on the 2014 European elections by all of Ireland's political parties, combined, was just $3m.

A number of these US Christian groups were heavily involved in the campaign against repealing the Eighth Amendment last year.

Far-right leaders frequently attack 'gender ideology' and 'gender theory': a not-so-coded pushback against a range of rights that have been recognised across the continent during the past two decades.

These attacks come particularly from Mr Salvini and Victor Orban, Hungary's prime minister, who have aligned with religious conservatives globally, but also from the far-right Vox party in Spain, which has vowed to roll back laws on domestic abuse, and from politicians from Poland's Law and Justice Party, who have pushed limits on contraception and abortion.

Implicit, and often explicit, in these moves are the premises that women, LGBTQI, people of colour, and migrants should not be afforded equal protections under the law.

It's a rhetoric that seeks to shift power away from individuals who have universal rights, and onto powerful institutions — churches, patriarchal family structures, and 'strong leaders'.

Fine Gael MEP Mairead McGuinness recently introduced proposals to give religious groups greater access to the decision-making process in Brussels. She insisted the proposed changes would apply to "all stakeholders" and would also give secular groups more power, but in Brussels, as elsewhere, it's often the religious lobby that is the most organised, and the most well-funded.

Many religious campaigners and their far-right allies have appropriated European 'secular' language to make their case: Of science or bioethics to advocate against 'gay propaganda' in schools; of 'freedom of speech' to refuse business to same-sex couples; of 'men's rights' to roll back on domestic abuse protections.

There has been much talk of potential Russian interference in the European elections — and there's evidence that the Kremlin has been involved in attempts to manipulate our politics, especially online.

But there's far less attention paid to the role of the American right in our politics. The support isn't just financial: It's often logistical, and practical.

American conservatives have increasingly been working with groups throughout Europe. Our work has found substantial evidence of unaccountable "dark money" flowing across the Atlantic.

Already, dark money has corroded the US political system, turning democratic contests into competitions between plutocrats who can spend millions to ensure their candidate's success.

Former US Democratic senator Russ Feingold, who worked alongside Republican senator John McCain for reform of electoral finance in the US, has warned that "Europe has an opportunity to get ahead of this and not make the same mistakes that were made here in the United States." Much of the recent focus has been about how many seats are gained by the far right.

But we need to pay far more attention to how the far-right is shifting the narrative about who we are as human beings, and to all the global networks pushing for this behind the scenes.

'People put their lives on the line for the Indo and this is what they get'

Changes to the pension scheme at INM are a breach of trust, say former staff

"When I left, the projection for my pension was about €24,000 a year. I would have been okay. After the 2013 deal, I was told I was going to get around €12,000 or €13,000 a year, although the last statement I looked at it was around €11,000.

"I've one year to go and as things look from my reading, I'll be lucky to get €9,000.

"The nearest thing to a sacred trust between an employer and an employee is making provision for old age. The Indo is breaking that sacred trust."

Don Lavery (63): former reporter who specialised in crime, security and military matters for the Irish Independent; deferred pensioner took early retirement in 2013 after 25 years.

"When I took redundancy, I expected a pension of €24,000 when I turned 66. That figure went down to €12,500 because of poor performance by the fund during the years of recession. With the proposed change now, I'll will be lucky to get €8,000.

"There were people at INM who reported the news in the 1980s and 1990s who put their lives on the line for the Indo. I can think of three occasions when I had a gun put to my head . . . A well-known gangland figure, once told me 'I'm going to find out where you live and I'm going to kill you and I'm going to kill your family'.

"The way it all unfolded with the way most clerical staff were forced out in 2004, you were looking to the pension scheme, hoping, that it would bring financial security in retirement. We're really in a situation now that you are unclear what the financial circumstances will be at 67."

He works now for a community project for less than the average industrial wage and with no pension. His projected pension in 2013 was €24,000 but was reduced to €14,400. If the proposed change is made, he will be lucky to get €10,000 a year.

"I'm not in a position to put money by to buy [an extra] pension. What is it going to be like at 67. I could be in pension poverty."

Jim Aughny (63): former business reporter with Irish Independent, specialising in personal finance; became redundant in 2007 after 28 years; deferred pensioner.

"My pension should be close to €28,000 but with the agreement of 2013, I lost about 40 per cent. What angers us all, members and deferred members, in all unions, is that was all agreed in 2013 and now, three years later, they're going to welch on that agreement."

"The changes proposed now will turn my pre-2013 pension into about €11,000, or a bit over €200 a week."

"They should adhere to the 2013 agreement because it was signed in good faith. . . By closing the scheme and getting it off the books, they will be €24 million better off and can start paying dividends to shareholders. That's the purpose of this whole thing."

"My earning ability at 63 to make up for this isn't good."

Rush to vilify GSOC over bugging fears augurs badly

Opinion: The Taoiseach has appeared to have no understanding that the commission does not answer to the Government

Sat, Feb 15, 2014, 00:01

Conor Brady

45

The most disturbing aspect of what happened after the Sunday Times claimed that the offices of the Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission (GSOC) had been bugged, was the alacrity with which senior Government figures sought to consign the story to the rubbish bin.

Within hours, a well-sourced report in a respected newspaper was being turned on its head by the Taoiseach and Minister for Justice.

The Taoiseach's reaction was particularly disquieting and surely indicative. One might have expected an expression of concern at an allegation that at least potentially strikes at the heart of the State's regulatory institutions.

Instead we had a castigation of GSOC for not reporting to the Minister for Justice, as, he claimed (erroneously) they had a duty to do under section 80 of the Garda Síochána Act.

Proprietorial

It is almost irrelevant at this time that the Taoiseach misunderstood or misquoted the law in relation to the Garda supervisory body. It was the proprietorial, almost dictatorial tone in which he delivered himself that told much.

GSOC had to "level with the Minister" and to account for its shortcomings. It had failed in its legal duty. The Taoiseach seemed to have no understanding that GSOC is not answerable to Government (in the same way as the Garda Commissioner) but to the Houses of the Oireachtas.

Chairman of GSOC, former London Metropolitan Police officer Simon O'Brien, did little to reinforce the independence of his organisation by expressing "regret" to the Minister (where he had no need to do so) and emphasising the "kindness" of the Garda commissioner in having a pot of coffee with him later in the week.

Honesty

Let us put aside for a moment the arcane arguments about "anomalies", "potential threats" and "vulnerabilities". GSOC commissioner Kieran Fitzgerald spoke with clarity and shining honesty when he told the Oireachtas committee that the likelihood of a benign interpretation of the sweep by UK consultants Verrimus was "close to zero."

There can be little doubt that somebody bugged, or tried to bug, key offices of GSOC. And they knew their stuff. They went for the fourth floor, where commissioners and senior staff meet for discussion and planning. Rank-and- file GSOC staff have no access to that fourth floor.

So who are the suspects?

Ordinary criminals? Subversives? Media? Foreign intelligence services – MI6 or CIA? A rogue element within GSOC itself? Gardai who themselves (or their colleagues) may be under investigation by GSOC?

It is unlikely that ordinary criminals or subversives would have either the interest or the capacity to bug GSOC. From its establishment, GSOC has had in place relatively sophisticated counter-surveillance measures (on the advice of consultants that included former senior gardai).

Thus, members of An Garda Síochána must, at the very least, be potential suspects in any investigation that begins on the premise that an attempt has been made to penetrate GSOC security.

Commissioner Martin Callinan has stated that no Garda surveillance, authorised or otherwise, was in place. With the greatest respect, it is doubtful if the commissioner knows everything that goes on in his force of more than 13,000 officers, as not a few of his predecessors in office found out to their cost over the years.

But it is the rush by Kenny and Shatter to rubbish GSOC's fears of having been bugged that is so disturbing. And it is consistent with a pattern since the establishment of the watchdog in 2005, to limit its capacities, and of apparent efforts to slow the pace and the effectiveness of its operations. This has been particularly evident since the GSOC inquiries into the alleged collusion between some gardai and drugs importer Kieran Boylan.

Roll back

What we are witnessing here is an intuitive effort by the State – by the political establishment – to roll back the declared objective of the ombudsman sections of the 2005 Garda

Síochána Act, to put in place an effective system of independent oversight, on behalf of the Oireachtas and the people, of the work of the national police force.

The guards have not liked it from the beginning. That is hardly surprising after a 200-year tradition in which a centralised police force answered only to government.

So it is up to government to make it clear to the police that accountability means what it says, that when GSOC asks for information it is entitled to get it swiftly and fully and that there must be no holding back or stonewalling. I am not aware that any such message has been delivered by the Government to the management of the Garda Síochána.

Heavy Gang

Yes, there is a problem within GSOC in that someone leaked the story to the Sunday Times. Yet I cannot help but recall the Heavy Gang scandals and finger prints scandal of the 1970s, when Garda sources revealed systemic abuses that were reported in The Irish Times.

Would anyone now seriously argue that the greater good – including the good of honest, decent members of An Garda Síochána – was not best served by revealing these abuses?

The reality is that the 2005 Act is deeply flawed and must be revisited. It has created lacunae and it entrenches operational shortcomings that are not in the interests of the oversight body, the Garda Síochána or the public for whom they work. They only serve the interests of politicians who can navigate to their advantage within the ambiguities that have been created.

Writing last week, I noted that Alan Shatter had agreed to allow access by Gsoc to the Garda Pulse system in the investigation into the penalty-points controversy.

The Minister's media department has pointed out that he told the Dáil that where Pulse information is "of central relevance" to any other Gsoc investigation, it will also have direct access to the system.

One hopes that it will be left to Gsoc itself to determine what is of "central relevance" and not anybody else.

Spy story with many twists but no neat ending

GSOC's Simon O'Brien

Maeve Sheehan

June 14 2014 10:49 PM

STROLLING around busy, seedy Capel Street or Abbey Street, most people wouldn't turn a hair at a white van with blacked-out windows parked on the street, or a guy sitting in a coffee shop with a lap top, or two men walking in circles around the block.

But if you're working for the Garda watchdog on a highly sensitive investigation into allegations that police allowed criminal touts to smuggle drugs in exchange for information, the cops are going nuts, the mobile phones are acting up and you've called in the spy catchers, you can see how these apparently innocuous encounters might take on a more sinister hue.

The Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission (GSOC) was advised that these encounters were "possible indicators" of spies in their midst.

In his long-awaited report on the alleged Garda bugging scandal, published last week, the retired High Court judge John Cooke answered some questions but raised others.

He found no evidence of GSOC covert surveillance, least of all by gardai. He couldn't say with certainty that covert surveillance hadn't happened either.

In what he called the "febrile atmosphere of covert surveillance and counter-surveillance", it was extremely difficult to categorically prove.

However, one issue Judge Cooke did nail with certainty is the distrust at the heart of the affair. If the relationship between gardai and the watchdog wasn't so toxic in the first place, he suggested, GSOC might not have been so quick to set up a public interest investigation on suspicion that gardai were spying on them.

Like a good spy story, Judge Cooke's report reveals many twists but no neat ending.

It all started with the mobile phones. Specifically, the phones that two GSOC investigators used to call Garda crime and security branch about very sensitive investigations, one of which was coming to a conclusion in late 2012 and the first half of 2013 after four years and much recrimination.

Although not identified in the Cooke report, it involved Kieran Boylan, a drug trafficker who had charges dropped after it was disclosed that he was a Garda informant. GSOC had launched a public interest investigation in 2008.

As it wound up, the atmosphere in the office was tense and anxious, Judge Cooke was told. There were media leaks and rows with gardai who were refusing to give them information: "We'll tell you what you can get and when you can get it," one garda told GSOC.

Against this backdrop, two GSOC investigators noticed the battery power mysteriously draining from their phones. They usually charged them overnight and they were good for 24 hours. Now they ran flat in two hours.

The GSOC officers suspected they were being bugged. As Judge Cooke noted, one of the side-effects of having an "ambient listening" device trained on your mobile phone is a rapid depletion of the battery.

In July, Simon O'Brien, a retired London police commander and GSOC's relatively new chairman, met the Garda Commissioner, Martin Callinan. During the meeting, Callinan used a phrase along the lines of "running informants off the books". According to Judge Cooke, this "surprised" the GSOC camp. Just a few days earlier, GSOC had discussed using this very phrase in relation to one of its investigations, but had decided not to.

Judge Cooke suggested that police in any English-speaking country would be familiar with the phrase "running informants off the books". But Callinan's use of it apparently still fuelled suspicion. Embarrassingly for GSOC, his remarks were wrongly cited in an internal report as the reason it launched the sweep of its offices.

Enter Verrimus, a London security firm staffed by retired British army officers; it conducted a preliminary sweep over five days last September.

It detected two threats. The inactive wireless device in GSOC's boardroom, which no one had the password to, was connecting itself to the wifi network in a local coffee shop. A conference call line in the chairman's office responded positively to a late-night intercept test by ringing.

Its report used language like "Red Flag Warnings", "multiple threat detected", "guaranteed threat" and "hostile attack", which may have "unduly alarmed" the three GSOC commissioners, according to Judge Cooke.

He suggested that it was "unfortunate" that they didn't get a second opinion before launching a public interest investigation, under Section 102(4) of the Act, on suspicion that gardai may be involved.

Verrimus returned to conduct more cover tests over an October weekend when the offices were empty.

Saturday produced nothing. Sunday was action-packed.

After the coffee shop downstairs with its free wifi opened, the wireless device in the boardroom became active. It seemed to be transferring data. One Verrimus operative told Judge Cooke: "I was told that the display that I was watching was a visualisation of data moving in and out of GSOC... and data was coming into GSOC via the same device."

His colleague checked out the coffee shop for users of mobiles or computers. He saw "an unknown male enter carrying a nylon sports bag" which appeared to contain a heavy, large "box-shaped item".

As they worked on the communications console in the boardroom they noticed people "making inordinate attempts to watch what we were doing from the street."

Meanwhile a GSOC officer noticed a white van parked in the street with a direct line of view straight into the GSOC board room. He went to investigate, and noted that the windows were blacked out. He walked around the block and two men walked by him twice. The third time, they saw him, turned and walked away.

At the same time, the Verrimus men discovered another anomaly when one of its iPhones identified a UK mobile phone network in the area. Verrimus later concluded it was a "fake" network created by an IMSI catcher – a surveillance device that can intercept and track mobiles.

There was more "intrigue" at Dublin Airport as the two Verrimus operatives waited for a flight to the UK. They had passed through security and taken a seat in the departures lounge when a man approached, stood in front of them and took a camera from his shoulder bag.

The Verrimus men turned away, but he snapped them as they turned back.

They had been "burned" – "trade craft" used by the "opposition" to let them know that their cover was blown.

Verrimus operatives were convinced some sort of surveillance had occurred. They returned in November, setting up an elaborately faked meeting designed to flush out the supposed "spies". It did not succeed.

Afterwards, Simon O'Brien wrote in his log: "This investigation is now closed. I need to think about reporting. This will be difficult, we have found nothing."

GSOC didn't tell Minister for Justice Alan Shatter about the public interest inquiry, as Judge Cooke said he was mandatorily obliged to do.

Instead, he put the closing report in his safe.

There it would have stayed until its contents mysteriously winged their way to the front-page scoop in the Sunday Times in February, which in turn prompted a Commission of Inquiry.

Judge Cooke criticised the Sunday Times for stating as fact that GSOC had been bugged, as neither he nor Verrimus had found hard evidence of it.

The wireless device could have been activated during repairs using the public factory setting password, and he was not convinced that it was transferring data.

The "fake" UK phone network was highly likely to have been a UK network provider that was doing tests in the area for a new 4G installation.

But the "ring back" on the conference call phone line was more difficult to explain, and he found it impossible to rule out covert surveillance.

As for the physical surveillance, Judge Cooke had suspicions of his own. He noted that while testing GSOC's offices in September, a Verrimus consultant took the opportunity to try and interest the Garda security division in training courses and spy ware.

"On the face of it, it would hardly be surprising if the Security Branch knowing that UK counter-surveillance experts were in Dublin with very sophisticated equipment had an interest in the identities of their other potential clients."

The intrigue does not end there. After the inquiry was announced, the lead Verrimus consultant got a phone call from a retired Irish army officer working in surveillance, anxious to pass on concerns from gardai and army.

He said: "Well, you know, one of the things that may come out of this, when you speak with the Judge ... Is to impress upon him that that particular aspect of things that actually that you would like the gardai would actually get a copy of everything, right."

In a second call, he said the "boys in green" were trying to "get a man in" on the inquiry who would "know what he was on about".

Afterwards, an ex-army intelligence officer of 20 years' experience wrote a letter to the Taoiseach offering his services to the Cooke inquiry. Judge Cooke passed.

There is even an intriguing postscript. GSOC officers found that, since all the brouhaha about bugging, the battery life of their mobile phones has mysteriously returned to normal.

GSOC: Simon O'Brien resigns as chairman of Irish police watchdog

12 7 January 2018

f t t v s s

Simon O'Brien's tenure as chair of the Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission was marked by a high-profile controversy over unproven claims its Dublin headquarters had been bugged.

The Irish police watchdog, the Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission (GSOC), has confirmed that its chairman Simon O'Brien is to step down from his post.

It said Mr O'Brien is leaving to take up a role as chief executive of the UK's Pensions Ombudsman Service.

His resignation takes effect on 30 January.

Mr O'Brien led GSOC for three years and during his tenure the commission was the focus of a high-profile controversy over claims the office had been bugged.

The allegations were not proved, following a judge-led investigation.

In his resignation statement, Mr O'Brien said: "I have been in Ireland for five years in two posts. This is a significant opportunity and I am looking forward to the new challenges."

"The new post will bring me back home to be with my wife and young family in London."

GSOC was established by the Irish government in 2007 to provide independent oversight of policing in Ireland.

Its main role is to investigate complaints about police officers' conduct.

'Electronic surveillance'

The bugging claims first emerged in the Sunday Times in February 2013, when the paper reported that a hi-tech surveillance operation had been uncovered at GSOC's Dublin headquarters some months earlier.

GSOC had called in a British security consultancy in 2012 to check its offices for bugs, and the firm found "three electronic anomalies" that could not be explained.

The firm's findings suggested evidence of electronic surveillance in a meeting room and a compromised Wi-Fi system.

The newspaper report caused widespread controversy, with concerns raised over who would have reason to spy on the body that held Irish police officers to account.

GSOC had not informed either the police or the justice minister about the findings of the security operation, and the minister publicly criticised Mr O'Brien for failing to do so.

The government appointed a high court judge to investigate the matter, and in June 2014, Judge John Cooke concluded that the available evidence did not support allegations that GSOC's offices had been bugged.

He also said it was even more unlikely that members of the police would be involved in unlawful surveillance.

The British security firm, Verintus, said it stood over its findings that it had identified "credible threats" during the surveillance sweep.

GSOC held its own investigation in a bid to find out how the confidential findings of the surveillance sweep had been leaked to the Sunday Times.

The barrister appointed to carry out the investigation was unable to identify the source of the leak.

When the barrister's report was published last September, Mr O'Brien said he had no intention of resigning as a result of the issue.

He said his office had learned lessons from the case and wanted to move on from it.

Spies and journalists: the impossible relationship

Contributing Authors

RISJ Admin

Contributing Author

15 Mar 2016

By Anne Moilanen

The secret services of the most western countries have significantly grown in the recent decades, and journalists – and the citizens of these countries – face serious difficulties in finding out what they are doing. This was the core argument of the long-standing Financial Times journalist John Lloyd, who is also a Senior Research Fellow at the Reuters Institute. For the last six to twelve months, John Lloyd has been working on a book about the subject, in which he focuses on the growth of the secret services in France, the UK and the USA. According to Lloyd, these three countries have traditionally had powerful secret services. "France was the first country to form a spy centre. In the US, nearly a million people work with confidential documents. There are about 70 offices all over the country, which belong to the secret services. Also in the UK they have been large", Lloyd said. The Charlie Hebdo tragedy in 2015 has increased the investment in the French secret services. The budgets of the secret services are nowadays more public, Lloyd pointed out, at least in terms of the known total sum of tax money spent on them. But what the secret services are doing exactly, stays secret. "It is this impossible relationship between spies and journalists, that the nature of the secret services is secret. The secret services are a problem to journalists and will remain so. In democratic countries, the openness ends more or less at the door – if you know where the door is – of a secret service." In his talk, Lloyd concentrated on two examples of individuals who have brought classified information into the public domain. Wikileaks, the digital information leak platform founded by Julian Assange, was exposing some severe wrongdoings by several countries, including the US, in the first decade of the 2000s. The other individual who has become globally famous by leaking confidential information in 2013 is Edward Snowden. "The basic argument behind everything is, that the UK and US have bulks of data about their own citizens. They have secrets, which they want to hide from the audience. Most journalists agree on this, that there is some information which needs to be hidden. But where are the limits?" Lloyd asked. Lloyd stated that journalists should be able to examine even retrospectively, what the national secret services have done. In the US, journalists' interest in the secret services such as the CIA grew after the Iraq War. "The journalists' experience was that they were misled about the reasons for the war. They believed too much what the state was telling them, and now they feel professional shame. US journalists nowadays pay more attention than before to the CIA, and for example the torture claims", said Lloyd. According to Lloyd, in France the journalists don't trust the secret service. In the UK, the existence of the secret service MI6 has been widely known, but the issue has been surrounded by silence. "In the UK, you just would not speak about it. Never. The budgets of the secret service were secret. If you worked for the MI6, it had to be hidden." What can be done about improving the secret services public image? The answer is to increase openness, suggested Lloyd. He pointed out that the secret services in the US and in the UK have already changed much: "The openness and transparency have increased, especially when it comes to their budgets. Also good public relations, PR, is important to the secret services. They should do more to keep improving their relationship with the press." Also, John Lloyd sees that the secret services should be monitored. There should be some kind of surveillance authored civil servant or "ombudsman", as he proposed, who would supervise the secret service and report the findings regularly, for example once a year. "The most important question is: how can we maintain trust? The trust between the states and their citizens, and the trust between the secret services and journalists," he asked.

John Lloyd, Senior Research Fellow at the Reuters Institute for the Study of Journalism spoke at the Business and Practice of Journalism seminar at Green Templeton College on Wednesday 9 March 2016.

Allegations linking Clinton Foundation & CIA corruption in New Zealand makes CIA whistleblower ‘a man without a country’

March 1, 2018

It's not nice to mess around with the Clintons... or the CIA – ask Harmon Wilfred.

Wilfred, a CIA whistle blower, claims to be in possession of evidence and testimony against Bill and Hillary Clinton that could have significant influence on New Zealand foreign policy. Wilfred says the setting up of the Clinton Foundation occurred at the same time a CIA cartel opened a multi-billion dollar stream of covert funding.

Wilfred has been living in New Zealand since 2001. His wife Carolyn Dare Wilfred was with him.

Wilfred is literally 'stateless,' without travel documents, and unable to leave NZ since his request for political asylum was rejected in 2006.

In 2011, following a summit between NZ Prime Minister John Key and US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, Harmon was issued an unenforceable deportation order.

In September 2015, Carolyn Wilfred, with full prior-knowledge of Immigration New Zealand (INZ), left NZ to visit her daughter in Canada.

Without advance warning, and immediately upon her departure, INZ issued an all-ports ban on her reentry, even disallowing her to visit her husband; in-effect permanently separating the couple who are in their sixties, and married for 20 years.

They have been forcibly parted now for 2 years, 5 months and counting.

He also founded Communicorp Group which he owns outright to manage a portfolio of media and broadcasting-related companies in Ireland and eight other European countries. These include 98FM, Newstalk, Today FM, Highland Radio, Spin 1038 and Spin South West. He has a €600m stake (around 22%) in INM which owns the Evening Herald, Irish Independent, Sunday Independent, Sunday World and the Irish Daily Star, as well as 14 regional titles, two free newspapers, and a magazine.

He founded Digicel in 2001 when the company launched a GSM cellular phone service in the Caribbean. Digicel has extended its operations to 32 markets with over 11 million subscribers in the Caribbean, Central America and Pacific regions. In the year to March 2011, revenues at Digicel were up 27% to $2.23bn. In 2010 O'Brien netted $693 million from the sale of his Digicel Pacific Limited (DPL) business to the Digicel group.

In 2005, O'Brien became Deputy Governor of the revered Bank of Ireland. Simultaneously, he moved his residence from Portugal to Malta, for tax avoidance reasons. He resigned from the position of Deputy Governor Bank of Ireland, and also as a member of the Bank's 'court', in 2006. O'Brien also resigned from the Norkom Group and from the UCD Smurfit School of Business. O'Brien is a member of the Bilderberg group.

O'Brien part-funded the wages of Irish soccer manager, Giovanni Trapattoni. He is Chairman of the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Judging Panel, having previously been a recipient of the award. In 2010, he was named Goodwill Ambassador for the city of Port-au-Prince in recognition of his efforts to rebuild Haiti and attract foreign direct investment. The Guardian recently ran a piece headlined "How an Irish telecoms tycoon became earthquake-devastated Haiti's only hope of salvation", which detailed how Port au Prince's iconic Iron Market will shortly reopen "all down to Denis O'Brien".

He is the Chairman and Co-Founder of Frontline, the International Foundation for the Protection of Human Rights Defenders which "works to ensure that the standards set out in the UN Declaration on Human Rights Defenders, adopted in 1998, are known, respected and adhered to worldwide".

In 2000, Denis O'Brien established The Iris O'Brien Foundation, named after his mother, to identify and assist projects in Ireland and internationally which aim to alleviate disadvantaged communities. The foundation has broad aims, including promoting human rights, helping people affected by disasters, helping people with a mental or physical handicap, advancing education and supporting the arts. The foundation has spent nearly €15.4m on charitable works.

O'Brien has links with Unicef, the Special Olympics, and Camara, which sends computers to developing countries. He has also funded multicultural awards and awards run by Social Entrepreneurs Ireland. He serves on the US Board of Concern Worldwide. He once donated £250,000 he had been awarded in libel damages to Amnesty International for which he sometimes hosts (not always uncontroversial) lunches. He was Chairman of the 2003 Special Olympics World Summer Games when the games were held in Ireland. In 2011, he provided money for the Presidential campaign of Mary Davis who had been CEO of the Special Olympics at that time.

He has an honorary doctorate from UCD and is a mate of former US President, Bill Clinton. Indeed, he flew him to the recent Dublin Castle beano in his jet, and later paid the tab for a late-nighter in the Unicorn restaurant with Clinton, the strangely ever-present Séamus Heaney and 22 others. If you mention your charitable cause to Denis O'Brien he is likely to give you his personal phone number. In short he is a dynamic and successful businessman and a hero to charities. Presumably on the back of this, he was a high-profile guest at events for Queen Elizabeth II, with whom he was oft-photographed earlier this year and at the two Irish Global Economic Forum conferences, whose invitees were suggested by the Department of Foreign Affairs (though this did not stop some protestations from Éamon Gilmore's Labour Party), held in the last year or so.

Last March, a judicial tribunal found that a former minister for communications, Michael Lowry, "secured the winning" of the 1995 mobile phone licence competition for Denis O'Brien's Esat Digifone. The tribunal also found that O'Brien made two payments to Lowry, in 1996 and 1999, totalling approximately £500,000, and supported a loan of Stg£420,000 given to Lowry in 1999. In his 2,348-page report, Mr Justice Michael Moriarty found that the payments from O'Brien were "demonstrably referable to the acts and conduct of Mr Lowry" during the licence process, acts which benefited Esat Digifone. In effect O'Brien was trading in influence or 'legal corruption'.

His former mate, Barry Maloney, absented himself from the recent Irish Global Economic Forum, writing to the Taoiseach and Tánaiste informing them that he could not attend the event because Mr O'Brien would be a participant, despite the criticisms of him made in the final report from the Moriarty Tribunal. Maloney had given evidence to the tribunal that in 1996 he had a discussion while jogging with O'Brien concerning payments that Maloney, as chief executive of Esat Digifone, was obliged to sanction. O'Brien remarked that he himself had to make two payments of £100,000, one of which was to then Fine Gael minister, now Independent TD, Michael Lowry. This, he said, was a joke.

What was not a joke, however, was the termination of Sam Smyth's contract with O'Brien-owned Today FM. Smyth was the best-informed commentator on the Moriarty Tribunal and drew legal proceedings from both Lowry and O'Brien for his troubles.

The point, for these purposes, about Denis O'Brien is that, if you believe that not paying taxes and not paying money to Ministers to get favourable decisions on multi-billion-Euro deals, is unethical, then much of his money is not morally his. It is too easy to garner plaudits for philanthropy on the back of donations of cash, some of which is not ethically yours to give. This country has been brought to its knees by a treasonous golden business circle of which O'Brien is a member. But try telling that to the people who send out invitations on behalf of Enda Kenny, the Taoiseach.

Inside CID: The real reasons nobody wants to be a detective any more

Despite TV portrayals such as Morse, Luther and Life on Mars, most forces are suffering a detective recruitment crisis

- Charles Hymas, Home Affairs Editor
- Ashley Kirk, Senior Data Journalist

To get into CID it used to be that you had to climb over dead bodies because it was the job everyone wanted," says detective Karen Stephens.

It is not - and never has been - a job for those who want to know when they will clock off, says Dave Tucker, a trained detective and crime lead at the College of Policing.

"If you are on a shift as a PC, when you finish you can go home whereas if you are a detective, you are required to stay on duty to complete your investigation. It makes your private life more difficult to manage because you don't know when you are going to get home," he says.

But at the same time there has been an increase in the number of "vulnerable" victims that detectives have to support in crime investigations, from domestic abuse to child sexual abuse, modern slavery and historic sexual offences.

"There's less armed robberies and more focus on safeguarding and the safety of people. If you get decisions wrong, the consequences can be more significant," says Mr Tucker.

With more high-profile cases to handle, detectives are also in the public spotlight where mistakes are picked apart. Take the latest controversy over the Operation Midland inquiry into the VIP child sex ring - or the Ted Heath inquiry. Go further back and there is Baby P or Victoria Climbié.

"We are spinning so many plates that we can't do 100 per cent on every job," warns Detective Karen Stephens Credit: Eddie Mulholland

As well as the court of public opinion, there are also serious case reviews, homicide reviews and the Independent Office for Police Conduct, which investigates complaints.

"There is a sense on the part of some investigators that the complaints procedure is unfair and loaded against cops," says Mr Tucker. "From the inside it can feel like the dice are loaded against you."

Commander Karen Baxter, head of economic crime at the City of London Police, led some of the biggest terror and murder investigations in Northern Ireland in a 26-year career in the province.

"It wasn't a popular job to be a senior investigating officer of homicide, or terrorism because lots of people saw it as too risky. They can be very public roles and you can be subject to inquiries, to massive media interest," she says.

"There are a lot of people who don't want the risk. They don't want the publicity. They don't want what can be difficult circumstances placed upon them and their family. So there's a lot of people who simply do not want that intrusion on their lives."

Ms Stephens, however, has no regrets. She feels her detective roles were "probably my most rewarding jobs."

She says: "I still get excited when teams come up and say: 'We have a job, we're going to kick someone's door in next Thursday at six o'clock, or we've arrested this person, seized this amount or we've put a bad person in front of the courts.'

"I still love that but if you don't have that hunger, I think it's a hard job to maintain. I'm not sure there's the same hunger for all of those things in society. It's not trendy anymore. It used to be the trendy thing that you're a detective with all those TV shows."

Taoiseach Bertie Ahern is one of the few genuine socialists in the country, his former finance minister claimed today.

European Commissioner Charlie McCreevy said he believed the Taoiseach's controversial assertion of his political beliefs.

"Well Bertie pronouncing himself as a socialist wasn't a surprise to me because funny enough, I believe Bertie Ahern is one of the few socialists in Dáil Eireann, and would have said that many many years ago," he said.

There was genuine amazement in political circles when Mr Ahern made the pronouncement in a newspaper interview last year. It was widely seen as an attempt to reposition Fianna Fáil as a party for working class people in the face of Sinn Féin's growing popularity.

The writer and socialist Eamon McCann has said that if Bertie Ahern was a socialist, then "the moon is a balloon, Ian Paisley is a member of Opus Dei and Tony Blair never told a lie in his life".

But Mr McCreevy said that while it was not his job as European Internal Market and Services Commissioner to defend Bertie Ahern, he believed he was a genuine socialist.

"I would have said that many years ago. I said it around the cabinet table, I said it among friends when I wasn't on the airwaves and I believe it. He's one of the very few. I'm not by the way, as you're probably aware."

He told RTÉ radio that Socialist Party TD Joe Higgins was one of two other genuine socialists in the Dáil but declined to name the remaining politician.

MI5|ANDREW DEDMAN MI5

PC Darren Brockwell pictured above was located some time ago at Snow Hill Police station,he was selected to become a "Special" police officer at Snow Hill,although the term "Special" is very much open to interpretation an inference can be drawn from this terminology,there are classified MI5 files held upon him that have been "Leaked" and for this reason the publishers of this article disclaim that they are not involved in obtaining MI5 information,It is rumoured that the Russian Government used agents to collect or trade information,information gathered or produced upon this page is part of "The Dedman

Files". These files were obtained as a result of Mossad obtaining information on far right wing police officers in Britain one of whom was forced to leave the City of London Police Force for reasons that have yet to be classified or declassified or released. Darren is not an ordinary police officer, regular Police officers that work at Snow Hill are kept on Secondary MI5 Data Bases that require less security clearance to open up however they are still classified as MI5 Stock. The area in which Darren operates includes the Barbican Centre where Knighted persons work and attend the Barbican Complex. Security in the City of London where Darren worked is very high level and all Police and Military radio communications are constantly monitored by MI5 Departments for Security Reasons. Darren came from the Banking Industry and was involved in Security work within the Banks. The above picture of Darren Brockwell is freely available on google images and has been confirmed as the same police officer that Mossad has upon its own data bases. Andrew Dedman (MI5) data bases and files included a link up/extension into Darren Brockwell as they both served in the same force City of London Police. Dedman was transferred at around 2003 to an intelligence gathering unit based somewhere in the Wood Street area and was known to Inspector Burgeois through different forms of protocol Darren Brockwell was also linked to Inspector Burgeois site indexes and other MI5 data based material. Darren apparently according to MI5 files received a medal from the Queens of England and was placed on MI5 files with this information. It also states that he was approached by MI5 to start a Gay rights group up in the City of London Police code named CHORUS. If Dedman hadn't of been "clipped" by Mossad then Darrens indexes wouldn't have turned up on Israel Intelligence files. Information upon left wingers obtained by Daren Brockwell was transferred to other European countries perhaps illegally however was then held by European forces despite the persons concerned not having criminal records in Europe where they were based, the information was then leaked and the information then became a risk to the persons life, in other words the persons life was put at risk because of leaking of information obtained by Dedman and his internal indexes - hence The Dedman Files. The information in Europe that was left by the City of London Police ended up in both Russia and Europe giving people passports back into British Intelligence itself...I don't want to have to say this but that's why bent cops have a thousand and one misuses.....

CHORUS is the new name for the City of London Police staff association promoting equality on issues of sexual orientation throughout the force.

"The name was chosen for its meaning - a group of people in unison" said Darren Brockwell, Chair of the group (pictured below).

Chorus, previously known as the Gay Support Network (GSN), was launched in 2003 to support colleagues who identify themselves as gay, lesbi-

MI6 sting operation against the Irish Statutory Body GSOC – The Resignation of Chairman Simon O'Brien a former British Police Officer.

Paste Andrew Dedman MI5 at Yahoo or Google search engines for more info on this fascist creep, according to dark web sources he basically tampered with British Government computer systems and then exported the data to Ireland where far right wing "patsys" made good with the stolen and "faked" info to pay for their cars and houses.

Reliable net sources explain that Andrew Dedman was a former British Army officer who was assigned to work in the police for a time in specialist work but later on in his career left the police in mysterious circumstances, that till this day have never been truly explained. We know from wiki-obtained police data whilst in the British army Dedman worked in south America, and was allegedly involved in espionage work involving operations against South American communists, he was assigned the warrant number 1001 whilst in the police and the last known location for Dedman as a police officer was in an intelligence gathering unit in the City of London. International net sources found Dedman working in Turkey shortly after leaving the police by the Israel Intelligence service. Turkey as everybody knows is the gateway for heroin into Britain and Ireland. Below url is an introduction to Andrew Dedman, remove the wording from the site as jpgs add to your desktop and use magnifier application to read properly.

<https://mi5reference3028.wordpress.com/blog/>

Dublin solicitor and recognised political Author, Kieran Conway (featured above photo) was involved in a District court case in Bray town County, Wicklow, Ireland in we believe 2015, it was a political court case where right wing Journalist Albert Smith lied to convict a left wing socialist writer/net sign poster. The socialist was apparently held on British Intelligence files even before he came to Ireland to live, and had previous dealings with Dedman in the past in the UK. It is Dedman who is thought to have generated the files about the socialist that were leaked illegally to Irish sources but not officially given to the Gardaí.

During the court case in 2015 the Gardaí presented mere hearsay as evidence in the form of a speech read out in court by Albert Smith, where Smith himself attended a court hearing and talked about matters such as the CIA and threats made against him with weapons. Smith's speech convicted the socialist on weapons charges and the socialist was sent to prison. Albert Smith is a known and published far right wing fascist (his previous newspaper articles and promotional work as a sub-editor of the Irish Independent newspaper on convicted fascist and author David Irving proves this).

Articles of interest have in the past appeared on the net providing valuable evidence that explains the socialist stated in emails to an unnamed source at the time that Smith purposely lied in court by seemingly using a prepared and premeditated false speech, and that the judge accepted in court hearsay evidence contained within Smith's own concocted political lies. According to a blog spot web site on the dark web internet discussion came to the conclusion, that by accepting the mere word of Journalist Albert Smith a known far right wing liar in court without any actual witness or any evidence the judge falsely imprisoned the socialist not for an alleged weapons offence that the socialist stated he never committed anyway, but as the blog writers suggested for being found guilty by the far right of being a socialist that exposed a ring of spys operating in Ireland under orders of the British Government. This known espionage activity was exposed through socialist political write ups that the public otherwise would never have read about and was leaked out in the left wing British political press.

In short the socialist investigated what is now termed as "Gardagate" and in the process exposed a cover up by Albert Smith's newspaper the Irish Independent of Simon O'Brien being a former British police officer as chairman of GSOC and his alleged involvement of being part of an alleged MI6 sting operation to "grab" Irish state intelligence held by GSOC. Like Dedman the socialist has always maintained that it was possible the British Government transferred O'Brien to Ireland.

The court case is databased and more information can be found about Albert Smith as an alleged MI6 dogsbody on the net type Albert Smith MI6 below site is evidence that the journalist worked as a sub editor on the Irish Independent see site below:

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2006/feb/20/austria.thefarright>

<http://www.irishtimes.com/business/media-and-marketing/people-put-their-lives-on-the-line-for-the-indo-and-this-is-what-they-get-1.2891166>

Various internet allegations can be found that indicate that Albert Smith worked on Andrew Dedman's generated data bases over a period of many years and that some of the data based files (The Dedman Files) were allegedly transferred secretly by Dedman himself to amongst other the Store street Garda station (against human rights treaties) as these files were held secretly in Ireland by "black" cops.

One article indicates the area where Smith lives (Shore river County Wicklow) was data based by Dedman back in 2002 and that Dedman's own pirated and stolen supplied data (black data, many thousands of types of files passed between bent cops without authorisation) was used by the "patsys" in the Dublin/Wicklow area where Smith lives to help pay the bills. The Gardaí themselves were quite happy to allow the local "patsys" to spy on person suspected of travelling in and around the Dublin Mountains on their behalf and spy is the right usage of word here, the "patsys" were rewarded for their loyalty in pieces of land, discounts, wavers etc obtaining state housing and buildings at cheap rates of purchase, false IDs, credit crunching etc etc.

Left wingers, taxexiles, criminals, suspected IRA members etc who have over the years either fled the UK to live in Ireland for political reasons or set themselves up in business in Ireland where all targeted and followed on behalf of the British and American Intelligence service by "patsys" and bent cops and criminals.

Both the socialist and Journalist Albert Smith were born in the U.K. and so the chances of both these individuals who were technically British, being involved in an alleged false weapons incident together in a remote part of the Republic of Ireland on the top of a mountain isn't a very likely prospect, especially as the alleged incident happened on farmers private property where the socialist had permission to travel from the local farmers (not roads or footpaths).

The unnamed socialist always maintained he was never involved in any weapons incident or that he was even present in the area when such an alleged incident occurred. Apparently in other articles found online the socialist claimed he swore in affidavits in court stating he was not present at the alleged incident. It is therefore logical to presume that circumstantially from an espionage angle there is enough online evidence and information to explain an invented incident/counter espionage tactic was used to illegally convict and punish the socialist writer for producing evidence that exposed amongst other Simon O'Brien chairman of GSOC as a potential MI6 operative and a former British police officer in the left wing press, this apparent inventory of Albert Smith should by now be setting off political firealarms amongst the International left wing.

The publications of the socialist are still found on the internet and these articles indicate very clearly that even before Smith's allegations were made through complaint process an article written by the Socialist exposed Simon O'Brien the chairman of GSOC in the British left wing press as a former British police officer, whilst on the other hand Smith's newspaper at the same time the socialist articles were published on Simon O'Brien being a former police officer, ran a cover up and didn't publish or indicate Simon O'Brien was a former British police officer.

The Irish Independent news paper that Albert Smith worked for didn't print this evidence until much later on after Simon O'Brien resigned from his job after different allegations were put to Simon O'Brien.

So ask yourselves as the readers of this article do you really believe that this socialist writer who exposed a cover up in Smith's own newspaper the Irish Independent just happens all of a sudden to appear before Smith on top of a mountain after exposing his paper running cover ups and then for no apparent reason threatens Smith with a weapon, when the socialist doesn't even know this chap? It sounds oh so bizarre and mathematically inconceivable. The court affidavits even state the socialist wasn't even in the area when the incident took place and he doesn't know Smith as a person or even has held a conversation with the man in his entire life.

<http://www.irishtimes.com/news/crime-and-law/simon-o-brien-to-quit-as-chair-of-gsoc-to-take-up-role-in-uk-1.2057839>

Simon O'Brien later left his job as chairman of GSOC after internal allegations that he was an MI6 operative used to export GSOC files back to MI5 on mass after espionage activity was suspected at GSOC headquarters. It was the socialists published articles that exposed MI5 knowledge of the IPCC and Simon O'Brien obtaining a military based security contract for Verimus security to work in screening Irish Government buildings, in a left wing political party news column that really set the rat amongst the greys.

One of the many articles produced by the socialist explained that the security company sent to Ireland by the IPCC (Verimus) was an MI5 connected company who uses staff from the same British Army regiment that killed Jean De Menezes, whose death ironically was investigated by the IPCC themselves. The IPCC, MI5 and Simon O'Brien collectively obtained the military contract together that got Verimus the work to look for bugs in Simon O'Brien's Irish offices where he was chairman of GSOC all a bit too cosy?

It was leaked out in the Irish Independent that MI6 were involved in looking for bugs in O'Brien's office however the Independent only talked in half truths and when it came to the delivery it failed, it failed to name at the same time that Verimus scanning equipment being used in Simon O'Brien's office was being used to protect a former British police officer. If it wasn't for the press leaks in other papers and other sources the public would never have known that Verimus were operating in Ireland on behalf of MI6 and their operatives, the leak outs gave the security services in UK and America the power to confiscate internally all the GSOC records that MI5 now have because essentially their own operatives were under threat, all though Simon o'Brien always stated he never felt threatened, but he wouldn't be, so essentially without the press leak outs no confiscation of records by the Americans and British would have been obtainable. The files stolen or sequestered due to security breaches about Gerry Adams Sinn Fein leader having secret meetings with drug convicted dealer Kieran Boylan would never have been officially found by MI6 and MI5, allegations that Gerry Adams secret meetings have been going on for years is no news however this article is evidence that it's a club where the spoils get divided and if you expose espionage publicly you can pay a heavy price when publicly you force secret agendas into the press.

Evidence that Verimus security are part of MI5 and have worked alongside them for example the Olympic games contract.

<http://www.verimus-red.com/ourteam.html>

the socialist was followed from Ireland to Europe where he was involved in publishing Smith was part of an ongoing operation into Drugs/terrorism see article here;

<https://gerryhutchblog.wordpress.com/>

Albert Smith didn't care about who he spied upon and the Gardai themselves were always placing and mistaking people in different areas. Smith was stationed according to one internet web site and chosen by MI6 and the British Military to "plant" stories in the independent news paper he wrote an article about convicted fascist David Irving, Irving got 3 years for the books he published that were anti-semitic also Smith appear on Irwing's home site promoting Irwing's banned books incidentally no normal journalist would have consented to promote a fascist like Irving and as Kieran Conway's book names fascists it has to be published here that Conway's past comments on fascists have been published:

<https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/24305635-southside-provisional>

Kieran Conway went up against Garda Patton and sergeant Heraughty of Enniskerry Garda station when he represented the socialist in Bray court. Another Garda involved in these areas was Garda Cullen formerly Stepside now Dundrum Garda Station, he should have blown the whistle on Heraughty and Patton a pair of right wing state protected spies that work for the American and British Intelligence service. The Garda station at Enniskerry has American police force uniform patches in the window the entire Enniskerry village is a MI6/CIA state protected right wing fascist safe haven, you can't publish sites on an Enniskerry Google entry, the powers that be remove any site placed on Google that lands on Enniskerry, try it for yourselves, and yes they follow your signal back to where you live so do it somewhere else! If you type Enniskerry Nazi at Google prompt you find a worrying amount of right wing neo fascist sites all connected to this tiny little village in the countryside of Ireland.

BELOW BRITISH INTELLIGENCE NUCLEAR BUNKER (HERFORD,UK) PART OF ANDREW DEDMAN OPERATIONAL AREA IN NORTH LONDON.

Andrew Dedman left The British Army and joined the British Police, it is believed he was transferred because mathematically the badge number he was allocated to use as a police officer, (every police officer has their own badge or identity number on the "force") was 1001! The emphasis here is the actual mathematical chances of owning this badge number in the British Police are practically ZERO it's a computation that runs into many hundreds of thousands, as there are many hundreds of thousands of police officers so we believe it was a badge number on "Stand by". As we all know 1001 is a British expression or paraphrase only in this particular person's instance it's a thousand and one misuses as opposed to uses. Andrew Dedman by name and nature was not a regular police officer. The name itself is an anagram of ...and your a deadman... A typically sinister calling card left on police files, court paperwork etc. researchers who quite often browse through British Intelligence files and Police Intelligence files would "lock" onto the "coding" of coming across a name of DEATH 1001. Because of his initial location a town known as Hertford, Hertfordshire where he worked as a mere detective constable it is thought that he was part of an undercover military unit within the police or even a secret police officer, that is a police officer who has different roles, his expertise and British Army knowledge would have made him prime time for the job, still being able to work with the British Army itself. This is because 20-30 years ago Hertford was the quintessential MI5 village situated far enough outside of London's capital served with two railway stations (not many towns in UK have two railway stations!) the British railway station from Hertford actually takes trains right inside of the tube station underground!!! Moorgate station to be precise so this made security arrangements for MI5 workers less hassle to get around. Hertford itself is a rabbit warren a complete Maze, it had one of only three types of emergency nuclear underground base stations this can be found on Google by typing <http://www.urbexdevil.co.uk/srhq-4>

regional-government-bunker/ the Town has hundreds of inter connected footpaths,there everywhere,canals,rivers,viaducts,lakes,wooded areas nearby now abandoned air strip..the list goes on and on just look at google maps and everything within 5 miles radius of Hertford itself on the map and twenty years ago the place was a lot more quite and the police where right good chaps.Andrew Dedman for his sins was a nasty right winger who tampered and experimented with systems and law probably the type that was very much aware of people like Oswald Moseley infact Dedman looks remarkably similar to this man.He was a brutally cold police officer across between a ferret and British Army stiff upper lip type although the kind of skinny/medium type build chap that you would find camping somewhere in the middle of the Brecon Beacons eating worms and rumours surfacing on the net indicate he left the police and was found by mossaud agents living in Turkey they apparently got real personal by naming him a man with American armed force tattoos on his left arm on an alleged IDF site in Israel.Dedman probably is part of a sinister network of espionage/crime/drugs as Turkey is not the sort of place a person would willingly live in being British Born no offence to the Turkish people here but it isn't many folks ideal port of call,hes either hiding there or working or both and probably for both sides at the same time if you know what I mean....Dedman tampered with the British Police force PNC computer system leaving a trail of disinformation behind him the extent of which will probably remain another mi5 well kept secret.these types of police officers have been involved in creating DATA BANKS which are not only used by police but Diplomats and British Intelligence which is part of creating the capitalist infrastructure of Britain itself all information is a tradeable commodity and at some point ends up in the Kremlin or Washington.Some folk say that the only thing that's secret about mi5 is where they live and how much money they earn each year everything else goes through the back door in one form or another...sorry chaps but that's the word...Dedman was involved in programming prisoners and the British mafia and Dedman itself is more a ring of pirates or network of people including criminals that help maintain protection within Britain.

CIA stayed silent on allegations it was involved in IRA gunrunning

US intelligence agency seemed to take a blasé approach to Ireland's neutrality in declassified letters just released, writes Nicola Anderson

Nicola Anderson

The CIA stayed silent on explosive allegations it was involved in gunrunning to the IRA at the height of the Troubles, declassified intelligence files reveal.

The concerns were raised in a letter to the director of the Central Intelligence Agency from a congressman who warned it to "speak out vehemently" or risk other criminal and terrorist organisations "finding cover under the CIA umbrella".

It followed the November 1982 trial of five self-confessed IRA gun smugglers - including Michael Flannery, the 80-year-old founder of Noraid - found not guilty of transporting an arsenal of weapons and ammunition into Northern Ireland.

The five claimed they bought the arms from an arms dealer who was an undercover CIA agent.

The CIA, with a licence to export weapons, had aided their operation in order to monitor the flow of arms to Ireland and prevent the IRA from turning to the Soviet Union for arms, the defence claimed.

It was a defence the jury found credible - with a female juror telling press they "firmly believed" the operation could not have continued without government sanction.

The letter from Benjamin A Gilman to William J Casey, director of the CIA, dated November 1982, was contained along with press reports of the trial in a cache of some 13 million pages of documents declassified by the CIA and released on its website.

The move came after lengthy efforts from freedom of information campaigners and a lawsuit against the CIA which culminated in the agency finally releasing the archive which had previously only been accessible at the National Archives in Maryland.

Ireland features in some 3,000 dispatches, reports or newspaper cuttings - ranging from the intriguing to the downright bizarre.

A secret report on Ireland from April 1949 - amid the paranoia of Cold War politics - gave details on political parties, the power of the Roman Catholic church and the negligible influence of communists - with one "Dublin bookseller" considered the only communist of note in the entire country.

The CIA seemed to take a blasé, almost amused approach to Ireland's neutrality and considered us to have a crucial role to play in its own Cold War defences.

"Denial of Ireland to an enemy is an inescapable principle of United States security," it said.

Irish neutrality would "probably be tolerable" but "it could become necessary to utilise Ireland", it warned, before cosily concluding that because Ireland was already ideologically aligned with the West and "strongly Catholic and anti-Communist" would "probably not remain neutral in an East-West war".

The same report detailed Irish political parties, finding little difference between Fianna Fáil and Fine Gael, apart from "personal animosities", but found Fine Gael to be favoured by "the wealthy and conservative elements and those most friendly to the British tend to support Fine Gael".

A confidential report from December 1974 addresses the outlook for Dublin's presidency of the then European Community and notes "Ireland's insistence on staying out of military alliances, its long-standing Francophile biases, and its pragmatic determination to avoid contravening basic British interests".

It also rather sniffily details how "the country's most able diplomats were sent to the major European posts while J. Molloy, the non-political assistant secretary in charge of administration, was sent to Washington".

The CIA shrewdly thought of the practicalities - the difficulty of physical communication - with London being the only EC capital having frequent flights to Dublin.

"The Irish will have their hands full," it concluded.

Meanwhile, in a secret document dated March 6, 1975, the CIA turned its sights to the first threat of Brexit - the UK's referendum for the country's continued support of membership of the EC.

Negotiations between members at a meeting in Dublin "will undoubtedly be prolonged and is expected to have at least a show of cliff-hanging to enhance the chances for a favourable British vote in the pending referendum on EC membership later this year," the CIA surmised.

CIA thought the spoon-bender Uri Geller had some 'psychic powers'

CIA agents came across as slightly naive in files addressing the wonder of illusionist Uri Geller and his spoon-bending capabilities.

The CIA put Geller to the test in 1973, aided by scientists at the Stanford Research Institute.

Geller was locked in a shielded room and asked to recreate the same sketch as that drawn by an experimenter down the hall.

Geller failed several times but succeeded often enough to convince the CIA of his psychic powers.

"We consider that he has demonstrated his paranormal perceptual ability in a convincing and unambiguous manner," the CIA report concluded.

The agency eventually recognized Geller's tricks as the work of an illusionist.

Newspaper stories debunking Geller's claims are contained in the archive with a note saying "just in case you didn't happen to see this".

'UFO calls just dried up'

Flying saucers provided much food for thought for the CIA from the 1940s through to the early 1990s.

Most of the documents concern CIA cables reporting unsubstantiated UFO sightings in the foreign press.

A heavily redacted document said the US Forecast Centre had been "plagued" with calls about UFO sightings, which then stopped.

The Garda Ombudsman's office has been sniffing through journalists' contacts in a probe that lacks teeth.

Scrutiny: Phone records of up to 50 individuals may also have featured in an investigation of alleged leaks around the arrest of Independent TD Clare Daly.

The disturbing revelations that the Garda Ombudsman Commission has been snooping on journalists' phone records confirms the watchdog's predilection for spookery, intrigue – and farce.

It is more than a little ironic that this is the same organisation which created a crisis in the justice system two years ago on a claim, later found to be groundless, that it was the victim of a spy plot of which John le Carré would be proud.

But the drama ended in ignominy for the watchdog as the controversy descended into farce and the plot turned out to be more Austin Powers than James Bond.

But more of that later.

It has now been established that while some GSOC officials were leaking the bugging yarn to the media, some of their colleagues were simultaneously snooping – quite legally – on journalists' phone records to uncover the source of ... garda leaks.

You couldn't make it up.

It would almost be funny if it was not such a serious attack on press freedom – and hypocritical.

We can now reasonably assume that the garda watchdog has been systematically accessing the phone records of journalists suspected of receiving information from gardai, and not just those of the three we know of so far – Conor Feehan of Independent News and Media and the Irish Daily Mail's Ali Bracken and Senan Molony.

An immediate question is what is GSOC doing with all this sensitive information?

The plot thickened yesterday when the Irish Independent revealed that the private phone records of up to 50 individuals, who have no connection to either gardai or media, may also have featured in an investigation of alleged leaks around the arrest of Independent TD Clare Daly in January 2013 – a few weeks before the non-bugging scandal broke in the Sunday Times.

GSOC accessed the phone records of Senan Molony, the Mail's political editor, and after cross-checking the registration details of those he had been in contact with, found the number of a serving garda detective.

They then pulled the garda's records along with those of his wife.

The dogged inquisitors closely scrutinised the data and identified two other serving gardai he had been in communication with around the time of the Daly arrest.

That would have entailed a painstaking trawl through the registration details of the individual owners of all the phones in contact with the garda.

On paper it must have seemed like they had their man.

Only in July last year when he was summoned to a meeting with GSOC did the garda first realise he had been under criminal investigation.

And this is where it descended into farce for the garda watchers.

It transpired that their number one suspect coaches children in his spare time at a local rugby club and was in regular contact with up to 50 parents – including Mr Molony whose child is a member of the club.

For several months GSOC has refused to answer queries from the political journalist.

But following the recent revelations it appears they will be in receipt of many more awkward questions from the unwitting parents who became bit-players in this comedy of errors.

The sombre-toned report into the GSOC bugging controversy by High Court Judge John Cooke, in which he concluded there had been no bugging, is unlike any other such document; it makes for riveting reading.

Despite its dispassionate legalistic language, the descriptions it contains are redolent of a Keystone Cops remake. In a bid to lure potential spies out into the open the judge recalled how GSOC officials and their English security consultants, Verrimus, set up a bizarre James Bond-style sting operation in October 2013.

An internal report was compiled in a document containing deliberately false and misleading information which would have been of major interest to any suspected eavesdroppers.

It was uploaded onto the GSOC computer system which Verrimus claimed had been subjected to cyber surveillance.

According to the Cooke report the bogus document stated that serious "errors" had been made in a previous report on a high-profile GSOC investigation.

The second part of the cloak-and-dagger ruse involved a meeting to "discuss" the false report as if it were true, in the office of the then GSOC chairman Simon O'Brien on the morning of Tuesday, November 19, 2012.

It was attended by the GSOC officers involved in the particular case and two of the commissioners, Carmel Foley and Kieran Fitzgerald.

Simon O'Brien, who was at home in the UK at the time, participated via a conference call using the audio/visual conference system in his office which Verrimus believed was also being secretly monitored.

One can only imagine what happened during the hour-long meeting as the GSOC officials acted out their roles for the benefit of the shadowy spooks lurking in cyberspace.

According to the Cooke Report, GSOC officers and their security consultants were on standby poised to "carry out arrests in the event that the surveillance was discovered".

But nothing happened.

The report also questioned a claim by Verrimus operatives and GSOC staff that a number of men were spotted carrying out surveillance on the GSOC offices.

On that occasion the specialists noticed that the watchdog's wi-fi system had connected - quite normally it later transpired - with the Bit buzz network in a Insomnia coffee shop on the ground floor of the same building.

When one of the operatives went to the shop he saw one person using a "handheld computer or mobile device".

A "white van" with blacked out windows was also spotted parked in the street with a direct line of sight on the offices.

The intrigue deepened further when two men were also supposedly spotted acting suspiciously close to the van.

And in Dublin Airport the English security experts claimed they were photographed by an individual who had them under surveillance.

But the most perplexing aspect of this tense drama is that it appears no effort was made by GSOC to uncover the identity of their spies.

The area in and around the watchdog's inner-city office is festooned with CCTV cameras and the commission has its own system.

Nowhere in Judge Cooke's report was there any explanation of what actions GSOC took.

It is bating that GSOC then launched a secret public-interest investigation and did not collect all the security footage in the area which it is empowered to do.

After all, the Commission regularly seizes footage from pubs where gardai were suspected of drinking on duty.

And then there is the glaring question that would spring to the mind of even the dumbest amateur.

Why did no one check the registration plate on the mysterious white van with the blacked out windows?

Perhaps rumbling journalistic sources is less daunting than unmasking shadowy spies.

The Clinton Foundation: A Typical 'CIA-Directed NGO' That Is Completely Above The Law

Posted on August 8, 2016 by State of the Nation

Emailgate and Servergate Were Not Supposed To Be Exposed; However, Benghazigate Blew Them Wide Open

Hillary and Bill Will Always Operate Outside the Rule of Law Just Like Every CIA Black Operation

Attorney General Loretta Lynch and FBI Director James B. Comey were both given strict orders not to indict Clinton since the agenda of the Deep State always overrides the will of the American people

State of the Nation

The most notorious non-governmental organization (NGO) in the whole world in 2016 is undoubtedly the Clinton Foundation. And why not, Bill Clinton was recruited to establish it as a CIA-directed philanthropic entity that would infiltrate nations around the globe just like most large charitable NGOs do.

Clinton Foundation Pay to Play

THE CLINTON CRIME FAMILY

At least 181 companies, individuals, and foreign governments that have given to the Clinton Foundation also lobbied the State Department when Hillary Clinton was Secretary of State.

This intelligence is then passed onto those predatory American corporation and offshore companies that want to do business in any war zone or disaster area where the NGO has set up shop. Eventually those predatory business entities and shady commercial interests will have taken control of the whole area since they possess the knowhow, personnel, technology and other resources required to effectively address the dire needs of the indigenous peoples. Once they have acquired their trust, they are then free to control the local politics among many other weighty matters.

Comey was prevented from making a criminal referral by his true masters

It ought to be quite obvious now why FBI Director Comey did not make a criminal referral to the Department of Justice regarding both Emailgate and Servergate. It also ought to be obvious why these top law enforcement officers in the land can lie to Congress and the American people with great ease and conviction, persuasion and cavaliness.

Why is the Clinton Emailgate Scandal so HUGE?

Well, for one thing, their very lives depend upon it. If they leave the NWO reservation, the globalists will hunt them down and make an example of them like they did with JFK. Secondly, these public servants learn very early on that they do NOT work for or report to the American people. In fact they

Department of State + Clinton Foundation = Parallel Government

The preceding equation lies at the very heart of this entire scheme that was commandeered by the concerned Deep State entities overseeing the choreographed Arab Spring. All of those alphabet soup agencies used the Clintons to do their dirty work abroad because they both demonstrated an extraordinary aptitude and willingness to do whatever it took to completely rearrange the Middle East. Hence, the marriage was made early on between the Clinton State Department and the Clinton Foundation. In this way there was a rather seamless organizational network put into place whereby Hillary could conduct her gunboat diplomacy throughout the Mideast during the apocalyptic Arab Spring, all the while doing deals that every war profiteer and predatory capitalist would envy.

In this way was Obama himself shielded from much of the war-making and other criminal conduct. By keeping him out of the loop, the supposed Nobel Peace Prize winner could keep at a safe distance and always claim that he was getting rid of tyrants, even though none existed. Since many an American embassy is used as a C.I.A. nest of intrigue and sedition, this is where the implementation plans were directed from before, during and after each revolution and civil war, protest and riot that galvanized the Arab Spring into action.

Former Secretary of State Effectively and Illegally Operated A Parallel Government

This parallel government at State was not too unlike the US shadow government that really directs the affairs of the nation. Of course, that covert entity then reports to the World Shadow Government, so it is easy to understand how very low-level pawns like Hillary and Bill Clinton can get away with so much criminal activity. As long as they follow the orders of their superiors at the CIA and elsewhere within the Deep State apparatus, they can essentially do no wrong.

Conclusion

The upshot of this discussion is that the Clinton Foundation is just one of hundreds of NGOs that do the bidding of the Deep State around the world. Likewise, every State Department staff of every administration executes according to those orders issued by the shadow government of the USA. That

Former CIA Officer and whistleblower Kevin Shipp says the reason for all the crime and treason at the FBI and DOJ all boils down to one thing – the Clinton's so-called "charity."

Shipp explains, "Hillary Clinton was running and is running a global financial criminal syndicate. She was using these secret servers to conduct Clinton financial money laundering business."

"The shocking thing about that is all the former directors of the CIA that have come out to support her, from Clapper to Brennan to Morell to Robert Gates supporting her being elected, knew about this criminal syndicate. Comey was protecting it. Lynch was protecting it. Weissmann was protecting it. And that is the big why. What's she got on these people? Are they financial ties? They had to be aware of this, especially the counter-intelligence units. We know it was hacked into by foreign intelligence services because it was just hanging out there. Hillary Clinton was running a secret server outside the Department of State for the purposes of laundering money through the criminal Clinton Foundation."

Are the crimes and treason of the Clinton Foundation the anvil that is about to drop? Shipp says,

"It's not just an anvil, I think it is a mountain and the nexus of everything. This "Clinton Global Initiative" (CGI) is worldwide, and it's been out there for a couple of decades. It has now intertwined former Directors of the CIA and FBI. George Soros is a part of it. It's connected to all kinds of global financial institutions...*

It is at least a $100 billion...

All these people protecting and defending Hillary Clinton and knowing about her criminal syndicate, this goes into the so-called 'Deep State' of our government, and it is connected, involved and intertwined in the global criminal crime syndicate called the Clinton Foundation. This is probably going to be the biggest scandal in U.S. history—once it's busted. I think they are quietly working on it now, and I think they have been for the last year. It is so huge the arrests and indictments could cause a Constitutional crisis*

Higgins, socialist MP, denounces Bertie Ahern's conversion to socialism.

Ireland Republic

Bertie Ahern, the Irish Prime Minister (or Taoiseach) shocked the Irish nation last November by declaring in the media he was, in fact, a socialist. This comment from the leader of the right-wing Fianna Fail coalition government which has launched neo-liberal attacks on the working class in Ireland, reflects the pressure the government has been under since the local and European elections where they did very badly.

Joe Higgins, a TD (member of the Irish Parliament) for the Socialist Party in Southern Ireland, reacted to this sudden and surprising conversion in the Irish Parliament during Leaders' Questions (17 November) when TD's get the chance to confront the Taoiseach directly. Below we reprint two articles which appeared in the Irish Times on 18 November and the transcript of the Dail debate on the 17 November.

Joe Higgins, like all the public representatives of the cwi, stood for the general election defending a socialist program and the principle of a workers' MP living on a workers' wage. The Socialist Party is affiliated to the cwi. Socialistworld.net.

Irish Prime Minister declares he is a socialist

Comrade Joe examines new ally's credentials

Frank McNally, Irish Times, 18 November 2004

For history students in the Dáil yesterday, the echoes of Russia in 1917 were unmistakable.

Back then, it was an alliance of workers and soldiers, led by a charismatic socialist called Trotsky, that came together to overthrow the establishment. Now, led by a charismatic socialist called Bertie, soldiers (of destiny, in this case) again seemed to be making common cause with workers, while bosses everywhere quaked. The excitement was added to by the return from a trip abroad of Joe Higgins.. There were shades here of Lenin's return from Finland to address the Petrograd Soviet, except, of course, that Mr Higgins's thinking has historically been closer to Trotsky's than Lenin's. It has also been a lot closer to both than to Bertie's. But yesterday Mr Higgins seemed ready to join the Taoiseach in a revolutionary partnership. As he told the Dáil, when he read Mr Ahern's claim to be "one of the few socialists left", he was overwhelmed by feelings of solidarity. He thought: "There's two of us in it - we'll go down together!" Given Trotskyism's bitter experience, however, Mr Higgins needed to know who his friends were. So before the November Revolution could proceed, he set Mr Ahern a test to see if he really was a socialist. Here, his teaching experience took over as he split the question into three parts, seeking the Taoiseach's comments on (a) public ownership (b) "imperialist invasions", and (c) social equality, and advising him to subdivide his allotted reply time equally to each part. To cut a long story short, Mr Ahern's responses earned an F-minus, and immediate expulsion from the Fourth International. Any chance of a pass probably disappeared when the Taoiseach referred to Mr Higgins's "Russian friends". The Kerryman may be a Joe, but he's not an Uncle Joe, and he regretted that under the rules of Leader's Questions, he didn't have time to "educate" the Taoiseach on his relations with "Stalinists". No Stalinesque figure has yet emerged from these turbulent events. But it was noticeable during Taoiseach's Questions that Willie O'Dea - a heavily moustachioed southerner who recently seized control of the Army - occupied the seat beside Mr Ahern, where Mary Harney usually sits. Yesterday also saw the first purge of the revolution, when independent TD Dr Jerry Cowley was sent into internal exile by the Ceann Comhairle. The Mayoman had objected too long after the Taoiseach called him a "right-wing doctor". The same compound adjective is suddenly popular in the Dáil. Defending Aer Lingus workers and expressing scepticism about privatisation, the Taoiseach snarled that he would not bow to some "right-wing economist." To be denounced as a right-wing anything by this revolutionary government could be the beginning of a trip to the salt-mines.

Irish Leader's Unexpected Embrace of Socialism Is Causing a Stir

Brian Lavery, Irish Times, November 21 2004

After 10 years at the helm of Ireland's dominant political party, Prime Minister Bertie Ahern marked the occasion recently with a surprising revelation - a political coming out of sorts - that has had Ireland in a spin.

His declaration was as simple as it was unexpected: "I am one of the few socialists left in Irish politics," he said in an interview with The Irish Times on Nov. 13, shocking his colleagues, infuriating his opponents and bewildering the public into wondering what kind of leader it had elected.

Since 1997, Mr. Ahern's party, Fianna Fail, has led the Irish government in a tight-knit coalition with a small but vocally right-wing party, the Progressive Democrats, which has cracked down on immigrants and taken a pro-business stance to woo foreign investors. So in the debating chamber of the Irish Parliament last week, Mr. Ahern's rivals spluttered with indignation, demanding to know how a man who had presided over year after year of tax cuts could call himself a socialist.

"People mightn't believe this, but I have a very socialist view on life," he told The Irish Times. "What is the best form of equality? It is the fact that the richest family in this area can go on a Sunday afternoon to the Bots" - the national botanical gardens, which are in Mr. Ahern's Dublin district - "and the poorest family can, too." Columnists joked that "Comrade Ahern" had wrapped himself in a red flag that had been made-to-measure by a luxury tailor, and Irish Times letter writers responded, en masse, with incredulity. "A certain asceticism and a willingness to allow the masses to use public parks are not the tests of socialism," one wrote.

The realization sank in quickly, however, that the announcement was anything but a throwaway line for Mr. Ahern, a well-liked and astute politician with his ear always - critics say too firmly - to the ground.

The statement seems to have had an immediate impact on his positions, as he sided with workers by criticizing the management of the state-owned airline, Aer Lingus, in Parliament on Wednesday.

Last summer, Fianna Fail (pronounced FEE-na foyle) suffered the worst electoral defeat in its history, losing seats in local and European legislatures to left-wing groups like Sinn Fein, the political arm of the Irish Republican Army that appeals to working-class voters with a mix of nationalism and grass-roots issues.

As a result, Fianna Fail - its name means Soldiers of Destiny in Gaelic - is softening its image and returning to blue-collar voters who were alienated by policies that are perceived as antilabor. "One's first reaction is to treat this outlandish claim with derision," said Joe Higgins, the Socialist Party's member of Parliament. "But anything that Bertie Ahern says is said with intent." "Socialism hasn't been flavor of the year for several years," Mr. Higgins said. "He knew that he would get a reaction." But even before Mr. Ahern revealed his enthusiasm for socialism, it was considered a legitimate and functional ideology here. Socialists won a handful of seats on local councils in June, and Mr. Higgins, one of the most respected orators in Parliament, gave impromptu lessons in Marxism on current affairs radio this week. Fianna Fail's policies under Mr. Ahern, however, "have been anything but traditionally socialist," said Brian Nolan, an economist with the Economic and Social Research Institute in Dublin. Income distribution in Ireland has always been highly unequal, and the gap between rich and poor grew during and after the boom years of the 1990's.

Taoiseach insists he is a socialist

Irish Times, 18 November 2004

The Taoiseach, Mr Ahern, again insisted yesterday he was a socialist, but distanced himself from the policies of Dublin West Socialist Party TD Mr Joe Higgins. Michael O'Regan reports.

Mr Ahern said his politics and ideology might be closer to those of Labour's Mr Michael D. Higgins.

"I have watched and listened to Deputy Joe Higgins with interest for three decades, but I have never heard him say anything positive.

"He displays what I believe to be a far-left or 'commie' resistance to everything.

"He does so in the hope that some day the world will discover oil wells off our coast which will fall into the ownership of the State, thereby allowing us to run a great market economy with the State at its centre. That utopia does not exist."

Earlier, Mr Higgins said he had been abroad for several days on political work to advance the cause of socialism.

"You can imagine, Cheann Comhairle, how perplexed I was when I returned to find my wardrobe almost empty. The Taoiseach had been busy robbing my clothes.

"Up to recently the Progressive Democrats did not have a stitch left due to the same Taoiseach, but we never expected him to take a walk on the left side of the road."

Mr Higgins said that the words of the writer Tomás Ó Criomhthain had come to mind as he lamented that the likes of the last of the Blasket Islanders would never be seen again.

"I then thought: 'Good, Taoiseach. There are two of us in it, and we will go down together.' Sadly, I had a reality check. If this conversion was genuine, we would have to go back 2,000 years to find another as rapid and as radical.

"Saul's embrace of Christianity on the road to Damascus stood the test of time, but the Taoiseach's embrace of socialism on the banks of the Tolka hardly will."

During the noisy exchanges, Mr Ahern referred to Dr Jerry Cowley (Independent, Mayo) as "a right-wing doctor".

Dr Cowley was expelled from the Chamber when he continued to insist that Mr Ahern withdraw the remark.

The verbatim report of the debate on Wednesday 17 November 2004

Leaders' Questions, Dáil Éireann.

Joe Higgins (Socialist Party): Many of today's newspapers were kind enough to point out that I was not in the House yesterday when the Labour Party leader asked the Taoiseach about his new found commitment to socialism. Ironically, I was abroad for several days on political work to advance the cause of socialism.

Pat Rabbitte (Labour Party): Did the Deputy have the Government jet?

J. Higgins: You can imagine, a Cheann Comhairle, how perplexed I was when I returned to find my wardrobe almost empty. The Taoiseach had been busy robbing my clothes. Up to recently the Progressive Democrats did not have a stitch left due to the same Taoiseach but we never expected him to take a walk on the left side of the street.

J. Higgins: He said: "I am one of the few socialists left in Irish politics". Immediately, Tomás Ó Criomhthain came to mind, as he lamented the last of the Blasket Islanders: "Ní bheidh ár leithéidí arís ann". I then thought: "Good, Taoiseach. There are two of us in it and we will go down together."

Sadly, I had to take a reality check. If this conversion was genuine we would have to go back 2,000 years to find another as rapid and as radical. Saul's embrace of Christianity on the road to Damascus stood the test of time but the Taoiseach's embrace of socialism on the banks of the Tolka hardly will.

I was not impressed with the Taoiseach's answers yesterday so I will set him a test on three brief points to check if he is a socialist. On public ownership, the Taoiseach stated——

The Taoiseach: Is the Deputy inquiring if I am a positive or a negative socialist? He is a socialist of the negative kind.

J. Higgins: We will see if the Taoiseach answers in the positive. Public ownership is crucial for socialists and the Taoiseach stated that he likes the idea that the Phoenix Park and the Botanic Gardens are publicly owned. As has been stated, however, he gave our telecommunications industry to venture capitalists to play around with. Will the Taoiseach answer the question to which he failed to reply just now? The Government is split on Aer Lingus and the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform, Deputy McDowell, wants it to be in private hands. Will the Taoiseach----

An Ceann Comhairle (Chair): The Chair is reluctant to intervene but the Deputy's time is concluded.

J. Higgins: The second test is that democratic socialists never support imperialist invasions and certainly those of the type launched by the US military which is wading in blood through Falluja. The Taoiseach helped the US military to get there. Will he now denounce that atrocity and condemn the murder of an innocent Iraqi as we this morning condemned those obscurantists who murder innocent hostages?

On equality, the Taoiseach stated that he is happy that the children in Rutland Street school are given breakfast there. Why should they be obliged to depend on the school for their breakfast? It is because he has presided over one of the most unequal regimes in the western world which has given huge concessions to big business while poverty remains in our State.

The Taoiseach has three minutes in which to reply. I suggest that he devote one minute to each of the three tests and I will judge his replies at the end.

The Taoiseach: I would never consider that I subscribe to the same kind of politics or ideology as Deputy Joe Higgins.

Michael D. Higgins (Labour Party): The Taoiseach has scored a "D" grade already.

The Taoiseach: My politics and ideology might be closer to those of Deputy Michael D. Higgins. I have watched and listened to Deputy Joe Higgins with interest for three decades but I have never heard him say anything positive. He displays what I believe to be a far left or "commie" resistance to everything. He does so in the hope that some day the world will discover oil wells off our coast which will fall into the ownership of the State, thereby allowing us to run a great market economy with the State at its centre. That utopia does not exist.

What I said yesterday when the Deputy was not present is that----

J. Higgins: I read what the Taoiseach said yesterday. He should just answer the questions I have put to him now.

The Taoiseach: ----at the core of left centre political ideology is the desire to spread the wealth more evenly. That means that people must be encouraged to create the wealth. When this is done, they are taxed and the money collected is used to resource them.

An Ceann Comhairle: Deputies should allow the Taoiseach to continue, without interruption.

The Taoiseach: Deputy Joe Higgins is against wealth creation and, as a result, he favours high unemployment, high expenditure and high borrowing. Any of the tests the Deputy would set me fail on the grounds that he does not believe in them. That is the issue. What we do is create the wealth, thereby allowing ourselves to employ 100,000 people in the health services to care for others, tens of thousands of teachers, many community care professionals and resource and home liaison teachers and teachers to look after the disadvantaged in our schools. That is what our brand of socialism allows us to do. The Deputy's brand of socialism has changed so much in recent years. As he is aware, one of the reasons for the rise in oil prices is because his friends in Russia have decided that the market economy can afford $50 a barrel. That is what is wrong with Deputy Joe Higgins's policies. I would be delighted to discuss the matter with him on the Blaskets or elsewhere whenever he likes.

J. Higgins: The basic advice a teacher gives to a pupil who is going in to do an examination is not to spend the entire time on one question.

An Ceann Comhairle: Unfortunately, under Leaders' Questions the Taoiseach must focus on one question and not on three.

Dermot Ahern (Fianna Fáil): The problem is that one cannot sack a teacher.

J. Higgins: It was one question, divided into parts (a), (b) and (c). The Taoiseach, not being able to answer parts (a) or (b), spent all of his time trying to answer (c). On that alone, he has flunked the test. He has also flunked his history test by putting my type of socialism in the same gallery as that of the Russian Stalinists. I do not have time - unless the Ceann Comhairle will provide it - to educate the Taoiseach about that matter. He referred to my friends in Russia.

The Taoiseach: They are not communists any longer, they joined the WTO.

Willie O'Dea (Fianna Fáil): Trotsky was the same.

J. Higgins: My friends were murdered by the Stalinists. Trotsky and other fine socialists were killed because they stood for democratic socialism.

An Ceann Comhairle: The Deputy's minute is exhausted.

J. Higgins: The Taoiseach stated that he has spread the wealth around. That is a curious statement, particularly as he has given €600 million to big business in corporation tax cuts, allowed tax exiles to get away with murder while ordinary people are obliged to pay through the nose and allowed stud farm owners and the rest to operate tax free while ordinary people are obliged to pay out massively through stealth taxation and in other ways. The Taoiseach should do the honest thing and withdraw the ludicrous claims he made at the weekend. Let us return to normal. Socialism is not a flag of convenience to be used after one's party has been battered in the local and European elections in order to pretend that one is a friend of working people.

The Taoiseach: In reply to Deputy Joe Higgins, my point is that one cannot distribute resources to education, health and social welfare unless wealth is generated. Deputy Higgins's outrageous accusation against me that corporation tax has been lowered is not true. The facts are that the rate of corporation tax has soared from 4% to 9% of GNP during my period as Taoiseach. The Government through its policies has taken far more from the corporate tax sector by having lower taxes and generating far more activity in the economy. There are over 400,000 more in employment and lower unemployment figures---

Joan Burton (Labour Party): The recent corporation tax yield is down. That is a matter of fact.

The Taoiseach: The Government has been given the resources to spend far more.

J. Burton: The Taoiseach is wrong. His ready reckoner is wrong.

The Taoiseach: That is how we can have more doctors, more nurses, more therapists, more teachers. When the then Minister for Finance Deputy McCreevy halved the rate of capital gains tax, the Government gained four times more revenue. By having lower taxes, we were able to spend more. I quoted a figure yesterday in the House in the Deputy's absence which proves that the average industrial wage is now €10,000 more than it was seven years ago. Even taking the tax rate then and the different tax rate now, a person on that salary is paying €300 less. This shows the success of what we do. I know that the Deputy is actually an admirer of that also.

D. Ahern: That is our legacy.

Allegations found on internet sites in April this year 2020, make it clear that former Irish Independent Newspaper sub editor Albert Smith misused his position of power politically to his own ends by celebrating, endorsing and approving the public sale of literature produced by self confessed convicted fascist David Irving. It was uncovered by Russian Yandex hackers that it was Smiths own personal decision and plan of action, none other, acting as a sub editor of the Irish Independent newspaper, to oversee the publication of an article produced and written personally by himself that would promote the sale of Irwings published fascistic books collectively by describing them as a scholarship.

After the Guardian Newspaper announced David Irwings jail conviction in for production of anti semitic literature it was expected that the NUJ under its own rulings and regulations would automatically turn there own immediate attentions to any Newspapers or journalists that had in the past prior to Irwings conviction blatantly collaborated with Irving themselves in producing anti semitic publications for Newspapers. European laws thankfully prohibit actual production of any form of anti semitic articles in Newspapers for public sale, however despite the recent discovery by Russian Yandex hackers of the obvious illegal activity of the Irish Independent Newspaper the National union of journalists the (NUJ) have been found guilty of failing to take legal actions against known journalists within their organization that have seemingly committed anti semitic criminal offenses in the past when there is more than enough evidence to start summary proceedings against them.

The NUJ as an acting body does not identify the historically published anti semitic incident produced by the Irish Independent even though evidence of the newspaper article is still in existence and online today. At the time of Irwings convictions there where no NUJ investigations. Yandex sources indicate Albert Smith is at present 2020 payed a regular weekly income from the Irish Independent Newspaper which is a completely disgraceful situation.

In Summary Dennis O Briens newspaper the Irish Independent is guilty of being antisemitic,yet nobody in Ireland is prepared to prevent the Irish Independent from appearing in the downloadable version of David Irvings Goring Biography.The book Gorings Biography was used as evidence to convict David Irving here;

Dennis O brien is the richest man in Ireland and heres proof of the existence of the New World order.

The book Clinton cash explains how people like OBrien where used in attempt to buy Hilary into power,the evidence itself is that O Brien apparently has no suitable legal instrument to remove his newspaper article from the book Gorings Biography.

In summary the Sinn Fein Tds mentioned to the right of this column on Dark Politricks and the rest of the Irish Government all remain silent whilst Albert Smith still gets paid a weekly wage by the Irish Independent for his dirty deeds.Dennis O brien the owner of the Irish Independent is judged also as an antisemitic power monger as he cant be bothered paying for an injunction to prevent the convicted nazi author of Gorongs Biography from publishing the Irish Independents endorsement found in the book.

London CT Publishing -analysis

Wikileaks themselves as an organisation gave the press Hillary Clintons emails-nobody else.Julian Assange is a very shrewd man and his sources are not known,American politics is one of the most treacherous substances known to man and the Clinton Foundation is a political organisation with close ties to the CIA working on inside Government information.Trump at present is being investigated by the FBI for amongst other his alleged dealing with the "mob".Hillary was seen by some as a mouth piece for a potential new hidden inside President Bill Clinton.You have to examine the hidden possibility that Craig Murray was working with MI6 when he obtained the emails in America as nobody in the right minds would steal from the Clintons knowing it would change the election result.Only MI6 could have protected murray from prosecution if he had been caught carrying the emails,if Bill and Hillary Clinton could have arrested Murray for the offence of obtaining stolen emails they would have used the FBI without hesitation.The CIA dislike Murray and insiders couldnt give Murray any Guarantees the only insurance would have been given to Murray against possible arrest would be the likes of British Intelligence.Former British Intelligence Officers david Shayler and Annie Machon have published information on British intelligence operations that provide evidence of how the most unlikely of persons can work for british intelligence.Whether they will expand on Craig Murray is another question,the CIA cany directly Implicate double agents within MI6 working for Putin perhaps they are just being diplomatic about it.the Clinton foundation would have been legitimised and white washed if Clinton had been elected and vast amounts of funding would have been directed its highly likely "bent" CIA officers got bribes for leaking internal info out to the russians on the Clinton Foundations activities.Craig Murray must be treated with suspicion as there are plenty of accounts of corruption he could expose in Britain,the British government itself and bent cops have been leaking out files on British citizens for years against human rights(The Dedman Files -Google).London CI stated ays before the realese of Vault7 that Julian Assange is probably working for "bent" CIA officers,is he signing CIA disclaimers with Pamela Anderson or just playing fool of all Tooles?-The war of patches continues! Linux versus Microsoft,Android versus I Phone,Mob foundations versus State Foundations its the same old story.Russian gas could have been part of an inside deal once its pumped into Britain its then pumped over to Ireland Secretary of State Rex Tillerson is alleged to have connections to Russian gas fields.

Wikileaks email affair

Craig Murray -The weak link.

Craig Murray is described by Julian Assange of Wikileaks as a close associate ,murray grew up in norfolk a political liberal who disliked certain aspects of his schooling.It was Murray that was chosen by Wikileaks to obtain Hillary Clintons emails that Wikileaks fed to the press.The CIA later claimed thatHillary Clintons leaked emails cost her the election.,the CIA also stated they believed Russian hackers where to blame,later on Julian Assange admitted that craig Murray flew to America to obtain the stolen emails.In June 2016 wikileaks stated to the New York times that they hoped stolen emails would harm Clintons chances of winning the election.Craig Murray was a former British Ambassador who worked from 2002-2004 in Uzbekistan whilst in office he exposed torture and killings allegedly carried out by the secret service and claims were made that torture was used to obtain intelligence that would be used to write CIA reports.murray maintained that his revelations cost him his position as Ambassador because he was placed on "trumped" up charges after he gave evidence to the Home Office,the charges didnt land him in any trouble however he admitted to allegations that he misused his position of power to obtain sex,which later cost him his marriage -in his own words he asked Nadira Alieva a belly dancer who worked in a Brothel "to give up the club and be my mistress"-which she did.Today she no longer has any contact with Murray.

America at the time was using an airbase in Uzbekistan to bomb Afghanistan so the CIA where heavily involved in Espionage in this country and where running operations.In 2005 the British Law Courts ruled that Secret Service evidence that may have been obtained from torture was inadmissible in UK courts.In short Murray exposed CIA Operations in Uzbekistan and washington was not happy,thats why Murray himself maintains the charges were a backlash to his work and that the charges put to him internally that never got anywhere were part of a plan of action.Craig Murray later wrote a bok titled "Murder in Samarkand",Its more than fair to say that he uncovered a brutal CIA regime however most normal persons in his shoes would have done the same thing,at that particular moment in time it was expected from washington and certain Home office types that everyone in the know was supposed to keep tight lipped on grounds of National Security,if Murray hadnt abused his power in obtaining sex then the charges may never have been brought against him there were allegations that the belly dancer who became his mistress was questioned about alleged involvement with Al Qaeda,the sexual relationship he had cost him his marriage.

The Clinton election emails

The CIA were quick to blame the Russians for the leaking of stolen emails belonging to Hillary clinton,whilst Wikileaks have stated clearly that they were "leaks" not hacks and were obtained from a source"who had legal access to the emails" from what can be understood Craig Murray flew to America-Uni-northwest D.C and met person(s) in a wood,these person(s) who passed on the emails to Murray were not the person(s) that directly obtained the information they were couriers/mules.The emails were handed over because quote "Disgust at the Clinton foundation",so clearly it was Craig Murray that obtained the emails for wikileaks NOT the Russians.It was later stated that the source(the persons who stole the emails) had legal access to them not as the CIA had indicated to the press that Russians had "hacked" the emails.US Intelligence sources informed congress they believed emails where given to Wikileaks bt Russian hackers,CIA spokesman also stated at the time that Russias objective was to favour one candidate over another,further CIA conclusions stated that Russia conducted operations during the 2016 US election to prevent hillary Clinton form winning the

06/10/03 - Residents no strangers to cold-blooded killings
EMMA PALMER
Mercury

Mercury chief reporter EMMA PALMER looks at the latest in a lethal list of violent crimes to have hit our 'sleepy market town'

A father of four gunned down in broad daylight, a 29-year old dog walker savagely attacked in the woods by a maniac and a devoted wife shot in the back on her own driveway - welcome to the 'sleepy town' of Hoddesdon.

That's not forgetting the young rugby player from the town who was slaughtered to death with a samurai sword just a few miles away.

Drive-by assassins firing automatic weapons in the middle of a busy street - you could be forgiven for thinking you are in LA's south central or the Bronx in New York instead of quiet, uneventful Hoddesdon.

But the murder of gangster Dave King on Friday is the latest in a lethal list of violent crime involving guns and other weapons to hit the area - and with gun crime soaring in rural towns, the question on everyone's lips here in Hoddesdon is will it be the last?

The TV news bulletins that bombarded homes across the country at the weekend, reported the execution of Mr King as occurring in a 'sleepy Hertfordshire market town'.

But the Mercury isn't so sure this label is warranted.

Leading the investigation into the murder of the builder from Stevenage, Chief Supt Andy Wright said: "Our thoughts are with Mr King's family following this tragic accident.

"I would also wish to give a measure of reassurance to the local community that, despite the highly distressing nature of this tragedy, it is important to understand that this was an isolated incident and not indicative of a general rise in offences in the Hoddesdon area or Hertfordshire as a whole.

"Nevertheless, it would be foolish of me not to acknowledge that the events of Friday morning were shocking and clearly of concern to local people."

But despite Chief Supt Wright's reassurances, the figures are there in black and white. Violent crime, particularly gun crime, is soaring all over the UK, but most alarmingly it is spreading out of the city suburbs and into peaceful countryside towns.

This week the Association of Chief Police Officers admitted that gun crime is growing like a cancer - and particularly spreading to smaller, rural communities such as Hoddesdon.

But Hoddesdon residents are no strangers to cold-blooded killings.

Only three years ago the town was rocked by the brutal murder of the wife of a wealthy Hoddesdon businessman when she was gunned down along with her family on her own driveway

Josephine Martorana was shot in the back as she stood outside the executive Yewlands home she shared with her husband Joe, on August 28, 2000.

Mrs Martorana was standing with her husband when she was shot by cold-blooded killers Jason James and Daniel Whyte, who then robbed the couple of their Rolex watches worth £13,000 apiece.

The wife and mother was shot in the back and died several weeks later in hospital. Mrs Martorana's son and his girlfriend were also shot at point-blank range during the robbery and spent months recovering in hospital.

The killers were caged for a total of 45 years between them for the horrific murder, which ripped a family apart and left the town stunned.

The National Union of Journalists have still yet to remove a racists sympathizer !!

Albert Smith Parpoint Publishing (pictured above), despite extensive web exposure still remains an NUJ Life member. Legal action served on the NUJ in the form of a report or finding is without doubt needed, and should in our professional opinion be based around anonymous yandex sourced information that appeared some time ago inside of one of the many of Elliot Higgins personalized journalist presentations found published regularly online.

PARPOINTS ONGOING CONNECTIONS WITH THE CRIMINAL BASED NEO FASCIST ORGANIZATION PARFORCE Bellingcats archived intel should be considered as reliable legal evidence which we believe can be used to force the NUJ itself politically to sever from the NUJ listed Company known as Parpoint, along with its proven connections with Neo Nazi extremist Groups in Europe. The only way to solve this organizations continued refusal to deal with the problematic issue of Albert Smiths Irish Independent Newspaper company Parpoint being derived from the "blood and honor" of Parforce/Focal Point, the two copyright publishing companies found printed inside of the Holocaust denial, digital publication Goring Biography where Smith is found today describing the publication as a "good offering" is to continually expose the NUJ itself for not removing a self confessed racists sympathizer from their organization.

*THE NATIONAL UNION OF JOURNALISTS GUILTY OF HARBORING A RACISTS SYMPATHIZER?***

Both the UK public and journalists alike have a legal right to prevent the far right in Europe from operating with NUJ members. Parpoint/Parforce material is generating revenue from producing far right wing publications at the expense of the NUJ.
